Country Places Attract Society Again This Week

That glorious kind of weather, which many folk choose to designate as Indian summer, has brought a revival here of entertaining at river lodges and country places during the past few days, and favorite haunts, almost forsaken during September rains, will be echoing with voices again today, as people gather to greet the first day of October in the great outdoors. The weather prediction is "fair and warmer."

Guests from north, south, and from marie old England are enjoying the hospitality this week of the river colony. The C. H. Blacks are entertaining Mrs. Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roth of San Francisco. The Nion Tuckers have as guests at "Rogue's Roost" Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Tobin of San Francisco, Senator Clark Burgard of Seattle and Lord Anthony Ashley of England. Lord Tennyson of England, who is also visiting in the States, is expected here during the week.

At the country home of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, where hospitality is not a seasonal thing, Mrs. Sprague Riggs was hostess last night at buffet supper, inviting members of her bridge club and their husbands to dine. Eighteen were present for the affair.

The Voorhies' also entertained informally Friday at tea. Dr. Pieter K. Roest, sociologist of Reed college, here for a lecture; Mrs. Roest and their two young sons.

Colony Club Tea Set for Tuesday

Official opening of the Colony club for the new season has been announced for this week, when the Tuesday afternoon tea will be enjoyed by the membership, headed by Mrs. Paul Janney as president.

Plans for opening of the club house on Geneva were underway yesterday.

Ort Enjoys Stay On College Campus

Eugene Ort, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ort, is among members of the local younger set who were guests on college campuses during rush week festivities. He spent five days last week at the Alpha Chi Phi fraternity, of which he is a member, at Oregon State college.

Past Noble Grands Enjoy Evening

The Past Noble Grands club of Olive Rebekah lodge met last Thursday evening with Mrs. Josephine Hall at her home on Edwards street. The quilt made by the members was presented Mrs. Dorothy Scripser. Following the evening's program, refreshments were served with Mrs. Scripser pouring tea.

Kiersted Home Scene of Bridge Playing

Mrs. H. W. Kiersted's home at Grand View Heights was the setting for a very pleasant afternoon of bridge Thursday when 25 women met to the country for the meeting of the Building Bridge club. Six tables were in play. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and garden flowers.

High score in auction bridge was held by Mrs. J. Marshall and in contract by Mrs. Jo Clark.

Baptist Women Entertained Here

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ashland Baptist church at 26 South Laurel street Tuesday. Three carloads of ladies came from Ashland.

The president Mrs. W. B. Crawford, introduced Mrs. M. E. Coe, who presented the missionary program. The general topic was "Stewardship."

The singing of the hymn, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord," led to the thought of being stewards of our lives, our homes, our time and our money. Solo, "My Brother Called to Thee" was sung by Mrs. Edna Raymond.

"The Woman With a Little Roof" was the topic led by Dr. Carroll. "The Woman With a Gift," by Mrs. E. L. Hogue, the story of the shabby box. Discussion, "Why Did She Give the Costly Gift?" Love prompted her. What is given for Christ is never wasted. "The Woman With an Hour," Mrs. Ethel Keizer. Scripture, the story of Martha worried about many things, many precious hours. Discussion: Have we time? If we do not have money can we not find the time? A good man joined in the discussion. How many hours a week do we owe God? One-tenth of our time belongs to Him; if we give him anything, it must be more. "The Woman With a Needle," Mrs. Geo. B. Young. Scripture, Acts 9:21; story of Dorcas. "Sew a little at a time and many things will be accomplished."

Mrs. Coe spoke of other women: "The Women With Sons," "The Woman With the Lost Coin," "The Woman With a Message." Those who are not Christians need to have these thoughts. Can we not in our conversation show them? A Jewish rabbi said they took offerings two Sundays to take care of local expenses. The other fifty Sundays went to help others. A Protestant said: "We do so little compared with the Jew. Why?" An Ashland lady spoke up quickly: "They fit!" Average received by Protestant churches is less than one-fourth of tithes. "Not one truly tithes can truly say he has lost by doing."

Mrs. V. O. N. Smith, president of the Ashland Auxiliary, thanked the ladies for the fine meeting. She said she knew each one had received a real blessing.

Autumn Flower Display Planned By Garden Club

The October meeting of the Medford Garden club will be held in the court house auditorium Thursday evening, October 5, at 7 o'clock. Every one attending is asked to bring specimens of fragrant flowers from his garden and be able to give the botanical name of the same if possible.

Mrs. Leland Menzler will conduct a 10-minute lesson on the pronunciation of botanical names, and Jane Smedicor will demonstrate the arranging of flowers in bowls and other containers.

Friday, October 6, the Garden club will hold a fall flower display in the lobby of the Hotel Medford. Every one is asked to bring flowers and assist in making it successful. The exhibit will be open to the public from 11 o'clock in the morning until late in the evening. Entries will be received from 8 to 10 in the morning.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

By Mrs. Cole Holmes.

The social meeting of the auxiliary was held Monday evening of this past week. The president and her co-workers prepared a most enjoyable evening in honor of the newly elected officers. The club room was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and tall tapers. The tables were arranged around the center table reserved for the guests of the evening.

After delicious refreshments auction bridge was enjoyed. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Goodwin Humphreys and Mrs. John Butler.

The welfare committee has announced that next Monday evening, October 2, the first meeting of the Sewing club will take place. The meeting is to be held at the Welfare room in the Medford National Bank building on the 3rd floor. Much work has been prepared and a pleasant evening is anticipated. Any auxiliary member is welcome and all are urged to help in this welfare work, as many articles of clothing are to be made for distribution during the winter.

Plans for the annual joint installation of the Legion and Auxiliary on October 9 are being perfected. As soon as they are completed they will appear in this column.

Mrs. Endris Home From Visit East

Mrs. Arthur H. Endris has returned to this city from an extensive trip through the east and south.

Board Meets Monday Evening

There will be a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. board members Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the "Y" club rooms.

Veteran's Auxiliary To Elect Officers

The Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold their regular meeting at the Eagles Hall Monday evening, October 2, preceded by a covered dish supper served at 7:00 o'clock. Election of officers for the ensuing year will be held and a large attendance is expected.

Mesdames Coddling, Conroy Entertain Preceding Dance

Mrs. George Coddling and Mrs. Helen Conroy were hostesses Friday evening at a large dinner at the Conroy home preceding the party of the Formal Dancing club. Covers were arranged for 46 guests at the attractive table.

Guests continued to the Knights of Pythias hall, where more than 100 club members enjoyed dancing.

Shower Honors Leonard Halls

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall, whose marriage was an event of late summer, gathered at their home in Jacksonville Friday evening to honor them with a miscellaneous shower.

Enjoying the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, parents of Mrs. Hall; Mr. and Mrs. James Murray; Mrs. Harvey Young, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, Mrs. Myrtle Blakeley, Misses Ira Fowell, Lois Lindsey, Margaret Henley and Joyce Andrews and Messrs. Herb Gray and Jerry Latham, and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hall.

Willitt Students Please in Recital

The special recital by students of Rosa Blackmore Willitt which took place last Monday evening at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe, had a very fine attendance.

Mrs. Willitt was highly complimented on the wonderful work of the class and the remarkable progress made. The most advanced work was done by Kathleen Bratten and Mrs. Lydia Guetzlaff. This class was completely trained under Rosa Blackmore Willitt.

Other recitals will be arranged for later in the season.

A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Purucker for her great interest in pianoforte playing which has prompted her to allow the use of the Baldwin Piano Shoppe, and its lovely grand pianos on these occasions.

Those taking part in the program were: Kathleen Bratten, Mrs. Lydia Guetzlaff, Helen Jones, Norma Meil, Iris Lewis and Fritz Guetzlaff.

Greater Medford Club Invites All Women to Meeting

All women of Medford interested in the social welfare of the city are invited to attend the meeting of the Greater Medford club, called for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the club rooms in the city hall, Mrs. G. R. Satchwell, club president, announced yesterday.

The meeting has been especially planned to bring together all the old members, the new members and those persons interested in joining the club, which is a charitable organization, working for the advancement of the city as a whole.

Important activities are being outlined for the new year and the club officers are anxious to gain the cooperation of all women of the city in making their accomplishment possible. During the last year the club did much to aid the Lions' relief kitchen and will direct energies to some worthy project aimed to enable the needy to aid themselves this year.

Mrs. Knight Hostess To Thursday Club

Mrs. C. A. Knight was hostess last week to members of the Thursday club. There were three tables of cards in play during the afternoon.

Kroeschel Pledged At Oregon State

Among Medford students entering college this year, who have been pledged by fraternities on the northern campuses, is Robert Kroeschel, who was pledged by Alpha Sigma Phi at Oregon State college last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kroeschel.

Presbyterian Bible Class Enjoys Session

The Women's Bible class of the Presbyterian church held their first social meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Littell opened the meeting by offering a "Challenge to Parents." Her talk was a plea that parents should see the importance of their children being taught the true word of God.

After a short business session, Mrs. Chaney gave a splendid paper on the part that parents play in advancing the work of the Sunday school.

A social hour followed, during which Mrs. Sawyer and her committee served dainty waters and coffee. The committee included Mesdames Doran, Kroeschel, King, Wright and Littell.

Party Compliments Miss Joyce Gage

Miss Joyce Gage, who left last evening by train for Chicago to spend a month visiting in the east and attending the World's fair, was the inspiration Friday evening of a handkerchief shower and bridge party for which Mrs. Grace Voss, and Misses Helen Noyes and Marjorie Lindley were hostesses.

There were three tables of bridge in play during the evening and high scores and traveling honors held by Misses Bernice Gill and Lindley.

Guests for the evening were: Misses Gage, Bernice Gill, Elizabeth Watson, Helen Wood and Mrs. David R. Wood, Mrs. Donald D. Huntress, Mrs. Weldon McBea, Mrs. Rena Colie, Mrs. Egan Gregory and Mrs. Lotie Caldwell.

Young People Open Services At Presbyterians

Of great interest to local young people and citizens is the announcement that beginning tonight the evening services of the Presbyterian church will be taken over by the young people of the church.

The Young People's society has planned an active evangelistic program for the year and the maintenance of a regular inspiring evening service is a goal which is foremost in the minds of all.

Three Sundays each month will be devoted to the regular preaching service with music by a young people's choir and the scripture reading, music and ushering all supervised by the young people themselves. Rev. W. J. Howell will bring the messages. The fourth Sunday will be set aside for various special programs in the form of musical evenings, special speakers, motion pictures from the board of Christian Education, etc. An illustrated lecture on Alaska is one of the contributions which is being planned for the future.

The members of the young people's group invite all members of the church, as well as those who do not attend any regular church meeting to co-operate in making this venture a success. Non-church-attending young people are also urged to fellowship with the Presbyterian society. The youth are going to put on services at the jail and also hold gospel meetings at outlying churches in the community.

Rev. W. J. Howell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, made the following statement concerning the new services: "It will be a service packed with spiritual dynamite. Recognizing the poverty of a Jazz age when the jazz begins to jar, now we are forced to look into the faces of hungry, disillusioned people with only one hope left—God. That will be our vision, backed with our lives."

The youth of the church today represent the only force in the world standing continually and unequivocally for a Godly interpretation of life, recognizing that we need God far worse than we need bread and living as never before to thrust into the world the only hope to save it from rot and ruin which is Jesus Christ, the son of the Living God."

Betrothal of Bay City Society Girl To D. Canfield Told

From the south comes announcement of a wedding to grace the early winter, in which Medford society will be much interested. For the future groom in the case is David Huntington Canfield of Crater Lake national park, well known in this city for a number of years.

The report of the betrothal in the bay city press reads: "Announcement of the engagement of Miss Helen Winslow Stanford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winslow Stanford of Piedmont, to Mr. David Huntington Canfield of Crater Lake, Ore., was made at a luncheon this afternoon at the Women's Athletic club in San Francisco by Miss Bernice Miller. News of the engagement came as a surprise to the assembled guests who had gathered for the luncheon which honored Mrs. Russell Andrews (Marion Farr)."

"Miss Stanford is a graduate of Stanford university, class of '28, and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma society. Mr. Canfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hawley Canfield of Minneapolis, Minn., is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, '28, and a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now chief ranger at Crater Lake national park. Since his graduation from college he has been with the national park service."

"The wedding of the couple is planned as an event of early winter. "Guests at the betrothal announcement luncheon included Mrs. Russell Andrews, Miss Katherine Crane, Mrs. Andrew Scott Jr., Mrs. Richard Wright, Mrs. Frederick Early Jr., Mrs. Harmon Bell, Mrs. Stanley McCutchan, Mrs. John Blemer, Miss Frances Shoup, Miss Catherine Harroun, Mrs. Byron Bryant, Mrs. Henry Doble, Mrs. Kenneth Berry, Mrs. John S. Christian Missionary Society to Meet

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Christian church will meet in the Recreation Hall, at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, October 4th.

Group IV, with Mrs. R. L. Ray as leader, will be in charge of both the program and social hour.

The general subject will be "The Country Places of America," and will be a study of the work being done by Christian churches, among the negroes, Indians and mountain people.

George Bennett, Student University of Washington

Friends in this city of George Bennett, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Alexander G. Bennett, formerly of Medford, now of Forest Grove, will be interested in learning that he is attending the University of Washington this year. He entered as a sophomore, majoring in business administration and law, and was recently pledged by Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He is continuing his vocal training at the university and has been accepted in enlistment in the university navy R. O. T. C.
