

'BIG TRAIN' WELCOMES THE 'RAJAH'

Walter Johnson (right), manager of the Cleveland Indians, was the newest pilot in the American league until Rogers Hornsby became manager of the St. Louis Browns. The "Big Train" is shown wishing luck to the "Rajah." (Associated Press Photo)

Dances Though Deaf

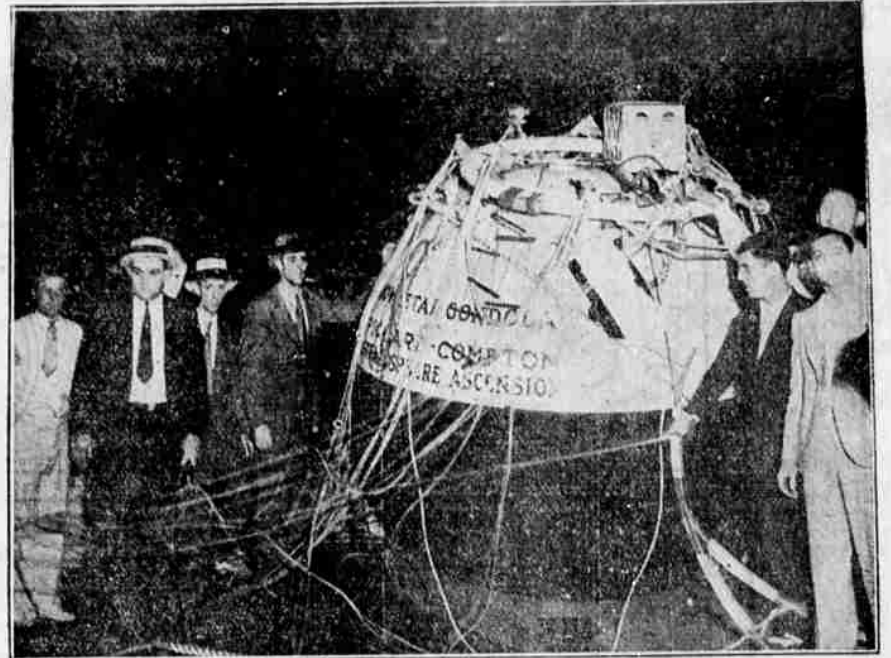

Charlotte Lambertson, 16-year-old Hollywood girl who has been deaf from birth, scored a success in her recent debut as a featured dancer although she couldn't hear the music which accompanied her. She said she "felt" the rhythm. (Associated Press Photo)

HELEN AND 'BUD' ON VACATION

Helen Morgan, musical comedy and night club torch singer, and her husband, Maurice "Bud" Maschke, Jr., of Cleveland, are vacationing at Lake George, N. Y. They are pictured above as they received the news that "Bud" had passed the Ohio bar examinations. (Associated Press Photo)

STRATOSPHERE BALLOON IN SUDDEN CRASH

Here is the tangled remains of the gondola of the balloon which crashed in a Chicago railroad yard shortly after Lieut.-Comm. T. G. W. Settle started aloft in an attempt to soar to the stratosphere. Settle was uninjured by the fall. A faulty valve was blamed for the mishap. (Associated Press Photo)

IS IT HOT? THESE BOYS AND GIRLS KNOW HOW TO KEEP COOL

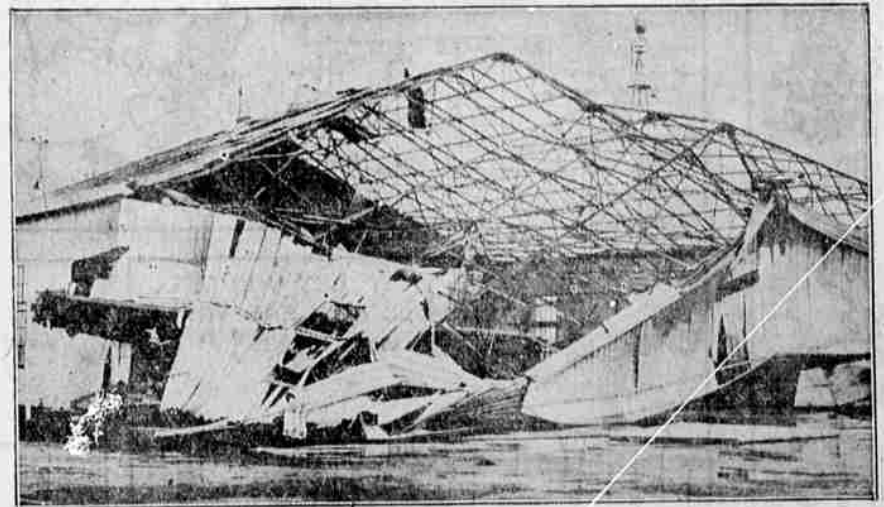

The kids in Chicago (upper left) and the pretty girls in Venice, Cal., (upper right) are showing you the perfect remedy for August's sizzling heat. Beaches and pools through the country are crowded as millions flee sunbaked city streets to splash in the cool water. (Associated Press Photos)

Seized For Kidnaping

William R. Delinski (above), indicted as a kidnaper of John K. Ottley, banker of Atlanta, Ga., is shown as he was arrested in San Antonio, Tex., by federal officers. (Associated Press Photo)

HURRICANE TWISTS BUILDINGS IN RIO GRANDE AREA

An 80-mile-an-hour hurricane caused considerable property damage in the lower Rio Grande valley, twisting buildings and blowing citrus fruit to the ground. This picture shows how a hangar at the airport at Brownsville, Tex., was damaged by the storm. (Associated Press Photo)

THEIR JOB IS TO MAINTAIN PEACE IN INDUSTRY

A tribunal of seven men was created by President Roosevelt to preserve industrial peace in the nation as a major step in the recovery campaign. The group is headed by Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York. The other members are William Green of the American Federation of Labor; Dr. Leo Wolman, leader in the clothing union; John L. Lewis of the Mine Workers of America; Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey; Gerard Swope of the General Electric company and Louis E. Kirstein, Boston merchant. (Associated Press Photos)

ACCIDENT DELAYS OCEAN HOP

The wheels of the plane in which the Australian aviator, Capt. Charles T. P. Ulm and three companions planned to fly to North America, sank in the sands at an airfield near Dublin, Ireland, resulting in injuries to five persons. The plane was damaged, delaying the take-off several days. Ulm, shown above, was not hurt. (Associated Press Photo)

SATIN AND FURS POPULAR FOR FALL WEAR

The sleeves come off of the gown shown at left to make it an evening dress. It is in the prevailing black satin which stylists say will be popular this fall. At the right is a swagger model of natural mink, with a flaring tie and wide bell sleeves. These fashions were displayed at the western market week show in San Francisco. (Associated Press Photos)

Murder Victim

The body of Henry F. Sanborn (above), 44-year-old railroad executive, was found bullet-torn and buried in a scooped-out grave in Queens, New York—three weeks after he had vanished after drawing $2,000 from a bank. Police were mystified by the case. (Associated Press Photo)

ACCUSED WIDOW AND HER SON

Mrs. Jessie B. Costello is shown with her son Bobby, 3, in the prison yard at Salem, Mass., where she is on trial charged with poisoning her husband, William J. Costello, Peabody, Mass., fire captain. The widow is the mother of three children. (Associated Press Photo)

NEW PUBLIC LINKS GOLF CHAMPION

Charles Ferrera, young San Francisco iron worker who defeated Robert Miller of Jacksonville, Fla., to win the 1933 national public links championship at Portland, Ore., is shown with his trophy. (Associated Press Photo)

FREED KIDNAP VICTIM AND WIFE

Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma City oil millionaire, returned to his home unharmed after being held captive nine days by kidnapers. His release was obtained upon payment of an unannounced ransom. Mr. and Mrs. Urschel are pictured above. (Associated Press Photos)

Fan Mail, Already!

Baby Leroy, one of the Hollywood ultra-younger set, is about to get busy on that typewriter to answer his mounting stack of fan mail. (Associated Press Photo)