

CONFER ON KIDNAP PROSECUTION

William Hamm Jr. (right), millionaire St. Paul brewer who was kidnaped, is shown in conference at St. Paul with L. L. Drill, United States district attorney, just before Hamm appeared before a grand jury investigating the case. (Associated Press Photo)

A VIEW OF HAVANA—SCENE OF NEW TURBULENCE

This general view of Havana, as seen from Morro Castle, shows the area which has been the center of the turbulent political situation. At the other end of El Prado, the tree-lined street slightly to right of center, is Central square, where much of the recent bloodshed took place. The dome of the capitol is shown rising above other buildings. (Associated Press Photo)

OUTLAW AT KIDNAPING HEARING

Harvey Bailey, a leader in the Memorial day break of 11 convicts from the Kansas state penitentiary and identified as the machine gunner in Kansas City's Union station "massacre," is shown as he was arraigned in Dallas, Tex., where he pleaded not guilty to charges of kidnaping Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma City oil man. (Associated Press Photo)

Topsy-Turvy Flier

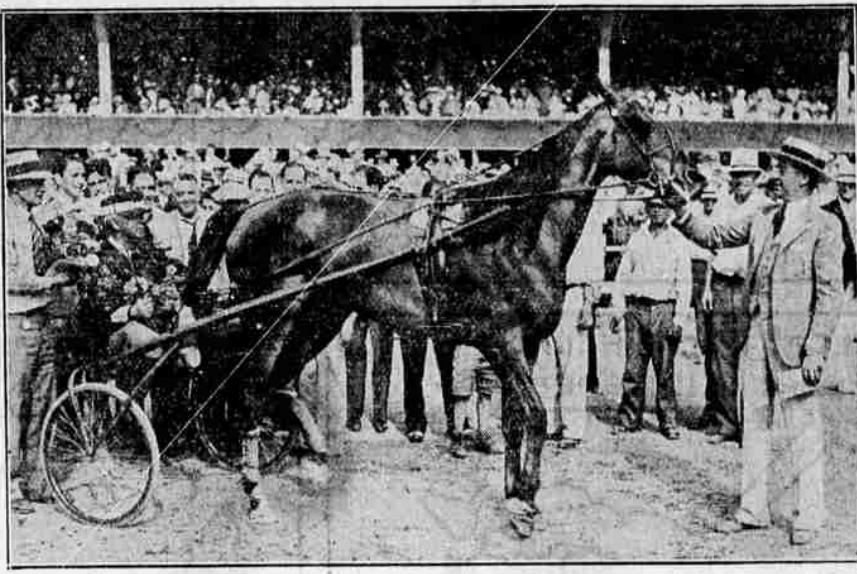

The day after Milo G. Burcham (above), broke the record for inverted flight in an airplane, Lieut. Tito Falconi of the Italian royal air force reclaimed it. His new record is two hours, eight minutes and 54 seconds—but Burcham said he would try to break that mark. (Associated Press Photo)

WOMAN HELD IN 'TORCH DEATH'

Mrs. May Hanson (left) of Rockford, Ill., was held in jail after her former husband, Earl Hanson, was found burned to death in his automobile near her home. Hanson's 12-year-old daughter, June (right), discovered the flaming machine. (Associated Press Photo)

FILLY WINS RICH HARNESS RACING CLASSIC

Mary Reynolds, a slim bay filly owned by W. N. Reynolds of Winston Salem, N. C., captured the rich Hambletonian, the nation's trotting classic, at Goshen, N. Y. Her driver, Ben White, is shown with the victory wreath after the victory. (Associated Press Photo)

MACHADO'S FAMILY AT MIAMI

The wife of former President Machado of Cuba fled to Miami, Fla., as her husband went to Nassau Island after the Cuban revolt. She is shown with her daughters and friends. Left to right, front row: Mrs. Machado and Mrs. Sanchez y Abelli. Above: Mrs. Ramon Grau, a daughter; Ninete Grau, and Mrs. Emilio Obregon, another daughter. (Associated Press Photo)

In Kansas Bond Case

Leland Caldwell (above), an employe of Ronald Finney, broker arrested on a charge of uttering spurious bonds in Kansas, also was arrested on a similar charge. (Associated Press Photo)

CUBAN MOB SACKS HAVANA NEWSPAPER OFFICE

This Associated Press picture shows a mob of Cubans in front of the Havana newspaper Herald de Cuba, unofficial organ of the Machado government, after they had attacked the property and destroyed much of the paper's equipment. This scene was taken during the wild disorders which occurred during Machado's overthrow.

POLICE QUIZ ST. PAUL DOCTOR

The story of Dr. W. H. Hedberg, St. Paul chiropractor, that he had been assaulted twice within six weeks, was investigated by police. As Hedberg, shown here, lay in a St. Paul hospital, it was announced that Dr. E. J. Engberg, prominent St. Paul physician who was lured from his home several weeks ago, had identified Dr. Hedberg as his captor. (Associated Press Photo)

WEAPONS FOUND IN ESCAPED CONVICT'S HIDEOUT

When Harvey Bailey, escaped Kansas convict, was arrested near Paradise, Tex., these weapons were found at his bedside. They include two automatic pistols, an automatic rifle and a machine gun police believe was used in the Kansas City Union station "massacre" in June. (Associated Press Photo)

C. C. C. LAD EMULATES STEVE BRODIE

Walter Kaminski, Civilian Conservation corps worker from Brooklyn, N. Y., does a hundred foot jump from the interstate bridge at Lewiston, Ida., to earn a photographer's $1.85. The famed Steve Brodie is supposed to have accomplished the leap from the Brooklyn bridge in satisfactory manner but Kaminski sustained a broken breast bone. (Associated Press Photo)

NUDISTS WARNED BY SEATTLE COP

State Patrolman Ben Rouch is saying, "Tut, tut, you can't do that here" to Jimmy Thatcher and Shirley March as the young couple, towels over arms, prepare for a clothless swim in the beach at Seattle, Wash. (Associated Press Photo)

HAVANA SOLDIERS FIRE ON HATED SECRET POLICE

Such scenes as this were common in Havana when Cuban soldiers rounded up and shot or imprisoned members of former President Gerardo Machado's strong-arm squad, the Porricias, who were charged with slaying political opponents in attempts to maintain the Machado dictatorship by force. (Associated Press Photo)

Leavenworth Warden

H. R. Hudspeth (above), warden of the annex of the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., suspended his assistant, Patrick J. Kearney, following disclosures that Terry Druggan, Chicago beer baron, had been allowed unauthorized privileges. Druggan was ordered transferred to the Atlanta prison. (Associated Press Photo)