MARINES READY CLAMP LID UPON CUBAN TURMOIL

HAVANA, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Soldiers set up machine guns in uptown parks this afternoon as Havana was stirred by many confusing rumors, including an insistent report that the United States would ask the two-day-old Cuban government to surrender power.

A widely circulated rumor was that Washington would ask the Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, who was deposed from the provisional presidency by a radical coup d'etat, be placed at the head of the government again with a new "cabinet of concentration." Such a cabinet would include representatives of all revolutionary groups.

Palace Guarded.

A heavy guard was placed around the presidential palace, where the commission of five, the new rulers of Cuba, was in session.

Communist meetings in celebration of international youth day were scheduled throughout Havana. The government announced that no street demonstrations would be permitted.

Machine guns were mounted in Central, Fraternity and other parks, and in the old Jai-Alai grounds. Soldiers said they had orders to fire if the slightest disturbance occurred.

The widespread belief that United States Ambassador Sumner Welles had insisted on the return to power of Dr. De Cespedes was based in part on the news that thirty U. S. ships of war were being concentrated in Cuban waters.

Ask Officers' Return.

In an effort to bolster its strength the new government tried to obtain the support of army officers and members of the De Cespedes cabinet.

The coup d'etat, which deposed President de Cespedes was effected by army privates and non-commissioned officers, who rose against their commissioned officers. Today the revolutionaries tried to get the commissioned officers back in the army.

Sergeant Fulgentio Batista, who led the revolt in the army, admitted that not all of the officers were willing to return.

MISS CAMPBELL, BENNIE HARRELL TO WED IN SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Campbell of this city were apposed yesterday by a telegram from their daughter Bennie Harrell, that she and Bennie Harrell were in the final stages of an elopement, and that they planned to be married today. The news was a surprise to the immediate family of the prospective bride and a great many friends.

The telegram, dispatched from King City, Cal., read: "Bennie and I plan to be married tomorrow. Have you any objections." It was signed "Harriet."

Mrs. Campbell said this morning that she had no objections, and that she expected to hear today that the troth had been duly plighted.

Miss Campbell and Harrell left this week for the south, the bride to visit an aunt in Los Angeles and the groom, a graduate of West Point, to report for duty as a second lieutenant in the army, at San Antonio, Tex.

As far as kin and intimate friends knew, there was no thought of marriage in their heads or hearts when they left, but other arrangements seem to have been made en route.

Under the California law, three days must elapse between the filing of a marriage intention and the marriage ceremony, so friends anticipate that the couple will proceed to Mexico or Arizona, where the wedding laws are not so stringent.

Beaides, Lieut. Harrell has to report for duty by Saturday, and a three-day wait would mean a bad start on an army career.

The proposed wedding will be the consummation of an acquaintance that started when both were students in the Senior high school. The groom was a halfback on two state championship football teams, and the bride was one of the girls who cheered him. They graduated in the class of 1928.

Harrell went to West Point and graduated last June. He came home this summer to visit his folks and old vists, after four years of study and drill. Of course he met Miss Campbell, with the above results.

Both the prospective bride and groom are well known in this city, where they have lived the greater part of their lives, and they start forth upon the sea of matrimony with the blessings of their parents, and the best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Both the lodge and cafeteria will remain open until September 20, to provide accommodations for tourists who linger to admire the lake and its surroundings.

CANNING TOMATOES COME IN TOO GREEN

All persons, taking advantage of the canning program offered by the Jackson County Relief committee, were urged today to use care in selecting the tomatoes brought to the army kitchen. They must be ripe for canning and quantities have been brought in lately which had not ripened sufficiently to make canning possible.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Ralph Gustafson, 12, of Portland, was accidentally shot in the abdomen today, police said, while he and John McArdie, 14, were inspecting a .32-caliber revolver at the latter's home here. The injured boy was taken to a hospital where his condition was reported critical.

The officers said John pressed the trigger to show Ralph "how it worked." They thought the revolver was unloaded.

DAVIS AWAITING SENTENCING FOR BALLOT STEALING

Charles W. (Chuck) Davis, cleared yesterday by a grand jury report of any blame for the death of Joseph B. (Bud) Johnston, during a street argument and altercation over the ballot theft convictions, is held in the county jail, awaiting sentencing upon his plea of guilty to participation in the ballot thefts of February 29 last. Date of sentence is problematical.

It will be made by Judge George F. Skipworth of Eugene, who heard all the vote-stealing trials, and whose date of holding court session here is indefinite.

The grand jury, in its report filed yesterday, and signed by all seven members, relative to the Davis case said: "Because of the general public interest exhibited in the case of the state of Oregon against Charles W. Davis, the grand jury spent a large amount of time hearing a number of witnesses, including several who were present at the scene of the tragedy, and we have concluded there was not sufficient evidence to warrant a return of an indictment, and, if an indictment was returned, the possibility of a conviction was small, and the county would be a large item to the county."

The grand jury report also stated that after an inspection of the county jail, county machine shops and county poor farm, "they were found to be operated in a satisfactory and economical manner."

The grand jury report recommends that three more milk cows be purchased for the county poor farm, that a roof be placed on the hoghouse, and that the poor farm land lying adjacent to Bear creek be revealed with county equipment, and made ready for cultivation.

The grand jury also returned an indictment against Joe A. Daniels, charging obtaining money under false pretenses. Daniels is alleged to have represented to Lee B. Ryan, manager of an Ashland movie theater, that he had $1000 in a Portland bank, whereupon Ryan cashed a $45 check which later was returned, marked N. S. P.

The Joe A. Daniels indicted is not Joe A. Daniels, former courthouse janitor and now a farmer of the Buch district.

SILVER SCREEN REVIEW

By Mary Greiner Kelly.

Sheiks and caravans, exotic desert scenery and ooh la, la, bow that boy Ramon Navarro can make love! If he is what the title of the picture now playing at Hunt's Craterian Inn, then the cry of every romantic girl in Medford will be, "Bring on your Barbarian!"

It's a treat to be able to just sit back and drink in some good, old-fashioned romance again—the kind that happens in the lives of single boys and girls like handsome Ramon Navarro and lovely Myrna Loy. After all, the modern brand of cinematic sophistication, wherein a few homes have to be wrecked before the plot gets under way, "The Barbarian" is actually refreshing.

Of course the advanced moderns may not agree with this. They may even find this amorous desert sheik naive beside some of the parlor variety who enhance the present avalanche of marital tangles on the screen.

However, a desert, a moon, an unusually sweet singing voice, a Myrna Loy and a break the scuffing eyed Ramon Navarro does something to one's romantic vertebrae. Girls, he does something!

Nancy Carroll Will Appear Rialto Film

"I Love That Man" is the glamorous title of the swiftly paced drama of a woman's devotion which opens Friday at the Rialto, featuring Edmund Lowe, Nancy Carroll, Robert Armstrong, Lew Cody, Warren Hymer and Dorothy Burgess. It is Charles R. Rogers' latest production for Paramount and was directed by Harry Joe Brown.

Lowe emerges as the slickest confidant man that ever made a play for dollars and dimes in a perfectly grand love story. Nancy Carroll is excellent as the woman who won't take "no" for an answer, tags along with the two-timing Love because she loves him, and bides her time for the wedding ceremony that's bound to come.

"I Love That Man" is that and funny with an appealing romance. James Dunn and Gloria Stuart in "The Girl in 419" is tonight's Rialto attraction.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK SET ASIDE IN PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today proclaimed the week beginning October 8, to be observed as fire prevention week.

His proclamation follows: "It has been a commendable custom for the President of the United States to request the annual observance of fire prevention week throughout the country. It is a week set aside for the purpose of informing the public of the dangers of fire to life and property. Fires which are largely preventable take a cruel toll of many lives and destroy property exceeding $400,000,000 in value each year. Of late, progress has been made in reducing the nation's fire loss, and this fact should encourage continuous vigilance and alertness so necessary to decrease the hazards of fire."

"Now, therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning October 8, 1933, to be observed as fire prevention week. To prevent our enormous waste by fire, the cooperation of all citizens is requested, and the organizations, groups and individuals interested in fire prevention are asked to take the leadership in instructing the public in the simple precautionary measures advocated as fire prevention safeguards."

ASK AID IN HUNT FOR BALLOONISTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Aid of the U. S. army, navy and coast guard today was requested in the search for the missing balloonists of the James Gordon Bennett's race.

Cliff Henselman, managing director of the international air race, pointed out that the two unreported balloons, that of Ward Van Orman and the Polish entry piloted by Captain Franzek Hynek, had been missing more than 24 hours and beyond the maximum time they could remain aloft.

Pointing out that Lieutenant Commander T. G. W. Settle brought his bag down in Connecticut, Henderson said the prevailing westerly winds could easily have wafted the balloons over the Atlantic ocean.

Of the four balloons which landed, Lieutenant Settle's achieved the greatest distance from Chicago—80 miles.
