Chips From CCC Camps of Area

Speaking of appetites, look at what the 300,000 C. C. C. boys in the United States put under their belts every 30 days: 1,125,000 pounds of bacon, 6,625,000 pounds of beef, 9,000,000 eggs, 5,425,000 pounds of potatoes, 2,250,000 pounds of pork, 6,750,000 pounds of flour, 1,125,000 pounds of coffee, 2,812,500 pounds of sugar, and 1,125,000 pounds of onions. According to army statistics, the average weight gain of the boys has been 12 pounds.

President Roosevelt on August 18 decided to maintain the Civilian Conservation Corps for another six months. According to press dispatches, the president will send a personal message to the men now enrolled asking them to find jobs to make way for other fellows out of work to take their places. If any man, after an honest effort to find a new job is unable to do so, he will be allowed to re-enroll. Mr. Robert Fechner, director of emergency conservation work, has ruled that no more men will be enrolled during the present period.

General Mallin Craig, commander of the 9th corps area, and Sorester S. B. Show of the U. S. forest service, have made tentative recommendations for some 295 C. C. C. camps in California during the coming year. These will include 165 core service camps and 111 state division of forestry camps. All of the state camps and 62 of the 128 national forest camps now in operation will be continued. These recommendations are subject to review and approval by the director of emergency conservation work in Washington and other high officials.

Major Henry B. Barry, army purchasing officer at Ft. Mason has sent out bids of $800,000 worth of clothing for the C. C. C. boys in the 9th corps area. Fifty-five per cent of the articles furnished will be designed to meet severe climatic conditions, 30 per cent excessive rain, and the balance are for use in sunny regions. Among the articles included in the bid are 60,000 loggers' jackets, 60,000 heavy overalls, 350,000 woolen socks, 27,000 winter drawers, 41,000 comforters, 48,000 mattresses and 25,000 mattress covers.

The war department announces that the Army and Navy Journal has offered gold medals and silver and bronze buttons for the best conducted C. C. C. camps in each corps area. The scheme of rating for each camp will be based on leadership and initiative, camp administration and operation, and quantity and quality of forestry work accomplished. The face of the gold medal will show an oak tree with stars above and oak leaves beneath. The ribbon of the medal will be green and brown, the forest colors, and the gold clasp will be a replica of the American Eagle.

WESTERN GIANTS GAINING INTEREST

Thousands of motorists throughout the west are showing great interest in the new, improved Western Giant tire, reports C. J. Fritchett, local manager of the Western Auto Supply company.

"Due to increased speed, quicker get-away and sudden stops, the safety factor in tire construction is of vital consideration to present-day auto owners," he said. "This demand for greater safety under today's motoring conditions. Its scientifically designed, center traction tread provides sturdy shoulders and center blocks of rubber correctly alternated with slots to decrease the danger of ice-slits and slipping, and to assure a positive 'bite' on the road surface when brakes are applied. This increase of traction has been accomplished without sacrificing steering ease."

"What the motorist cannot see," Mr. Fritchett continued, "is the ply structure, so he will be interested to know that our engineers were not content with improving the outside alone, but turned to the development of a stronger carcass. By strengthening the ply against blowouts, through the use of long staple cotton, each layer of cord fabric heavily impregnated under pressure with pure latex gum rubber, they offer much greater safety to Western Giant users."

That the company's slogan "Save With Safety" has been carried out by giving its patrons more tire satisfaction per dollar invested is the belief of Mr. Fritchett. "An additional saving has been made possible by our liberal trade-in offer on old tires to purchasers of Western Giants."

Blond Tigress Gets 199 Years

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Jarman, called the "Blond Tigress" by police because of her alleged participation in holdups, was under a 199-year prison sentence today following her conviction on a charge of murder in connection with the recent slaying of Guatave Hoeh, 71, in her haberdashery.

Mrs. Jarman's companions, George Dale, her alleged sweetheart, and Leo Minned were convicted at the same time. Dale, accused of being the actual slayer, was sentenced to death in the electric chair, while Minned received a 199-year prison sentence when a jury in criminal court returned its verdict last night.

The 20-year-old divorcee, who is the mother of two children, took the stand during the trial and denied any connection with the shooting, asserting that she was the innocent victim of her two co-defendants, whom she accused of slaying the aged merchant without her knowledge.

Yankee Advisers Will Help Cuba

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(AP)—A. A. Berle, Jr., legal adviser to the farm administration on sugar matters, and John Laylin of the treasury, will be sent to Cuba as advisers to the American embassy in connection with Cuban economic reorganization. Formal announcement of the mission was made today by Secretary Hull.

Berle is one of President Roosevelt's professional counselors. Laylin is a special assistant to Under-Secretary Dean Acheson of the treasury.

Their functions, Hull said, will be to analyze the Cuban financial and economic situation for the guidance of the American government.

They expect to stay but 15 days, assisting Ambassador Sumner Welles, and be back in Washington before the new ambassador, Jefferson Caffery, takes over the post.
