

Local and Personal

Phoenix Woodcraft to Meet—A special meeting of Neighbors of Woodcraft of Phoenix has been called for tonight at the regular meeting place.

Drummonds Move—Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond have moved from their former home on Dakota avenue to a new residence at the corner of South Ivy and Twelfth streets.

Here on Business—T. Morris Dunne, member of the state industrial accident commission, is in the city on business with the local examiner, E. H. Thomas.

Inspecting Camps—H. B. Rankin, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, is spending today on an inspection tour of the Elk Creek and Upper Rogue River camps.

Held on Vagrancy Charge—Ivan Smith, alias James Jones, transient, was picked up here by state police and is held today on a vagrancy charge, pending investigation.

Plan Portland Trip—R. G. Beach will be the next member of the local postoffice staff to take a vacation. He plans to leave next week with Mrs. Beach for a week's stay in Portland.

Ambrose at Marshfield—Sergeant Keith Ambrose of the state police left the Medford territory this morning for Marshfield, where he will relieve Sergeant C. C. Williams, who is on vacation.

Manager Casey's Camp—Fred C. Bortz, manager of Casey's camp, popular resort on the Crater Lake highway near Trail, was in Medford today on business. Mr. Bortz reports very good business this year.

Garage Burned—A garage and automobile belonging to C. Trinkle were destroyed by fire last night. The fire took place on South Prune street, outside the city limits, and the fire department was called at 11:05 o'clock.

Regional Engineer Here—Regional Engineer James Franklin of the forest service was in Medford yesterday on an inspection tour of C. C. C. work. He is directly in charge of the forest service work in the Washington and Oregon territory.

Students, See Miss Wise—All students who are planning to enter senior high school this year, who haven't completed their courses in penmanship, are asked to see Miss Wise at the Junior high school at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

Get Building Permits—A building permit for construction of a service station at a cost of $1000, was issued by the city Wednesday to C. A. Harrier. A permit was also issued to M. Russell for garage construction, cost $80, at 322 South Riverside.

Has Tonils Out—Joan McDuffey underwent an operation for removal of her tonils at the Community hospital here Wednesday. Mrs. J. L. Thompson of Brookings was also brought to the Community hospital yesterday for medical care.

Smallpox Scare Passes—The danger period for smallpox in the Gold Hill district has about passed, following the scare of two weeks ago, when the health department vaccinated close to 100 people, who feared they had been exposed to the disease.

Here for Visit and Hunt—Leland Noe of San Francisco arrived yesterday by plane and with his father, Clarence Noe, will leave for a deer hunt in northern California. Noe is a former Medford youth, and flew the plane to this city. He is a licensed pilot.

Miss Boussum to Teach—Miss Ethel Boussum left her home here Sunday for Williams, Ore., where she will teach the Junior high grade the coming year. Miss Boussum is an accredited teacher of music and orchestra director. She is well known in educational circles of Jackson and Josephine counties.

Auto Tools Stolen—Mary E. Sinclair of 311 Haven street reported to police today the theft of a jack, wrench and pump from her car.

Forest Fires Few—According to a report from the Rogue River national forest service offices today, there have been fewer fires in the local forests this year than last. Up to date, there have been just 29 fires reported, and all of them have been small ones. This figure shows a great decrease over last year.

Road Work Asked—Matters pertaining to improvement of county roads occupied the attention of the county court yesterday. A number of rural districts sought improvement before winter comes. All were taken under advisement. County work on roads at present is confined to special road levy work in the Butte Falls district and market fund work on the Dead Indian road.

Attorney Kelly Praised—Public works administration picked up a real acquisition when it selected Attorney Edward C. Kelly of Medford for one of its legal assistants at Washington. Kelly is a democrat; he distinguished himself for ability as a member of the 1933 legislature; a comparatively young man, born 1904; University of Oregon law graduate, 1927; son and partner of Col. E. E. Kelly—Oregon Voter.

Camera Club Planned—The Camera club to be formed at Library hall tonight is not for camera enthusiasts alone. Those who have been interested in photography and wish to take it up again with more thought and care are welcome. The traveler who wishes to have a record of the trip, rather than monuments and buildings on post-cards; the nature lover who wishes to preserve the interesting moments and impressions of his trips; the home-maker who wishes to record the happiness of the passing years—all may find profit in the gatherings of an active camera club.

Old Stars Appear—In Tom Mix Drama. Two real veterans of the silent screen, both of whom have a loyal following, have joined hands with Tom Mix in making "Flaming Guns," adapted from the great Peter B. Kyne story, "Oh, Promise Me."

The veterans are William Farnum and George Hackathorne. To attempt to give the screen record of Farnum, who has been in motion pictures since their infancy, would require a volume. One of his recent outstanding performances was in "The Painted Desert," while perhaps his greatest role was in Rex Beach's "The Spoilers," many years ago.

George Hackathorne was once Hollywood's leading character juvenile. Few have forgotten his performances in "Heart of Humanity," "The Little Minister" and "Human Wreckage." "Flaming Guns," which will be seen at the Rialto theater Friday and Saturday, virtually marks his talking picture comeback.

COHEN AND KELLY IN SEA COMEDY. George Sidney and Charlie Murray appear in two entirely different characters in the hilarious comedy, "The Cohens and Kellys in Trouble," which opens at the Roxy theater today.

Sidney appears as a merchant who has always wanted to go to sea, making a ridiculous figure in pea-jacket and striped sweater, while Murray is a tugboat captain.

OPENING OF COURT MAY BE DELAYED FEHL COMMISSARY HEAVY DRAIN UPON COUNTY TREASURY

Word has been received from Circuit Judge H. D. Norton that the term of the circuit court now under way in Josephine county may not be concluded until the middle of next week, which will delay the opening of the court term here scheduled for next Monday.

No action will be taken on the drawing of a jury for the coming term until after the return of Judge Norton. The regular jury list, drawn last January by the county court, was exhausted during the bailor theft trials. Under the law as established in the same series of cases, the jury list will be drawn from the tax rolls of the county by the sheriff.

Civil actions will be tried first at the coming term and many of them, it is expected, will be heard by the court.

ROAD DISTRICTS OF COUNTY ARE MERGED

In accordance with the state law passed by the last session of the legislature, the county court has created new road districts and thereby eliminated 12 road districts and 12 road supervisors in the county.

All of Jackson county outside of the limits of the 11 incorporated towns is included in District No. 1. Each incorporated town is a road district unto itself.

Up to August 31, a total of $43,782.25 has been expended for relief. The budget allowance was $43,047. At present the relief fund is overdrawn $735.25. Seasonal labor, improvement in local conditions, welfare work, and the departure of many indigent transients who flocked here last January committee when it starts preparing the annual budget next month. Under a new law passed by the legislature last winter, the budget committee meets in November, instead of in December, as previously.

Relief Reduced. Relief expenditures for August, the report shows, were substantially reduced over July. The July expenditures for the care of the poor totaled $3556.83. Much of this saving was due to the economy policy and sentencing of Fehl to state prison. Indiscriminate granting of hospitalization to all comers, upon their own word was discontinued, transients were denied prescriptions for minor ills, and only worthy cases of established residents were considered. Economy and a thorough investigation, have been invoked in the handling of all relief applications since Aug. 6.

Fund Overdrawn. Up to August 31, a total of $43,782.25 has been expended for relief. The budget allowance was $43,047. At present the relief fund is overdrawn $735.25. SILVER SCREEN REVIEW

By Mary Greiner Kelly.

"Nerts" is right! And Mama Rempiegar is even goofier than her four madcap children. But that won't keep you from recognizing members of your own family among that contagious brood who were suddenly brought to earth when the "Three-Cornered Moon" went cock-eyed.

And what a "Three-Cornered Moon!" Out of consideration to you, you'll simply have to go to Hunt's Craterian tonight to find out for yourself. Because, if you miss this refreshingly crazy picture and all the healthful laughter that goes with it, your family doctor will never forgive you.

You'll pigeon-hole every one of the characters, and the loonier they are the more you'll love them. But, ten to one, you'll take Mama Rempiegar, characterized by the one and only Mary Boland, home and keep her with you longest. She's rare.

Last night's capacity audience was given an additional treat—an extremely clever dance review, under the direction of Ted and Evelyn Schroeder, Fanchon and Marco headliners. And because it was so well worth seeing, it is too had this feature.

Stated communication of Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & A. M. Friday, Sept 15 at 7:50 p. m. Visitors invited. O. W. DE JARNEY, W. M. GEO. ALDEN, Secretary.

AUTOIST KILLED WHEN FRONT TIRE BLOWS OUT
BAKER, Aug. 15.—(UP)—Carbon Drury of Baker, 39, was killed Sunday afternoon when crushed beneath his overturned automobile on the Old Oregon Trail near Dixie in Baker county.
Drury, who was riding alone, was badly mangled. Tracks indicated that one of the front tires on the automobile blew out and the car plunged over a 20-foot embankment. The driver was apparently thrown from the automobile and caught beneath it when it stopped.
