

ST. LOUIS HOLDS BIG PARADE UNDER NRA BANNER

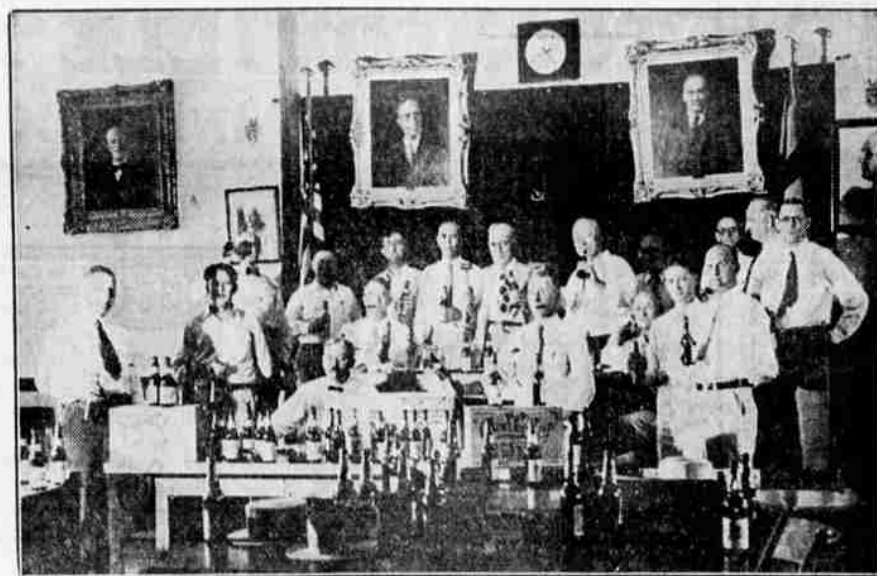

St. Louisans, 40,000 strong, marched through the city's downtown streets in an NRA parade. This view shows some of the cheering thousands. (Associated Press Photo)

KILLING FREES KIDNAP VICTIM

William F. Wood, Sausalito, Cal., business man, a cousin of the late William Howard Taft, former president, was liberated from the clutches of the man he told police had kidnaped him in his home town and brought to San Francisco to get securities from a safety deposit box, after being held prisoner two days and tortured. He appealed to a policeman for protection. The policeman was seriously wounded and Henry Jennings, the alleged kidnaper, killed in a gun battle which followed in a busy public market. A woman bystander also was injured. Wood is shown exhibiting his bruised wrists and other injuries attributed to his captor. (Associated Press Photo)

ARIZONA REPEAL DELEGATES HOLD "BEER BUST"

Eighteen cases of beer were consumed by delegates to the Arizona prohibition repeal convention and guests in Phoenix. Photo shows some of them during the session which formally ratified the state's vote for removal of the eighteenth amendment from the constitution. (Associated Press Photo)

U. S. SENDS PIGS TO SLAUGHTER

These pigs were part of the 8,000 on hand in the Kansas City stock yards as the government launched on its experimental slaughtering program in the latest move to raise pork prices. (Associated Press Photo)

Heads NRA Council

E. C. Rees, manager of the Associated Industries of Utah, was named permanent chairman of a national council to act as a clearing house of information for approximately 500 trade organizations operating under the NRA. Rees said its purpose was to present "the employers' side of the picture" to the recovery administration. (Associated Press Photo)

HOT WORDS IN ST. LOUIS STRIKE!

There was quite a dispute when this St. Louis policeman began to escort this workman away from the scene of trouble during a walk-out of 6,000 employees of clothing establishments. The strikers protested refusal of employers to recognize unions, increase pay and grant shorter hours. (Associated Press Photo)

HURRICANE BRINGS BIG LOSSES IN WESTERN CUBA

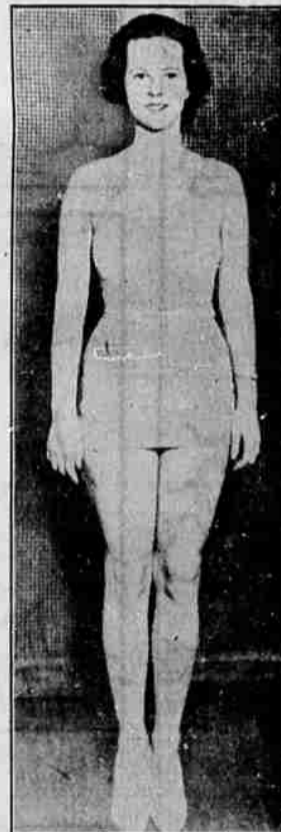

This picture shows a sample of hurricane damage in Cardenas, old Cuban town, where 30 were killed more than 100 hurt and hundreds of homes razed by the fierce storm which struck the western half of Cuba. Note the boat which was tossed into a debris-filled street. (Associated Press Photo)

MRS. OWEN RECEIVES LINDBERGH'S

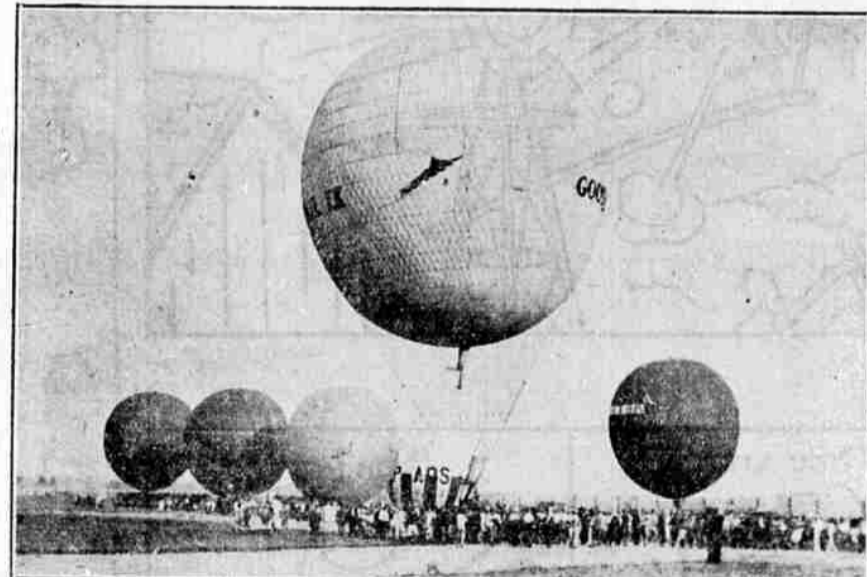

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen (center), United States minister to Denmark, received Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh when a reception was accorded the flying couple upon their recent arrival in Copenhagen. (Associated Press Photo)

'Miss Ohio'

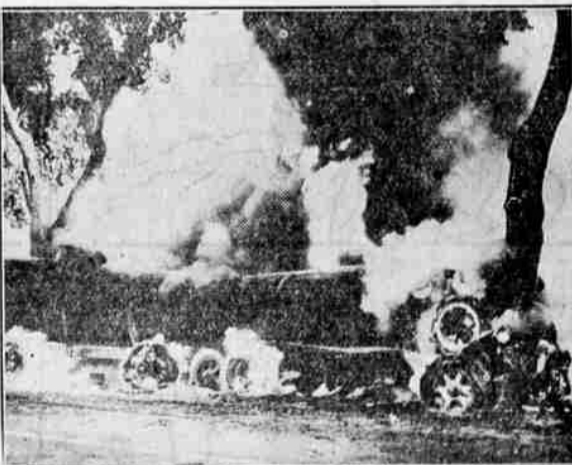

Gorraine Porter, 19, of Youngstown, O., will be "Miss Ohio" in the Atlantic City beauty pageant in September. (Associated Press Photo)

SIX BALLOONS TAKE OFF IN GORDON BENNETT RACE

This picture gives a general view of the six balloons, representing five nations, which took off in the 1933 James Gordon Bennett race from an airport near Chicago. (Associated Press Photo)

DRIVER DIES IN GAS TRUCK CRASH

An auto gasoline train carrying 7500 gallons struck a tree near San Jose, Cal., and sprayed liquid fire in all directions. Louis Mahan, the driver was cremated. (Associated Press Photo)

CAPTURE BAILEY AFTER JAIL BREAK

These officers captured Harvey Bailey at Ardmore, Okla., four hours after the notorious desperado had farced his way from the county jail at Dallas, Tex., and kidnaped the turnkey. Left to right: Raymond Shoemaker, a deputy sheriff, and Hale Dunn, Ardmore chief of police. (Associated Press Photos)

NEW COMMITTEE CONTROLS OIL INDUSTRY

Members of the new committee appointed by the President under the oil code to govern the petroleum industry were photographed as they met with Secretary Ickes, administrator, in Washington. Left to right, seated: C. F. Roesser, Fort Worth; M. L. Benedum, Pittsburgh; Secretary Ickes, James A. Moffett, New York and E. B. Reeser, Tulsa. Standing: W. T. Holliday, Cleveland; Howard Bennette, Tulsa; R. T. Zook, Bradford, Pa.; C. E. Arnott, New York; H. M. Dawes, Chicago; Wirt Franklin, Ardmore, Okla.; Amos L. Beatty, New York; Donald Richberg, NRA general counsel, and Axtel Byles, New York. (Associated Press Photos)

TABLET TO MELVILLE E. STONE

This memorial tablet to the late Melville E. Stone, one of the founders of The Associated Press and its general manager, was dedicated at Stone's birthplace at Hudson, Ill., August 20. The Optimist Club of Normal, Ill., arranged for the tablet which is to commemorate Stone's many achievements in journalism. (Associated Press Photo)

New Haskell Coach

Gus Welch (above), a Chippewa Indian, is the new football coach at Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kas., succeeding "Lone Star" Dietz, who resigned to coach the professional Boston Redskins. (Associated Press Photo)