LEGAL NOTICES

Call for Bids for Transportation. The Board of Directors of School District No. 90 will receive bids until August 19th, 1933, for transportation to Medford of school children of said district. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Further information may be received from B. M. Kline, chairman, Rt. 3, Medford; May E. Chirgwin, clerk, Rt. 3, Medford.

Friends in this community were surprised to learn of the death of Mrs. Nellie Roberta Gall Sunday. Mrs. Gall was a resident of this district thirty years ago and is well remembered by old time residents. Mrs. E. A. Edvardson of Harbor is visiting this week, with Mrs. Pete Bureson.

Arrangements are also being made so that illustrated talks may be given at the two camps, according to word received by commanding officer, Major Clyde H. Armstrong, at headquarters here.

The subjects of the lectures are national park service, its history and purpose, geological history of Crater Lake, fire suppression and fire control, trees of Pacific northwest, the animals of the park, bears, their habits and antics, the mountain lion, the story told by rocks, the American Indian, Indian legends and myths concerning Crater Lake, Oregon and Crater Lake yesterday and today, winter sleepers of Crater Lake national park and sun doggers of Crater Lake.

Some Medford business men are still buying their printing from canvassers who live in Medford but who send the orders out of the city and county to have the printing done. Not a very good way to build up home industries and put over the N. R. A. Insist that your printing be done at home.—(Adv.)

TO IMPROVE PRICES BUTTER AND CHEESE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—(AP) Secretary Wallace announced today that a decision has been reached to provide a fund of "not less than $30,000,000 to carry on a marketing operation to purchase enough butter and cheese to improve present dairy prices."

Described as an emergency plan to strengthen the whole dairy industry, the announcement said funds would be raised by the dairy industry itself.

Anderson Creek

ANDERSON CREEK, Aug. 18.—(Sp.) Mrs. Henry of this creek, who was in an accident on Jacksonville road Saturday night, is very much improved.

Mrs. Jas. McDevell and son and daughter moved to Medford Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Green were out to Ashland Thursday.

Miss Nellie Yorkenson was in Medford shopping Saturday.

William Shann and Lorin Close were in Medford Tuesday.

Alfred Benningfield is spending a while with Jack Redel.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarno and son Nick spent the week-end in Grants Pass.

Miss Ruth Mays called on Miss Bon Nell Jones Wednesday.

Mr. Rominger and son were out to Ashland Tuesday.

Steve Lunak was in Talent Tuesday.

Frank Casey was in Medford Saturday on business.

The hottest day here this year was Tuesday, with the temperature standing at 100.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mays were in Ashland Thursday.

George Young spent Monday and Tuesday in Medford.

Sunday callers at the Mays home were Mr. and Mrs. James McDowell, Frank Centers and Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Redel.

Notter. Some Medford business men are still buying their printing from canvassers who live in Medford but who send the orders out of the city and county to have the printing done. Not a very good way to build up home industries and put over the N. R. A. Insist that your printing be done at home.—(Adv.)

Central Point

CENTRAL POINT, Aug. 18.—(Sp.) Picnic sponsored by the senior ladies' class of the Federated church, and held in the city park Thursday night, was an enjoyable affair. Group singing was led by Mrs. Wyatt; a duet and piano accompaniment by Mrs. and Mrs. W. C. Starna.

Mrs. E. C. Plene, who returned recently from a visit with her daughter in Portland, reports her son-in-law, Frank Taylor, who has been in a hospital for the past eight months with spinal trouble, is now able to be up and walk some distance without the aid of crutches. Their many friends here will be glad to learn of his recovery and hope he will soon be able to return here.

Soldiers' reunion at Ashland will be held August 24, instead of in September, as previously announced.

Mrs. Stella Coby of Medford was a guest of Mrs. L. H. Smith Friday.

C. E. Smith and children, who took advantage of the rates to Portland to see the frigate Constitution and visit relatives, returned Monday.

At the meeting of Roxy Ann Grange held recently, announcement was made that the logs for the new Grange hall had been cut, and the organization is now receiving bids for hauling.

A large number were in attendance at the gathering of the Grange, and a membership drive was opened, with Mrs. J. W. Murphy named captain of the blue team and W. C. Anderson captain of the orange team.

At the gathering this Friday, the men will have charge of the program and refreshments. Gene Cameron will be chairman for the evening. Sunday the grangers and their families will motor to the Lithia park at Ashland for a picnic.

Last Wednesday the home extension unit met with Mabel Thornton, with about 20 ladies present. Mabel C. Mack, county home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration of canning beans, corn and meat.

Registration will be from 10 a. m. until noon, when a picnic dinner will be served with coffee, cream, sugar and ice cream furnished by the organization. Those attending are asked to bring their own picnic lunches and table service.

The picnic dinner will be followed by business session and program in the Civic clubhouse, beginning at 1:45 o'clock. Each relief corps is asked to furnish two numbers on the program.
