

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon Hamilton

Johnsens Feted At Many Events Before Departure

Leading in interest among events on the social calendar of the past week have been affairs arranged for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson, who are leaving Thursday to make their home in Fresno, Cal. where Mr. Johnson has been transferred as district manager of the Standard Oil company of California.

One hundred and fifty friends gathered at the Hotel Medford last night for a dinner dance, arranged in their honor, and each preceding evening of the week was marked by a dinner party letting them. The Everett Brytons were hosts Tuesday, the A. J. Hauke, Wednesday, the Rupert J. Henry's Thursday and the Standard Oil company staff Friday at a stag party for Mr. Johnson. This evening the George M. Roberts are entertaining for the Johnsens and Tuesday evening Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer and Mrs. A. B. Cunningham will be hostesses at dinner and cards. Twenty-two guests have been invited to the affair, arranged as a farewell to the popular couple.

During their two years in Medford the Johnsens have made many friends and have been participants in much entertaining, their attractive country home on the Old Stage road being the gathering place of many society folk on numerous occasions.

Burlingame Folk To Attend Party At Rogue's Roost

Arriving here on the Sasna Saturday morning from Burlingame, were a party of folk who will be guests Monday at the birthday party being given at Rogue's Roost on the river, in honor of Mrs. George Cameron and Nion Tucker.

Those who arrived by train were Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. William Leib and Mr. Tucker. They will join Mrs. Tucker who is already at the lodge. Mrs. E. Smith is expected to arrive here Monday by train from the south.

Carpenters Home From Malibu Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter and children, Julie and Harlow, returned Thursday from spending about two months at Malibu Beach, Cal. While in the south they also visited Mrs. Ben Sheldon of Los Angeles, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Andrews in sending greetings back to her Medford friends by the Frentices, stated that she is enjoying New York to the utmost and Madame Parker announced that George Edwards would be singing on the Metropolitan circle in the near future.

Speaking of the fair, the Frentices described it as a wonderful exhibition of progress, but were more enthusiastic in their praise of the cities and parks, the Smithsonian institution, and other government buildings visited at the capital. They were fortunate in encountering no extreme weather, they stated, and described the entire trip as even more interesting than they had anticipated.

Mistotee Club Plans Picnic Supper

The Mistotee club will meet with George Orives at Central Point Wednesday for a picnic supper. Supper to be served about 6 or 6:30. All are asked to bring their own service. Members and their families and friends are invited.

Royal Neighbors Have Social Evening

The Royal Neighbors met for their social evening Thursday. Cards and jig-saw puzzles were enjoyed. It was also a Pollyanna party and many gifts were exchanged. Watermelon was served at the close of the evening.

Honeymooning in East

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Caldwell Mertz (Mary Lee Roberts) as they left the Medford airport for Chicago the day of their wedding, a social event of August 10. Mrs. Mertz was going away in costume a black suit of heavy crepe with smart details in white. From Chicago the couple continued to Michigan, where they are spending their honeymoon at a cottage on the lakes. They will motor west to Palo Alto, Cal., where they will make their home.

Mrs. Findley Is Bridge Honoree Thursday Evening

Inviting a number of friends in to meet Mrs. Dwight Findley, who recently came to Medford with Dr. Findley to make their home, Mrs. Wm. McAllister entertained Thursday with an evening dessert bridge. There were three tables of cards in play and prizes awarded Mrs. Raymond Fish, Mrs. Harold Larsen and the honor guest.

Enjoying the pleasant evening were Mrs. Findley, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pauline Findley of Salem; Mrs. Ralph Bailey, Mrs. C. I. Drummond, Mrs. Raymond Fish, Mrs. L. L. Sanders, Mrs. Harold Larsen, Mrs. Hildred Bengtson, Mrs. Robert Munter, Mrs. Jack Porter, Mrs. Chester Hubbard and Mrs. Bayard Getchell.

F. L. Club Has Pleasant Picnic

Monday evening the F. L. club of Olive Rebekah lodge of Medford held a picnic supper at Wagner creek. Members present were: Lucille Cave, Ethel Humphrey, Edna Hilderbrand, Beese Thompson, Marian Melin, Georgiana Hussong, and Viola Aldredge.

Susan Haines, who is a member of the club, is spending several weeks on the coast.

Guests for the evening were: Mrs. Joe Cave, Louis Thompson, Bud Aldredge and Leo Humphrey.

On August 28th, the club has planned a swimming party at Jackson Hot Springs. A covered dish luncheon will be served.

Treasure Hunt For Younger Set Ends, Edgewood

One of the most pleasant events of the season for members of the school set was the treasure hunt and supper for which Miss Joan DeLoach was hostess Friday evening. Leaving the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Phetteplace, Miss DeLoach and guests continued to Edgewood park, on Rogue River, where the search was on. After the treasure was located by Miss Anna Mae Fuson and Dick Watson, the guests continued to the Phetteplace cabin, where the hostess was assisted in serving supper by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Phetteplace and Mrs. S. Sumpter Smith.

Attending the jolly affair were: Misses Margaret Warner, Barbara Hauke, Helen Stearns, Lola Nichols, Virginia English, Esther Alexander, Barbara Field, Evelyn Leonard, Catherine Brandt, Doris Patton, Mary Van Dyke, Helen Patton, Louise Eirod, Leabell Miller, Anna Mae Fuson, Helen McAllister, Jean Quisenberry, Mildred Grisch, Evelyn Herman, Maxine Robinson, Katherine Robinson, Alice Prock, Cecil Humphreys, Barbara Schmidt, Doreen Leverette, Mollie Brown, Doris Kellogg, Marjorie Mulholland, Suzette Stennett, Caroline Stratton and Helen Stratton of Portland; the hostess, and Messrs. Floyd Lewis, George Neuner of Portland, Colin Gould, John Dallaire, Stanley McKinney, Tom Green, Wal Young, Bill Prentice, Paul Quisenberry, Bill Knips, Bill Luman, Bob Zwick of Portland, Dick Steeter, Tom Fuson, Harold Gebauer, Jack Boyl, Bill Walker, R. Naumes, Dick Watson, Kenneth Hauk, Russell Brown, Sam Knochel, Alfred Randies, Bill Cummings and Gladys Watson, Jerry Trill, Bob Hinman, Arthur Hildebrand, Bob Carter, Max Carter and Chas. Buchanan.

Miss Thompson Is Home From Orient

Home from an interesting two years in Korea with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Moffett, is Miss Mary Jarvie Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Edith Fish Thompson of Phoenix. She arrived here Tuesday afternoon on the Japanese liner, while in the Orient she attended school at the city of Pyung Yang, near the Manchurian border, and also visited in Seoul, Yokohama and Tokio.

Braults Entertain For Mrs. Leo Maher

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Brault entertained Friday evening at their home on Dakota avenue honoring Mrs. Leo Maher, guest from California at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Miksche.

The first prize at cards and roulette was awarded Mrs. Maher and Mr. McKern of Eugene.

Those present were: Mrs. Maher, Miss Bertille Miksche, Mrs. and Mrs. Elliott Butler, Messrs. McKern and Harry Skyrman and Mr. and Mrs. Brault.

Miss Inch Hostess At Bridge Thursday

Miss Leah Inch entertained at bridge Thursday evening, inviting friends in for three tables of cards.

Wenonah Club Meets at Platts

The regular Wenonah club card party was held on the spacious lawn at the Don Platt home on East Eleventh street Thursday. The afternoon was spent at bridge, with five tables in play.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon. Blanche Rinabarger and Hulda Thurman assisted as hostesses.

Prizes at bridge were awarded Mrs. Stanley Jones for high score and Norma Martin, for consolation.

Miss Jordan Hostess At Dinner and Swimming

Miss Gladys Jordan entertained a number of friends at dinner at her home on West Second street Wednesday evening. Later the guests motored to the Applegate river, where swimming was enjoyed.

Present were: Janette Trill, Ruth Jordan, Glenn Moffett, Ruth Tye, Dorothy Tye, Kenneth Moore, Kathryn Curry and Ruth Losier and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Visit Friends Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harris stopped here yesterday to visit friends and relatives while en route to their home in Seattle from Redding, Cal., where they have been sojourning for some time.

Mr. Harris, who formerly lived in the Rogue River valley near Central Point, is remembered by many friends in this city.

Findleys Visited By Many Guests

Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley of this city entertained a number of friends during the past 10 days, who called here to visit them in their new home. Among them were J. D. Powell, attorney of San Diego, Cal., and Mrs. Paul Bischoff and family of Chicago, where Mr. Blanchard is attorney for Armour Bros. Mrs. Blanchard is the daughter of Dr. Sherman Loughridge of Grants Pass and both have many friends in the Rogue River valley.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Lochenour and son Lynn, of Salem, were also recent guests at the Findley home. Dr. Lochenour is dean of the law school at Willamette university.

Miss Edith Findley of Salem was house guest of the Findleys here last week. She was accompanied for the trip and quarter winning the state American Legion Auxiliary contest in Klamath Falls, which entitles the group to a trip to Chicago this fall for entrance in national competition. The same trio won the national contest in Portland.

Another visitor at the Findley home was Dr. R. Johnson, member of the staff of the California State hospital at Napa. He arrived by plane from Portland and remained for a few days' fishing, continuing later to San Francisco.

Miss McQuat and Mr. Orr To Wed

Miss Barbara McQuat, daughter of Paul McQuat, is leaving Monday for Vancouver, Wash., where she will be married to Charles Orr, son of Mrs. Mildred Orr of Eugene.

The couple will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Steven Orr of McMinnville, brother and sister-in-law of the groom. Following the ceremony, they plan to leave for Canada on a wedding trip.

They plan to make their home in Portland, where Mr. Orr is an instructor in Grant high school.

Miss McQuat is a popular member of Medford's younger set, having made her home here for several years.

Fidelity Circle Welcomes New Member

The Fidelity circle met last week at the home of Mrs. E. S. Hittler on West Holly for the regular business meeting of the month. One new committee was appointed, the members to act as a welcoming group to greet all newcomers at the church door. For the first month the committee will be composed of Mrs. H. L. Gillette and Mrs. R. P. Mortensen. The circle welcomed a new member, Mrs. C. H. Beer of 311 Laurel street, at the meeting.

Mrs. Gillette directed the program of the last session of the circle and presented Harold Gillette in a very clever reading. She also directed two contests, using names of flowers, which proved interesting. After the program refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the circle will be at the home of Mrs. Snylie.

Hibbard-Conrad Betrothal Told

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Marguerite Hibbard of Butte Falls to Ernest Conrad of this city, the wedding to take place on September 2, was made at a bride dinner given by Mrs. J. O. Hibbard at her home in Butte Falls, Friday evening, August 18.

An attractive color scheme of ecru and yellow was carried out in flowers, candles and favors. High score in bridge was held by Mrs. Larsen.

The invited guests were: Mrs. F. Kuhn, Mrs. R. Larsen, Mrs. N. E. Moore, Mrs. D. Cleveland, Mrs. E. Moore, Mrs. F. Carsten, Mrs. H. Craft, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Miss Tallene Jackson, Mrs. A. E. Watson of Grants Pass, and Miss Eunice Davis and Mrs. J. T. Conrad of Medford.

Bride-Elect And Fiance Incentive Of Entertaining

Considerable entertaining is planned in local society this week for the pleasure of Miss Margaret Arnold and her fiance, Darrell F. Huson. The two were guests one evening last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fraser Brown, where dinner was served informally in the garden, and were among honor guests at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber at Central Point, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Donald Faber whose wedding was a social event of the summer in Salem.

Other parties are planned this week by a number of their friends. Date of the wedding has not been announced.

Misses Kellogg And English Are Hostesses Here

Among younger hostesses of the past week, entertaining at bridge was Miss Doris Kellogg. Prizes at the pleasant affair were won by Miss Frances Arnsperger, Miss Marjorie Mulholland and Miss Mollie Brown.

Miss Virginia English was also among members of the younger set entertaining last week. Prizes at her party were won by Miss Joan Delish and Miss Evelyn Leonard.

Carnation Club Has Sewing Meet

The Carnation club met at the home of Mrs. Gentry on Liberty street Thursday and the afternoon was devoted to sewing on tea towels.

After the sewing bee, Mrs. Gentry served refreshments, completing the very pleasant afternoon.

Local Folk Attend Shrine Club Events

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cunningham left yesterday noon for North Bend, where they were guests last night at the dancing party of the Shrine club, and where they are attending the Shrine picnic today. The dancing party at the North Bend hotel was also attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Cass of Grants Pass.

Priscilla Circle To Meet Wednesday

The Priscilla circle met at the home of Mrs. Peter Dietrich on North Central Wednesday afternoon for a very happy session. After the business meeting a program was presented, including piano solos by Mrs. Carrie McDannel, two songs by little Margaret Ricks and reading by Mrs. Fred Barker on cards.

Mrs. Mary Wiley also entertained with a childhood poem, "My Dolly" and Mrs. Blanche Jenkins and Mrs. Dietrich sang "Tell Me the Old, Old Story."

An honor guest for the occasion was Mrs. Josephine Hall, who had been ill.

Following the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Party Compliments Folk From Yakima

Mrs. Frank DeSouza was hostess Friday evening at a bridge party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lentz of Yakima, Wash., house guests of the J. R. Marshall. There were two tables of bridge in play during the evening and the traveling prize was awarded Mrs. Marshall and prize for high score went to Mr. Lentz.

Enjoying the pleasant affair were Mrs. Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fredette and Mr. and Mrs. DeSouza.

Miss Bardwell Leaves For Eastern Trip

Miss Betty Bardwell is leaving today by motor with her mother, Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, for Portland, from which city she will continue east to join her father for an extensive stay in the eastern states.

Louise-Yost Wedding Told

Announcement was made last week of the wedding of Mrs. S. Louison of Los Angeles and Ray Yost of this valley August 8th. A number of their friends gathered at their home, Black Oak orchard, and surprised them with a shower and a pleasant evening of games.

Kershaws Have Guests From North

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Longley of Bremerton, Wash., arrived here last Wednesday, accompanied by Gordon Kershaw for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kershaw before continuing to San Francisco and points south for a several weeks' vacation. Gordon Kershaw joined them in the north after visiting Mrs. Kershaw in Seattle for the past month. Mrs. Kershaw is still a patient at the Riberson sanitarium, but is improving steadily and expects to return to her home in Medford about October 1, her friends are glad to learn.

Medford Misses Vacation, Beach

Mrs. Ernest J. Smith is hostess this week end to a party of Medford misses at Crescent City. In the group enjoying the stay at Plannigan cottage, surf bathing, hiking and other beach sports are Misses Gertrude Haskins, Frances Moeller, Jane Dixon and Janet Wray Smith.

CONSTIPATION
Stomach and liver troubles in young and old corrected by the latest natural methods.

DR. H. P. COLEMAN,
Phone 965, 428 Medford Bldg.

Free 4x6 Enlargement with each roll of films printed.

Gardner Drugs

DON'T WAIT.
Until Winter's Cold Brings Back those Rheumatic Pains

CORRECT THE CAUSE NOW—SEE

DR. H. B. KNAPP
149 E. Main Ashland
Ground Floor

Don't Let Monday's Washing Spoil Sunday's Picnic . . .

THOR ELECTRIC WASHING MACHINES

Banish the messy drudgery of home laundering. $59.50 Special price only. Easy payment plan slightly more.

Palmer Electric Store
E. Main. Phone 788

FIRST CLASS Beauty and Barber Service

THE COOLEST SHOP IN MEDFORD

Specializing in Ladies' Haircutting and Trimming
Phone 900

Holland Beauty & Barber Shop

WORLD CRUISE

Sailing from New York on a new departure date—January 4th, 1934—gives you Christmas and New Year's at home, and then away to the far corners of the world—33 ports in all. 130 days of travel luxury aboard the largest world cruise liner afloat, with experienced, courteous officers, cruise staff and crew—

Empress of Britain

An improved itinerary this season includes Bali, new Garden of Eden in the Indian Ocean, Penang (Angkor Wat) Borobodoer—Java's most famous Buddhist remains. The season's height in the Mediterranean, India when travel is most comfortable, Japan in cherry-blossom time. Travelers who know how to enjoy their trip will again on this 1934 cruise of the Empress of Britain—Why not join their company—make new friends—see the world!

MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE—From New York, January 10th, Empress of Australia—69 days, 23 Ports—First Class, Tourist or One-Way Rates.

Complete information, ship's plan, itinerary, fares, schedule and literature at our offices, W. H. DEACON, General Agent, Passenger Dept., 146-A Broadway, American Bank Building, Portland, OR 987.

Canadian Pacific Traveller's
Clearest Good the World Over

CANADIAN PACIFIC

HONEY MAID BREAD
Made With Milk and Honey

MODEL BAKERY MEDFORD, ORE.

HONEY MAID

The Store of Happy Wedding Rings

White Rose Wedding Rings
Radiant as Diamonds

Larry Schade

MURRAY'S Art Hairdressing Salon

A word to the wise . . . There need be no doubt as to the success of a Permanent when you place quality above price.

Murray's Permanent Waves are superior because they leave your hair beautiful and healthy.

41 S. Central. Tel. 963

The Aim of the NATIONAL RECOVERY ADMINISTRATION

A job for every man and woman and a guaranteed minimum wage are the objectives of the present N. R. A. program . . . Business recovery will go hand-in-hand with the accomplishment of this program—

Oregon Will Step Ahead!

Retrofitted buying power will insure ready and profitable markets for Oregon's many products . . . lumber, wool, foodstuffs, and minerals . . . Oregon stands to profit greatly by the success of the administration to achieve complete economic recovery.

The First National Bank
"A DEPARTMENTIZED BANK"