

SEASON AND LIMIT FOR 1933 HUNTING GIVEN FOR OREGON

Season and bag limit regulations established for the 1933 hunting season have provided new open areas and additional hunting time in several counties of the state according to placement made today by the Oregon state game commission.

Conditions in the field are reported excellent on both birds and mammals with the exception of white-tail deer and sage hens.

Requests of sportsmen on the west slope of the Cascades that the quail and grouse season be concurrent with the China pheasant season has been granted.

Regulations governing the season on migratory waterfowl will be made public as soon as information is received from the federal advisory board.

Following is a brief resume of the open seasons, territories and bag limits as regulated by the Oregon State Game Commission.

Open Season—October 23 to October 25, both dates inclusive.

Open Territory—All of Baker county; Wallowa county north of the base line and west of the Innaha river; all of Union and Umatilla counties except approximately 20,400 acres in the Conklin Springs area.

Bag Limit—One bull elk having two or more points on either horn.

License Fee—Resident elk tag $2.50 in addition to resident hunting license; non-resident elk tag $60.00 in addition to non-resident hunting license.

Open Season—September 29 to October 25, both dates inclusive, for buck deer with forked horns.

Bag Limit—Two Columbia black tail deer or one mule deer, with the requirement that both deer tags must be affixed to the mule deer.

Due to the serious depletion of sage hens in eastern Oregon, the season on these upland game birds has been closed for one year.

UPPERVILLE, Va., Aug. 28.—(UP)—Seeking to attach an electric bulb to a wire in the yard to continue a coquet game after dark, Ernest Wolf, prominent horseman, his wife and Fitz Kines were electrocuted here last night.

Kines was trying to insert the bulb when he received the charge, and Mr. and Mrs. Wolf met death when they went to his aid.

FASTER PLANES STOP LAY-OVER OF PILOTS HERE

Under a new ruling of air mail contractors, pilots will fly from Oakland, Calif., to Seattle, Wash., the change being due to the increased speed of the new type Boeing planes used in the air mail service, which now have a cruising speed of 180 miles per hour.

Mail pilots stationed here have been assigned to Seattle and Oakland, which will be "lay over" points in the future.

The change has no effect on the status of Medford as an air mail point, according to Postmaster William Warner.

Planes stop here as formerly for mail, refilling of fuel tanks, obtaining flying instructions, weather reports and passengers. In winter and stormy weather they will land here for further flying instructions north and south.

Effective September 1, a new schedule goes into effect on the Jacksonville star route, the post-office advises.

Upon the receipt of the mail from the southbound train, the Jacksonville mail will depart. This will be about nine o'clock in the morning.

Under the old schedule the mail left at eight o'clock. By the new schedule the patrons will receive a better

KIME SURPRISED BY REPORT OF DEMISE

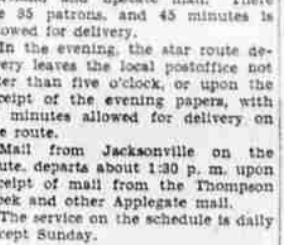

Nick Kime, well known and longtime resident of the Griffin Creek district was reported killed in an auto accident, at noon today. This was a great surprise to Mr. Kime, who was at the time of his reported demise, was home eating dinner, and in his usual good health, and in fine fettle.

Mrs. Kime, said over the telephone, that a number of friends had rushed to the house, and that several had called.

How the rumor started is unknown, but credence was given it, on the basis, "that some woman had heard it over the radio."
