

YOUNG ROCKEFELLER IS GUARDED

Winthrop Rockefeller (center in white suit), 21-year-old grandson of John D. Rockefeller, was accompanied by an armed bodyguard (left) who called himself "Mr. Bennett" as the pair traveled from Texas to Chicago enroute to New York. They are shown changing planes at Chicago. Young Rockefeller only smiled when asked if he feared kidnapers. (Associated Press Photo)

HERE IS A REMARKABLE AIRVIEW OF TEXAS HURRICANE DAMAGE

This Associated Press picture provides a most unusual airview of damage caused by the Texas hurricane in Harlingen, one of the south east Texas cities most severely hit by the tropical storm which swept most of the east coast of the Lone Star state.

WALLACE REVEALS NEW FARM PLAN

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace is shown as he spoke to a world's fair crowd in Chicago and described the national administration's new plan to raise corn and hog prices under the agricultural adjustment act. (Associated Press Photo)

JUNIORS CARRY WASHINGTON'S BACKFIELD BURDEN

Coach Jimmy Phelan will depend upon this quartet of juniors to score touchdowns for Washington during this fall's football campaign. Left to right: Jay Hornbeak, blocking quarter; Art Ahonen, ball carrier and kicker; Matt Muczynski, smashing half, and Paul Sulkosky, driving fullback. (Associated Press Photo)

HUGH JOHNSON PREPARES CODE WITH AUTO MAGNATES

These leaders of the nation's automobile business met in Detroit with Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the recovery act, and drafted a proposed code for the industry. Left to right: R. C. Graham, Roy D. Chapin, K. T. Keller, Dubois Young, Walter P. Chrysler, Fred J. Fisher, Alvan Macauley, Gen. Johnson, Alfred P. Sloan Jr., W. S. Knudsen, C. E. Wilson, Charles D. Hastings. (Associated Press Photo)

MEETS WITH STEEL WORKERS

To get the views of workmen themselves on the proposed code for the steel industry, Miss Frances Perkins, secretary of labor, met a group of them at the nation's largest steel mill in Homestead, Pa. (Associated Press Photo)

POLICE ROUT JERSEY STRIKERS WITH TEAR GAS

Strikes have paralyzed part of the northern New Jersey silk industry. Violence burst out in the area when pickets tried to storm a dye works at Lodi, N. J. More than 30 persons were hurt when police drove the battling strikers back with clubs and tear gas. Picture shows demonstrators fleeing before a tear gas barrage. (Associated Press Photo)

PERRY GETS U. S. TENNIS TROPHY

Fred Perry (center), British tennis ace, who won the American singles championship at Forest Hills, N. Y., is shown receiving his trophy from Holcomb Ward, president of the Eastern Lawn Tennis association. Jack Crawford of Australia, whom Perry defeated in the final, is at the left. (Associated Press Photo)

BEEFY FULLBACKS REPORT TO GAEL GRID MENTOR

Four of the fullback candidates who will be on Coach "Slip" Madigan's St. Mary's football squad this year are shown with the new backfield coach, "Red" Strader. Left to right: Strader, Cassidy, Kellogg, Dodson and Garbo. (Associated Press Photo)

ACTRESS, DIRECTOR WILL WED

Ruth Hall Ybanez, known on the screen as Ruth Hall, and Lee D. Garmes, motion picture director and photographer, applied in Los Angeles for a license to wed. They set Sept. 10 as the date. (Associated Press Photo)

DEFENDS BALLOON RACE TROPHY

Lieut.-Comm. T. G. W. Settle (left), winner of the 1932 James Gordon Bennett balloon race, is shown with his aide, Charles H. Rendall, as they began defense of their trophy in this year's race from Chicago. (Associated Press Photo)

May Be Envoy

Gov. Floyd B. Olson of Minnesota was reported under consideration by President Roosevelt for appointment as ambassador to Russia if that nation is recognized by the United States. (Associated Press Photo)

Kidnap Plot Foiled

A kidnap plot in which Peggy Landon (above), 15-year-old daughter of Kansas governor, was to have been the victim, was revealed by Gov. Alfred Landon. Peggy was to have been held until Landon granted executive clemency to members of the Harvey Bailey-Wilbur-Underhill gang in the Kansas penitentiary. (Associated Press Photo)

BROTHERS IN KANSAS SHOOTING

Cecil "Pete" Thornbrugh, 19 (left), sought for several Kansas bank robberies and an Omaha slaying, was captured at Queenmo, Kas., by two deputy sheriffs, but his older brother Harold (right) fled under fire. Cecil was wounded in a shooting near Prescott, Kas., the day before his capture. (Associated Press Photos)