

MEMBERS OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S NEW SUPER-CABINET

An executive council to coordinate the drive against the depression has been created by President Roosevelt. The group, composed of the chiefs of various extraordinary agencies set up to cope with the depression and members of the cabinet, will meet each week supplanting the regular cabinet meetings. Some of the members of the group are Henry Morgenthau, Jr., governor of the national recovery act; Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the national recovery act; Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the reconstruction finance corporation; Arthur E. Morgan, chairman of the board of the Tennessee valley authority; Lewis W. Douglas, director of the budget; Joseph B. Eastman, federal railroad coordinator, and George Peek, administrator of agriculture adjustment. (Associated Press Photos)

POWELL MARITAL BARK HITS RIFT

William Powell, debonair screen actor, and Carol Lombard, actress, will be divorced in Nevada, her mother disclosed in Los Angeles. (Associated Press Photo)

HULL REPORTS TO PRESIDENT

Secretary of State Cordell Hull (right) is shown as he reported developments at the London economic conference to President Roosevelt on the veranda of the summer White House at Hyde Park, N. Y. (Associated Press Photo)

ROOSEVELT CONGRATULATES POST

On a hurried trip to Washington, Wiley Post received the congratulations of President Roosevelt for his record breaking solo flight around the world. The President warmly praised the aviator's "endurance and courage." (Associated Press Photo)

RECOVER BANK ROBBERY LOOT

Los Angeles police reported that $155,000 in stocks and bonds, stolen in bank robberies in Oklahoma and Kansas, had been recovered by detectives who took into custody a man giving the name of Elmer S. Wagoner (left), who said he was from Oklahoma City. Lieut. Frank James of the Los Angeles police department is at the right. (Associated Press Photo)

HARRY WOODRING AND BRIDE

Harry H. Woodring, assistant secretary of war and former governor of Kansas, and his bride, the former Helen Coolidge, daughter of senator and Mrs. Marcus A. Coolidge, are shown after their wedding at the College Inn in Fitchburg, Mass. They sailed from New York for a honeymoon in Europe. (Associated Press Photo)

TROOPS IN PENNSYLVANIA COAL STRIKE AREA

In efforts to preserve peace in the Pennsylvania coal strike area, Gov. Gifford Pinchot sent troops into the territory. Here a company from the 112th Infantry of the Pennsylvania national guard is shown detouring at Brownsville, Pa. (Associated Press Photo)

KANSAS CITY KIDNAPER GETS DEATH PENALTY

Walter McGee (left), is shown in Kansas City court where he was tried and convicted on a charge of kidnaping Mary McElroy, daughter of the city manager. The father paid $30,000 ransom. Under Missouri law McGee was sentenced to death. Seated beside McGee is a stenographer for the defense counsel. Across the table is John V. Hill, assistant prosecutor. (Associated Press Photo)

WHITE HOUSE MOVES TO HYDE PARK FOR AUGUST

To escape the heat in Washington during most of the sultry month of August, President Roosevelt has moved the seat of government to a cooler site on the banks of the Hudson river. Intent upon his recovery drive, the President took with him an office staff to maintain full command of governmental affairs from the family residence at Hyde Park, N. Y. (Associated Press Photos)

NAMED IN CHICAGO RACKET INDICTMENT

Aaron Sapiro, New York attorney and labor organizer, Alderman Oscar Nelson (upper right), republican leader of the Chicago city council; Dr. Benjamin M. Squires (lower right), University of Chicago lecturer and federal labor mediator, and Al Capone (lower left), were named in a Chicago blanket indictment charging 24 men with bombing, acid throwing and restraint of legitimate trade through terrorism. Sapiro is shown center talking to reporters in a New York court after he had been arrested as a fugitive from Chicago and released on bail. (Associated Press Photos)

HERE'S ACTION IN NEW YORK MILK STRIKE AREA

This unusual action scene was taken near Rochester, N. Y., as a crowd of striking milk producers were attempting to disarm guards protecting milk trucks. The strikers, using clubs and pitchforks, disrupted the milk. This section also was the scene of clashes between strikers and state troopers. (Associated Press Photo)

GREAT BRITAIN SENDS TONS OF SILVER

These 5000 bars of silver from India, worth $5,000,000, were placed in the San Francisco mint upon arrival. The metal represents part of the payment due from Great Britain on war debts. Each bar weighs between 73 to 75 pounds. (Associated Press Photo)