

Colorful Chinese Matman Will Meet Ted Thye on Jubilee Card

ORIENTAL USES CHOKER HOLD TO PINION FOEMEN

Jacksonville Open Air Arena Will Be Scene of All-Star Matches Saturday Even- ing, Starting at 9:15

Southern Oregon wrestling fans who saw something new in the way of holds recently when Lee Wolfe performed against Ted Thye, using his turn-over scissors, will again have opportunity of witnessing an innovation in mat tactics when Wong Bock Cheung, giant Chinese, meets Thye at the Jacksonville Jubilee Saturday night.

Cheung, who weighs over 200 pounds has been winning a majority of his matches since coming to the coast a short time ago. Most of his victories are achieved by means of his spectacular "Manchurian choke hold." In applying this grip the Oriental takes a position behind his adversary and pulls his foe's arm across his own neck. It is an exceedingly hard hold to break and one which a foe cannot long endure with breath shut off.

Thye Faces Task
The Chinese has demonstrated his ability to take some of the best mat men on the coast and "High Hat" Teddy will find his work cut out for him in trying to maintain his long string of victories in these parts.

Cheung and Thye are scheduled to wrestle one hour or until one gains a pair of falls.

At Maradick, who local ring followers would like to see pinned, will take on Everett Kibbens, Oklahoma collegian, in a 45-minute set-to which should keep the cash customers on the edge of their seats.

Two Favorites Meet
Two favorites, whose previous clashes have provided plenty of arguments for the hot stove league, will be seen in a thirty-minute curtain raiser when Fireman Ray Frieble and Pete Belcastro are herded together in the ring.

Pets, according to his own claim, always gets a raw deal in Medford, but the belligerent Italian is always glad to come back to this neck of the woods for another shot at Frieble or any other foe whom Promoter Lillard cares to line in.

Saturday's mat melee will be held in connection with the annual Gold Rush Jubilee at Jacksonville, a special open air arena having been built for the purpose. The card, which was arranged through co-operation of Mack Lillard, Medford promoter, and the Jacksonville Jubilee committee, will start promptly at 9:15 tomorrow evening.

SEATTLE GIRLS MEET AGAIN IN GOLF FINALS

TACOMA COUNTRY AND GOLF CLUB, Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 18.—(AP)—The same two Seattle girls who have been doing a juggling act with the Washington women's golf crown were at it again today, but this time they were meeting each other in the 36-hole finals of the state tournament for the first time.

Mrs. O. B. Johnson, defending champion and twice winner of the title and Miss Hilda McAulan, a former victor, were the two finalists who were vying for the honor of ruling over Washington's golfing sisterhood for another year. Mrs. Johnson won the crown in 1930 and 1932, and Miss McAulan in 1929.

BAMBINO MAY NOT SIGN FOR ANOTHER FULL YEAR

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Unless the aging Babe Ruth (baseball speaking) feels as if he can play the entire season next year, the New York Yankee management needn't worry about compensating him for all the 134 games.

This the great home run slugger revealed while here with the Yankees for their series with the St. Louis Browns.

Asked if his layoff during the first part of the series was any indication that he planned to retire in 1934, the Babe replied:

"I can't answer that, because I don't know. But one thing is certain—I'm not going to sign a contract for next year unless I feel that I can play the full season. It would not be fair to the owners to sign for a full year and then play only a third of the season."

After appearing only as a pinch hitter during the first two games of the Yankee-Brown series, Ruth returned to the lineup yesterday and hammered out his 27th home run of the season. Only Jimmy Fox of the Athletics has done better during the current race.

GEHRIG'S RECORD ONLY BRIGHT RAY FOR N. Y. YANKEES

By HUGH S. FELLERTON, Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

While the New York Yankees were finding that Lou Gehrig's brand new major league endurance record, established yesterday when "Buster Lou" played his 1,308th consecutive game with a minimum of ceremony, was about the only bright spot they have seen on their current western trip, Washington's Senators were equalling a record of sorts and at the same time learning that Monte Weaver can be of great assistance to them in their pennant drive.

Weaver, who was rendered inactive during the large part of the season by a sore arm, let the Chicago White Sox down with four hits to win his third straight victory since he got back into service, by a 14-1 score. It was the ninth in a row for the Senators, equalling the season's long-run mark, made by the Yankees.

The fact that Gehrig became the official major league "iron man" by surpassing the record set by Everett Scott, former Yankee shortstop, before Lou broke into the big league, and Babe Ruth's celebration of the end of his two-day vacation by busting his 27th homer of the season, still couldn't save the Yankees from a 7-6, 10-inning defeat by the St. Louis Browns.

The Cleveland Indians continued to make life miserable for the Philadelphia Athletics by plastering out 19 hits for 33 bases off George Earnshaw and three throwers who followed him, to win the series final, 15 to 4. The victory gave them exclusive possession of fourth place as the combination of Bob Welland's five-hit hurling and Eldon Auker's wildness gave the Boston Red Sox a 6-2 victory over Detroit.

The New York Giants again improved their position in the National league, taking another game from Cincinnati by a 7-2 count while the weather kept their leading rivals inactive.

The second place Pittsburgh Pirates and third place Chicago Cubs were rained out at Brooklyn and Boston respectively, giving the Giants a 4½ game lead over the Buccaneers.

Boston's idleness enabled the St. Louis Cardinals to gain a tie for fourth place by walloping the Phillies 9 to 5, in a game marked by home-run swarming. Joe Medwick walloped two homers and Jim Collins one for the Cards, while Chuck Klein countered with his 20th of the season.

CHIEF OF TOURNEY PRAISES ENTRANTS AND FAITHFUL FANS

By LES SHOWERS.
Before leaving for the east I wish to say a word for the splendid games of both the fighters and the spectators incident to the Legion's amateur boxing tourney that closed at the Army here last Wednesday night.

The courage of the fighters was proved by the manner in which they tore into each other despite the blistering heat. They performed well and I know that the spectators will agree with me that it took gameness on the part of the fighters to even enter the ring the last night of the meet after having endured the terrific heat that prevailed throughout the duration of the tourney. You did fine, boxers. You are to be commended for your gameness.

The spectators also displayed courage and 100 per cent sportsmanship for also enduring the sweltering heat of the three nights of the tourney. The regrettable thing about the tourney was that it could not have been offered during the fall season instead of in August.

With the heat wave at its height a large number of fighters, after realizing they would have had to perform in the Army, notified us they feared the ordeal might impair their health and withdrew from the tourney without putting in appearance. And no one could justly blame them, either.

There was splendid co-operation from the press, Legion officials, members of the Medford boxing commission, managers, fighters and Dr. A. F. W. Kresse, who was on hand to render services when needed; Dr. E. C. Wilson, who assisted; Al Piche, who put up a wonderful trophy. And, say, wasn't Major Clare Armstrong right on deck when it came to entering his C. C. C. camp contestants? The major's athletic officer, Lieut. George A. A. Jones, is to be commended, too, along with the other officials.

Gameness is usually shown only by the fighters in amateur ring tourneys, but in the Medford event the courage of fighters and spectators alike were given the well-known "acid" test, or should I have used the word "heat" instead of "acid" in this respect. In closing wish to say Mr. Russell and I are happy we worked in Medford and despite the limited crowds we are leaving town with happy thoughts of the city in mind.

SEATTLE ARCHER TOURNEY WINNER

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—(UP)—Ralph Miller, 17, of Seattle, Wash., won the archery tournament today at the world's fair with a score of 2695.

Miller won the national archery championship last week in St. Louis. His score in the fair tournament was 269 points better than that of William Brink, Chicago, his nearest competitor.

Forty persons competed in the three day tournament here.

Frank Brest of Fullerton, Cal., was third with a score of 2210; R. H. Collins, 16, of Tulsa, Okla., fourth with 2194, and William Ostlund, Chicago, fifth with 1843.

LEGION JUNIOR DRAWING MADE

POCATELLO, Ida., Aug. 18.—(P)—Woodburn will play Walla Walla in the second game of the annual district American Legion baseball tournament opening here this afternoon. Pocatello will lead off against Millis City.

The drawings were announced late last night after a long discussion involving a technicality in the filing of the names of the members of the Woodburn team.

The first game will be played at 1:30 p. m. (M. S. T.) and the second two hours later. The finals will be played Saturday afternoon and the winner will represent the district in the sectional playoff at Topeka, Kans. next week.

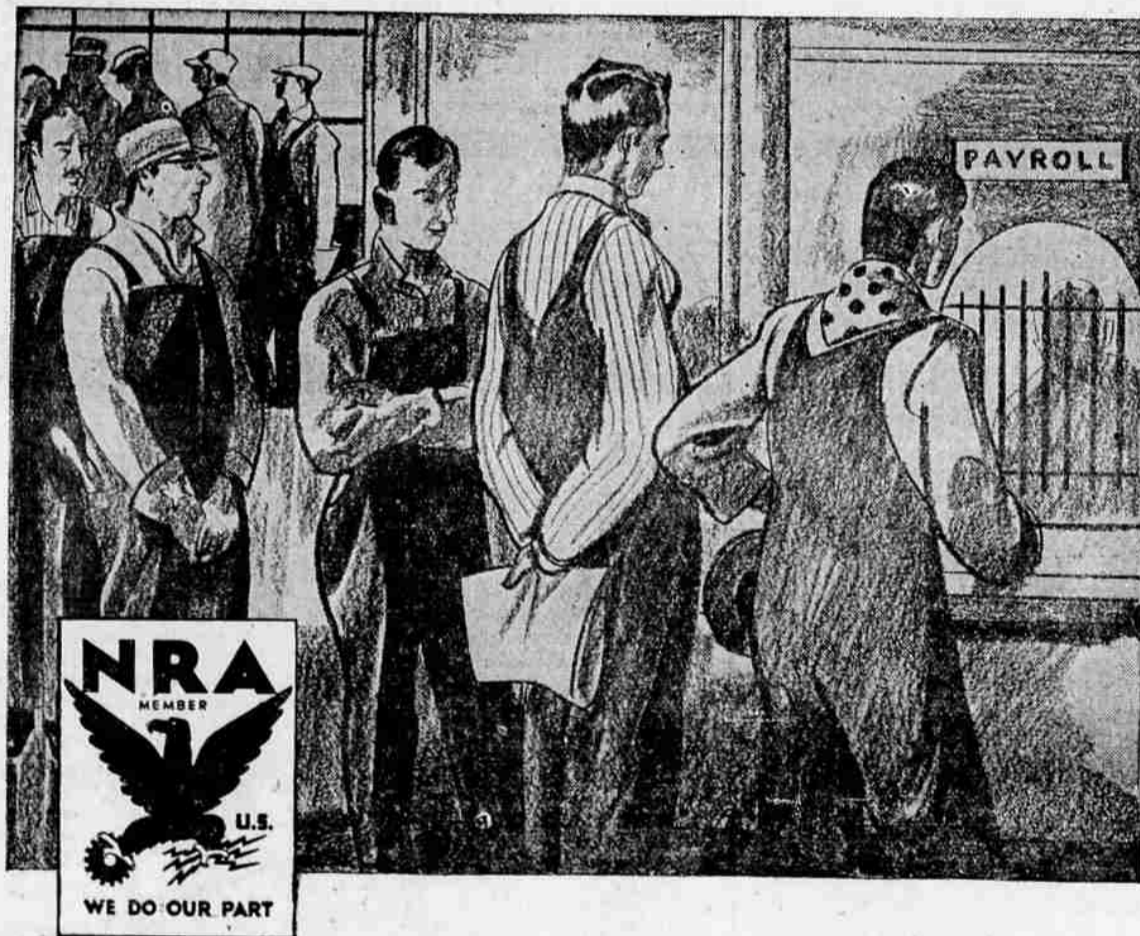

All players of the four teams, champions of Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, with their managers and coaches, were guests of the Pocatello post of the American Legion at a banquet last night.

Bread...cast on the waters

IT WON'T BE many days before the bread you cast on the waters in the shape of shorter hours and higher minimum wages comes back in the form of PROSPERITY!

For you're making your own market.

When you sign the President's Reemployment Agreement, cut down working hours, take on more people, increase minimum wages—you're giving people money to spend.

They won't spend it for your product, perhaps. But they'll spend it for things they want—and that will put money in the pockets of the people who want your things.

It's a pleasant circle. Higher wages—more demand for goods. Greater demand—easier to pay the higher wages.

You've felt this ball start rolling during the last few months. Don't let it stop! You can give it your push this very day by signing the President's Reemployment Agreement—and by buying from those manufacturers and retailers that display the pledge that they, too, have signed.

Hurry up!

—Now's the time to proclaim
WE DO OUR PART!

Girl Golfer Who Defeated Prince Says He's "Cute"

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—(P)—Beatrice Gottlieb, the tiny American miss who beat the Prince of Wales playing golf, returned today from England on the President Roosevelt with the spoils of her victory—seven golf balls and a score card signed in a bold hand, "Edward, P."

She won the balls the day she defeated the English heir 7 and 6 in an 18-hole match.

"He was awfully nice," she said, "with an awful cute walk and the cutest blue eyes."

"I guess I was awfully naughty once. When I missed a shot I said 'Nerts,' but the Prince just laughed."
