Activities of Legion Auxiliary

The state convention is over for this year. It was a very interesting convention. Two of the most interesting and inspirational addresses were given by Senator Steiwer and U. S. Representative Mott. Senator Steiwer reviewed the whole program of veterans legislation. The economy act is a direct repeal of all laws dealing with veterans legislation since World War. In many cases of orphans and widows pension it will be almost impossible to find anyone to sign papers testifying to the legality of some claims that were assumed a dozen years ago as many who could have done so have died since that time.

Mrs. K. D. Ross, president of Medford unit, has announced that the next meeting of the auxiliary on September 11th will be a business meeting. All committee chairmen are to be prepared to give their committee reports and hand their written report to the secretary at that time.

The committee on national defense has a definite program. As long as other nations remain armed and war continues to be a possibility for the United States, one of the important activities of the American Legion Auxiliary will be working for the maintenance of an adequate national defense for America. This work is largely of an educational character, awakening the women of the country to the necessity for maintaining adequate defenses, counteracting pacifist propaganda and making the voice of the patriotic women of the country heard in support of the necessary defensive measures. Mrs. Goodwin Humphrey is the chairman of the national defense committee for Medford unit this year.

MEDFORD MAID, 11, IN TRAGIC DEATH

Coming as a tragic shock to her mother, Mrs. Gladys Watson, who has been ill for the past week, news was received here Friday evening of the death by drowning of little Phyllis Jane Watson, 11, of this city, in the Coquille river, four miles east of Coquille.

The little girl, who had been in Coquille for a short time visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nozler, and father, Roy Watson, had gone swimming with a group, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Watkins, relative of the family. Her grandparents and father did not know that she had gone to the river until report of the drowning was received, relatives here stated yesterday.

Mrs. Hawkins and an older companion, Robelle Oederirk, sought to rescue the child but were unsuccessful.

The mother, Mrs. Watson, secretary here for Newbury & Newbury, attorney, was at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Bunch, Dr. R. W. Sleeter, her physician, informed her of the tragic news Friday evening. He had made an appointment to operate on Mrs. Watson's throat for an abscess following an attack of tonsillitis. News of the death of the little girl was forwarded him from Coquille.

The operation was postponed as a result, and Mrs. Watson left late Friday night with Mr. Watson, who motored to Medford immediately after receiving report of the death of their child.

The little Watson girl attended school in Medford last year and had many friends here.

Crews of 30 men each will be distributed throughout timber areas of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana where the rust has been found and in areas where prevention work can be done. The first men will be in the field next week, Wyckoff said and will remain as long as possible, which will be late in October in this region.

CAROLE DIVORCES EMOTIONAL HUBBY

CARSON CITY, Nev., Aug. 19.—(AP)—Carole Lombard and William Powell of the movies were divorced in the district court here today upon the actress' complaint of cruelty.

"Too much emotionalism" on the part of her actor husband was responsible for failure of their marriage, Miss Lombard told Judge Clark J. Guild, who permitted newspapermen to attend the hearing, despite objections of the film star's attorney.

"Mr. Powell," she said, "was a very emotional man. In manner of language he was rather cruel and repeatedly manifested his temper."

THERE'S NO MYSTERY ABOUT ICE

It's the mysterious, hidden costs that make any substitutes for Ice so expensive. An Ice refrigerator has none of these . . . no moving parts to wear out, no complicated machinery to demand constant and expensive repairs, no power cost concealed in the regular electric light bill. The Monthly Ice Bill is surprisingly low compared to the cost of mechanical substitutes for Ice. When that bill is paid, you've paid the total cost of Ice refrigeration. For a good Ice refrigerator is almost a lifetime investment.

Exposition Radio Station Uses Baldwin Piano

A valuable testimonial to the fame and standing of a piano is its selection for use in the broadcasting studios at the Century of Progress Exposition, an honor which befalls the Baldwin, according to Mrs. H. O. Purucker. Early in the preparation for establishing a broadcasting station on the grounds of the exposition the Baldwin Piano Company was asked by the management to furnish the instruments which from time to time were used for demonstrations and auditions, with the result that on completion of the main studio a model D Baldwin grand was secured for permanent use during the summer.

The Baldwin pianos have received signal distinction through their having been selected by scores of broadcasting stations over the country from Winnipeg to Mexico City and from Main and Cuba to Hawaii and Manila.

In fact, the number of "Baldwin used" radio stations is more than two hundred, embracing the leading stations of the country.

In an announcement concerning this achievement the Baldwin Piano company made this statement: "Radio broadcasting stations are careful to choose pianos of a resonant tone and pure quality. In over two hundred broadcasting stations the Baldwin pianos have been chosen as the finest examples." This is a laudatory explanation of how it comes about that the Baldwin has been aptly termed "The Piano of the Broadcasters."

MINING CONGRESS HERE NEXT YEAR

BAKER, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Robert Betts of Eugene, president of the Oregon Mining Congress, announced at the first annual banquet of the organization here Friday night that the 1934 gathering will be held in Medford. Deer Slayers Held In Jail For Fine

Z. E. Smith, 36, and Harry Farnsworth, 43, arrested at the Daback cabin north of Butte Falls, are being held in the county jail, unable to pay the $50 fine imposed on each following their arrest by state police on charges of hunting deer at night. The men had two deer in camp at the time of their arrest, according to officers, who said they also hunted the ticks at night.

The two were taken into justice court before Justice of the Peace H. D. Reed at Gold Hill Saturday morning.

Charged with hunting without a license, Walter Woods, 51, and Clarence Demler, 22, also arrested at the Daback cabin, were taken into justice court late Friday, fined $25 and costs and their guns confiscated.

FOREST FIRES HELD AFTER WEEK'S FIGHT

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Forest fires which had roared through fine forests of northwest Oregon for the past week were dormant today and hundreds of weary men who had battled the flames for days were hopeful the danger now had passed.

The Gales creek and Wilson river fires, by far the largest this year, were smothered by fog and heavy dew. There was, fortunately, no wind to stir the smoldering embers. These fires had covered many acres in the Saddle region between Tillamook and Washington counties.

SALE LAKE CITY, AUG. 10.—(AP)—The national recovery act was termed "about the most realistic piece of legislation ever enacted" by George Green, western NRA chairman, in a chamber of commerce address here today.

HOGAN INSTALLS TICKER SERVICE

Installation of equipment for the enlarged stock broker office to be opened by M. N. Hogan and Co., in the space formerly occupied by the Jackson County bank at Main and Central streets, was begun Friday and it is expected that the ticker service and auxiliary equipment will be ready for opening in the new quarters by a week from Monday.

The new arrangement will give Medford the same facilities for investors as enjoyed in the larger cities of the country. The ticker will quote prices and volume in all stock transactions on the New York stock exchange as made, and the quotations will be shown on a large blackboard as is done in the "big town" broker offices, during the time the exchange is in session.

Permission for installation of the ticker service was received Thursday by the local broker from the New York stock exchange, such permits being carefully scrutinized by the exchange board of governors in all instances.

A direct wire will be used between the local office and the E. A. Pierce and company quarters in Portland for prompt execution of buy and sell orders.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership of "Jarvin & Woods" has been dissolved and that all indebtedness owing to such said firm should be paid to Mr. Charles L. Woods, who will likewise pay and assume all accounts owing by said firm. Business will be continued by Charles L. Woods at the same address at No. 134 East Main street, Medford, Oregon.

He knows where his next meal is coming from

SAFE IN THE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR—kept at a temperature always below 50 degrees is the fresh milk so necessary to this young fellow's health. Safe, too, is the food for the whole family. Also, in purchasing an electric refrigerator his mother was thinking not only of safety but also of economy.

She counted on keeping fresh food that might otherwise spoil . . . she knew that left-overs could be kept and made into new tasty dishes for later meals . . . she planned on purchasing in larger quantities, buying at Saturday prices and keeping the food in the refrigerator until wanted later. The electric refrigerator you want will probably never be so cheap again. See your dealer today.
