

WORLD SERIES TO OPEN OCTOBER 3, PROBABLY IN N. Y.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 14.—(AP)—The world series of 1933 will open on Tuesday, October 3, in the city winning the National League championship, presumably New York.

This was decided today at a meeting presided over by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball.

If the Giants win the National League flag, games will be played at the Polo Grounds, New York, October 3 and 4, with the teams playing in Washington, the probable American League pennant winner, October 5, 6 and 7. Should additional games be necessary they will be played in New York on the following Sunday and Monday.

All games will start at 1:30 p. m. eastern standard time.

Twenty-three members of the Giants, with two coaches, and the same number of Senators, also with two coaches were named as eligible to compete in the series.

There will be no reduction in the price of tickets. The choice box seats will sell for $6.00 each, as in former years.

WILLAMETTE COACH TO SPEED UP ATTACK

SALEM, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A speedier attack with alternating backfields—providing material is available—is the gridiron plan of Coach Roy S. "Spec" Keene of Willamette university. Practice starts tomorrow.

Conners and Weiser at tackle, Kallier at end and Granis at center are regular linemen from last year who return. Oravec, Frants and Olson are regular backfield men returning, together with Williams and Cannady, who saw considerable action last year. Several other reserves will be on hand.

The Bearcats open their schedule against Oregon State at Corvallis September 23.

SWEDE ANDERSON LOSES TO DEVOE

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Dr. N. P. Devoe of Paris, France, 189 pounds, had little difficulty in disposing of Swede Anderson, 210 pounds, of Medford in their wrestling match here last night. Devoe, fresh from a successful eastern tour, met Anderson's roughness with chiropractic pressures and jabs and secured his release from all punishing holds. Anderson caught the Frenchman off guard for the first fall with a Sonnenberg butt, but lost the second on headlocks and rope throws. Anderson was knocked out while attempting a Sonnenberg for the third fall, going out of the ring as Devoe side-stepped his rush.

In the second match Ray Frisbie, 209 pounds, Medford fireman, won from Jack King of Tacoma, 205 pounds. The bout was exceptionally rough, Frisbie taking the first fall with an airplane spin, while King took the second with a flying head scissors. The third was won by Frisbie on a body slam.

SALEM TEACHERS AID FRATS IS ALLEGATION

SALEM, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A charge by Director E. A. Bradford that Salem high school teachers have been encouraging the return of secret societies, reopened the issue which has caused turmoil for the past 10 years.

Action contemplated by the school board would bar secret society members from participation in athletics.

Bank Bandits Get Cash, Securities

AMERY, Wis., Sept. 14.—(AP)—A masked robber quartet today held up C. M. Olson, assistant cashier of the Union State bank and fled with $46,000 worth of cash and negotiable securities. They were believed by Melvin Praeloff, chief of the Minnesota crime bureau, to be the same band who robbed a railway express agency in St. Paul Monday.

NEW NET QUEEN IS 'GOOD SCOUT' SCRIBES ASSERT

By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer.)
NEW YORK.—(AP)—For a girl who has been in the sports headlines for something like eight years, Helen Jacobs is little known to the American sports public.

For those eight years "Jake," as her intimates like to call her, has been just the California girl who was always getting defeated in the finals of some tennis tournament by the great Helen Wills, latterly Mrs. Helen Wills Moody.

There wasn't enough room for the two of them at the top, so it was Mrs. Moody—Queen Helen—who was immortalized in song and story on the week-end gravure pages. Miss Jacobs, except when she actually was engaged in competition, was more or less neglected.

Even when she won the national title a year ago, the victory was dismissed with a comment: "Yes, but Mrs. Moody didn't play."

She's Worth Knowing.

Now, however, she has won another national crown, and she did it by playing through a field of the world's greatest women stars, including Mrs. Moody. It is high time the country became acquainted with Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal.

Meet Helen, then, as she faced a battery of sports writers in her suite at the Forest Hills Inn the day before the recent championships began. She's pretty, with a charm not entirely captured by the camera. Her 145 pounds are compactly distributed; blue eyes smile from a face tanned by a thousand tennis suns.

Each visitor was supplied with cigarettes, ash-trays placed at each elbow before Miss Jacobs curled in an easy chair and remarked: "So what?" She found out. For fully an hour four interviewers took turns trying to think up a question Helen could not—or would not—answer. They failed. She sat and smiled and gave the answers. Some of the questions were, well, slightly personal, but not one did she appear to resent. She said once: "Of course, you shouldn't print that." No one did.

Called Moody "Charming."

Was there anything to the report, current for years, that she and Mrs. Moody were not exactly fond of one another?

"What nonsense," said Helen. "Of course we're friends. I don't know how such things get started. She's a charming girl and a marvelous tennis player."

Would she tell about the time she won a set from Helen Wills, when they both were youngsters out on the coast?

"I never won a set from her in my life," Helen quickly corrected. She's beaten her seven times, and I believe the best I ever did was seven games."

Was it true she never could beat Mrs. Moody, that she was "ticked" before they started?

"Golly, Moody 'Charming'."

Youngest Granger Gains Entrance on His 14th Birthday

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Ralph Holcomb of Kellogg is believed to be the youngest grange member and officer in the United States, and furthermore holds his office in the youngest grange in Oregon.

The minimum age for grange members is 14 years, and Holcomb was initiated last night, the date of his 14th birthday, as the Kellogg grange was instituted. He was elected to the office of gate-keeper.

Sams Valley

SAME VALLEY, Sept. 14.—(Sp.)—Those in this district desiring to take first aid instruction under the county health nurse, Miss Walker, should meet at the Sams Valley school house Monday, September 18, at 8 p. m.

Resident teachers of this community who began schools in other districts Monday were Miss Frances Fitzgerald—lower grades at Willow Springs; Misses Grace and Ruth Bigham, at Derby; Arthur Straus, upper grades, Table Rock, and Miss Naomi Magruder, at Meadows.

Mrs. Frank Moore and children, accompanied by Mrs. French, arrived Tuesday evening from Carleton to spend the week visiting Mrs. Moore's relatives, Ella and Glenn Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holt of Brookings spent last week end with Mr. Holt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holt.

Farmond Tresham returned last week from Silver Lake and entered high school Monday.

Threshing of alfalfa seed is now under way, the growing of which farmers report a most favorable season.

The Ladies' club was entertained Wednesday at the school house by Mrs. Aletta Bigham, assisted by Mrs. Walter Grant and Mrs. R. H. Seegmiller. The occasion was the celebration of the birthdays of members of July, August and September, and the afternoon was spent socially. The birthday cake was cut by Mrs. James Weaver, who happened to be the oldest honored member. Visitors present were Mrs. Harry Lindstrom of San Francisco, Mrs. Frank Myers of Table Rock. Mrs. Bigham presiding of the club, announced the new schedule for meetings would be the first and third Thursday of each month after the relief canning is over. Mrs. Pete Buerston and Mrs. John Cota will entertain the club at the Buerston home on Friday, September 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Straus and son returned to Richmond, Cal., last week after visiting ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Straus and other relatives of the valley.

Mrs. Harry Lindstrom of San Francisco returned to her home Saturday after spending several days as house guest of her sister, Mrs. Aletta Bigham. During Mrs. Lindstrom's visit the Bigham family held a reunion at the Frank Myers home at Table Rock, where over thirty members of the family met.

Identify Suicide As Billings Man

SALEM, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The body of an immaculately dressed man found dead here Sunday was identified late yesterday as a man who registered at a Portland hotel as J. E. Kennedy of Billings, Mont.

C. S. Vaughn, who linked Kennedy with the apparent suicide, was unable to be here, but an attendant from the hotel identified the corpse.

Thief Left $5 for Doorknob.

BROCKTON, Mass.—(UP)—Someone stole an antique purple glass doorknob from the front door of Harry C. Kelley's home. The thief left a $5 bill, but Kelley said this was far less than the value of the knob as an antique.

LIGHTING

FOR BEAUTY... CONVENIENCE... SAFETY and HEALTH. As one pauses upon the threshold of a properly lighted living-room he should see several tempting vistas. Several persons should be able to find a comfortable place for reading or sewing. Many a woman economizing on light is sacrificing youthful looks to wrinkled weariness. Good light relieves eye-strain, often prevents headaches and nervousness and may prevent permanent eye injury. A new type of portable lamp makes good lighting possible with but little additional expense. It floods the entire room with shadowless light or serves as the conventional reading light... or both. Made by several manufacturers, it is for sale at your dealer's. Why not try one in YOUR living room tonight?
