In Memorium

The funeral of Mrs. Royal Chambers who passed away in Lakeview, Oregon, Aug. 11, was conducted from the Sacred Heart church in Medford, Aug. 18. Father Francis Black offered the requiem mass.

At the conclusion of the mass, Father Black delivered a touching sermon—paying a glowing tribute to the memory of this estimable young wife and mother.

He spoke feelingly of her dauntless spirit—her unflinching faith in her beautiful Christian life—spent in doing good unto others.

Aloysia Viola Hogan was born in Cheppawa Falls, Wisconsin, Sept. 3, 1894, the youngest daughter of Michael and Elizabeth Hogan, deceased.

At the age of four she came to northern Idaho, with her parents, received her early education there. In 1910 the family came to the Rogue River valley, where the deceased completed her education.

After completing her schooling at St. Mary's Academy, she attended the Oregon Normal.

In 1916 she began teaching in Jackson county. For 12 years she was one of Jackson county's most popular teachers.

December 20, 1928, she was united in marriage to Royal U. Chambers of Ashland. Shortly after she established her home in Lake county and had resided there continuously until her death.

Floral offerings were received from many districts of Oregon and Washington.

Bearers, chosen from among her many friends, were: John Wilkinson, Jens Jensen, Laurence and Robert Duff, George Corum and Herbert Elmore.

She was laid to rest in the family burial plot in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. A tiny coffin, containing the remains of her infant son who was lowered in the same grave.

She leaves to mourn her untimely passing, her widower, Royal U. Chambers, five sisters and a brother: Mrs. Laura C. Atkins, Lakeview, Oregon; Mrs. Mary Leclair Powers, Genevieve Hogan Haller, San Francisco; Olive A. Patricia A., and E. Bernard of Applegate; four nephews and a niece, together with a host of friends.

"Under the blue and starry sky, Dig me a grave and gladly I die. Gladly I lived and gladly I die. And I lay me down with a will." MRS. FRED HALLER, Applegate, Ore., Aug. 19, 1933.

Notice.

Some Medford business men are still buying their printing from canvases who live in Medford but who send the orders out of the city and county to have the printing done. Not a very good way to build up home industries and put over the N. R. A. Insist that your printing be done at home.—(Adv.)
