Double Bill Coming to Craterian

"Midnight Club" at the Craterian theater today and tomorrow, has Clive Brook and George Raft pitted against each other—for jewels and for a girl.

ACTIVE CLUB LEADER TO BE GUEST MONDAY

Dr. Leslie C. Simkins, president of the Active club, announced today that Dr. Leslie C. Simkins, president of the young men's service organization, will be in Medford next Monday. The club will meet Monday night next week to welcome Dr. Simkins, who will be in Medford all day Monday.

LION MAN COMING TO ROXY SATURDAY

Excitement runs high in "King of the Jungle," which comes to the Roxy theater Saturday.

It is the story of a real wild man—a boy brought up from early childhood by a pack of lions. And, although the story deals with the taming of the Lion Man, at the hands of a beautiful woman, it glorifies the jungle beasts in their native setting, and builds a narrative of primitive power.

The role of the Lion Man is in the hands of Buster Crabbe, swimming champion of international renown.

STUDIO SHOWING 'EMERGENCY CALL'

Two love stories, one idealistic and the other of heart-throbbing power, interweave the story enacted by Bill Boyd and William Gargan in "Emergency Call."

This fast-stepping drama of the hospital ambulance service opened at the studio today.
