Awards in Many Activities Made at Court House Ses- sion — Two Girls Win State Fair Trip With Agent

Eighty-five 4-H club members of Jackson county enrolled in home economics projects under the supervision of Mabel C. Mack, county home demonstration agent, attended the county-wide achievement day and club fair held in the courthouse auditorium, Wednesday, August 30.

These club members represented Medford, Ashland, Butte Falls, Central Point, Phoenix and Sams Valley communities.

Four-H Rose and Flower Garden club members of Medford, under the leadership of Mrs. W. P. Stewart, Roosevelt school, and Mrs. H. Keese, Washington school, made a very fine exhibit of flowers and were given the following prizes: Laverne Johnston, Roosevelt school, first place; Donna Stephens, Roosevelt school, second place; Jean Pease, Washington school, third place; Geraldine Clemens, Roosevelt school, fourth place; Hazel Dressler, Roosevelt school, fifth place.

In Cooking I project, the club led by Mrs. Paul Taylor from Washington school, Ashland, tied for honors with Phoenix club, under the leadership of Mrs. Lela Bonham, with first honors falling to Mabel Hardesty of Phoenix; second prize to Aletha Kellogg, Ashland; third to Florence Sherrer, Phoenix; fourth to Roma McReynolds, Phoenix; fifth to Viola Lowden, Phoenix. The Phoenix cooking club is the largest club in the county with 32 members enrolled. The exhibit was four drop or ice-box cookies.

In Cooking II project the Ashland Junior high school girls under the leadership of Mrs. Larkin Grubb, competed with Sams Valley clubs, led by Mrs. Dick Straus, on angelfood or sponge cakes. Awards were as follows: First, Margaret Broil, Ashland; second, Dorothy Thomas, Ashland; third, Mildred Almine, Ashland; fourth, Alice Sawyer, Ashland; fifth, Rebecca Hunsley, Sams Valley.

Canning I clubs from Butte Falls, under the leadership of Mrs. Joe Hibbard, and from Sams Valley under the leadership of Mrs. J. M. Crawford, won the following awards on their canned fruit exhibits: Hazel McCabe, Butte Falls, first; Olive Davis, Sams Valley, second; Marguerite Hibbard, Butte Falls, third; Rogenia Dusenberry, Sams Valley, fourth; Frances Smith, Butte Falls, fifth.

Canning II girls from Sams Valley club and Central Point were awarded prizes on their exhibits of two jars of fruit, one jam, one jelly, as follows: Mary Esther Davis, Sams Valley, first; Ernest Lathrop, Central Point, second; Elna Davis, Sams Valley, third; Rebecca Hunsley, Sams Valley, fourth; Esther Lathrop, Central Point, fifth.

Canning III—First award on canned fruit, vegetables, meat, pickles, jams and jellies was given Katherine Lathrop of Central Point.

Mrs. Sara H. Weritz, home demonstration agent of Josephine county, judged the exhibits in all classes. The picnic luncheon was enjoyed by club members and leaders, and was pleasantly climaxed by a large freezer of ice cream donated by Snider's dairy.

A short achievement program in the afternoon included singing 4-H club pep songs, 4-H club motto and pledge, the introduction of leaders present, and a talk by Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent, on the value of achievement, and special awards, and plans for club projects for coming year. Mrs. Mack announced that three scholarships would be awarded high scoring club members for club summer school next June, as follows: Cooking and canning clubs, donated by the California Oregon Power company; rose and flower garden club, by the Medford Garden club. The highest scoring individual in each project will be announced later. The record for the entire year's work will be considered in addition to the score on the exhibit.

The high point of interest in the afternoon's activities was the county-wide judging contest participated in by every club member present. Each member was required to judge four articles in each of seven classes, as follows: Sponge cake, white bread, canned fruit, canned vegetables, aprons, slips, school dresses and towels, the two highest scoring members from any one club to be awarded a trip to the state fair.

amendment would be formally abolished on December 5 or 6. Three ratifying conventions meet on December 5, and two more on the 6th.

Over Half Voted.
Statisticians adding up and analyzing the vote thus far, figured today that although only half the states had balloted, more than 72,000,000 of the nation's 122,698,790 population lived within their borders on the basis of the 1930 census.

The popular vote in the 24 recorded states stands in round numbers at 9,800,000 in favor of repeal to 3,000,000 against. These figures, of course, do not include the recordings in Nevada and Wyoming, where delegates were elected by mass meetings and county conventions.

On the basis of present voting dates, all but nine states holding 11,565,075 of the nation's population will have balloted by November 8. These nine include Kansas and Louisiana.

Kansas to Set Day.
Governor Landon has called a special session of the Kansas legislature to meet in September, and probably a voting day will be set during the present year. Governor O. K. Allen of Louisiana has stated he also would call a special session. Should both these states vote this year, only about 10,000,000 of the population would not have been given an opportunity to ballot on repeal during this period.

Here are the election days already established during the next 10 weeks: Vermont, September 5; Maine, September 11; Colorado, Maryland and Minnesota, September 12; Idaho and New Mexico, September 19; Virginia, October 3; Florida, October 10; North and South Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Kentucky (tentative), November 7.

JACKSON COUNTY BUILDING & LOAN TO MOVE FRIDAY

The Jackson County Building and Loan association's beautiful new home at 126 East Main street in this city will open tomorrow, according to announcement today by O. C. Boggs. Workmen will be busy tonight putting the finishing touches on the completely remodeled and attractive quarters which will be occupied by this well known southern Oregon institution.

Frank Clark was architect and supervised construction. Glass installation and millwork was handled by the Trowbridge Cabinet Works. Coffeen Bros. installed the plumbing and wiring and electrical work was done by the People's Electric Store.

In addition to housing the offices of the Jackson County Building and Loan association, the fine new structure will be the home of Harold Brown's First Insurance Agency and the law offices of Mr. Boggs and O. H. Beutgen, a member of the legal department.

An enviable record of twenty-five years of successfully serving this community is enjoyed by the Jackson County Building and Loan association one of southern Oregon's largest financial institutions. During this twenty-five years this association has been under the same management, O. C. Boggs having charge of affairs for this firm since its establishment in 1908. Initial business was transacted in offices located over Marsh's Grocery store, adjoining the present new home of the association.

Another significant fact is that the Jackson County Building and Loan association has had but two presidents: Bert Anderson and O. H. Kidd, the present head. Outstanding and successful business and professional men have served on the board of this institution and the present directors are John C. Mann, Glenn O. Taylor, Dr. R. E. Green, C. M. Kidd, president and O. C. Boggs, secretary and general manager.

The personnel of the association is as follows:
Jane Schmidt, secretary; Harold Brown, O. C. Boggs, Jr., Earl Bigelow, A. P. Butler, H. F. Eiden, Laura Drury, Margery Wymore, Josephine Taylor.

O. C. Boggs, who has successfully directed the affairs of the Jackson County Building and Loan association during its inception in 1908, has been actively identified with Medford's business, financial and political circles for many years. He has an enviable record of civic and church work and is a member of several well known fraternal organizations and clubs in this city.

festival together. He had a charge account with which he bought flowers for Mrs. Kelley. He tried to get her a job.

Cross-examination did not shake either charge.

Taylor told of his conversation with Lamson.

A Sacramento florist, Mrs. Marion Johnson and W. A. Friend, manager of the Stanford Press, testified to Lamson's friendship for the Sacramento divorcee.

Hotel Record Shown.
Hotel records were put in evidence to show Lamson visited Sacramento on January 11, left the next day; registered again January 18, left January 20; registered February 8, left February 11; registered once more in February, twice in March and twice in April.

Lamson and Mrs. Kelley dined in Sacramento "four or five times" the last one on May 18, 12 days before Mrs. Lamson's death, Mrs. W. H. Bartlett, a waitress, testified.

Letters May Follow.
Mrs. Kelley's handwriting was identified. Apparently letters were to be introduced in evidence later.

Portly Under Sheriff Earle Hamilton testified for the state. Both told of their investigations the day after Mrs. Lamson was found dead.

"My God, why did I ever marry her," Lamson said to his sister, Dr. Margaret Lamson in Hamilton's presence, the officer claimed.

Hamilton declared Lamson told him he had removed his pajamas from the living room to a bedroom before he found his wife's body. That testimony was important. The pajamas bear blood stains. Lamson claims he told Hamilton he was carrying the pajamas when he found the body.

JOE BROWN COMEDY OPENS AT STUDIO

"Elmer the Great," Joe E. Brown's uproariously funny comedy opens at the Studio today.
"Elmer the Great," written by Ring Lardner and George M. Cohan, was a comedy riot on the stage and is even more hilarious as a screen play. The plot concerns a hick town boy who develops into the champion batsman of the big league.

Payments for operation and maintenance of the general department of Kentucky's state government amounted to $9.25 per capita in 1932.
