What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

At the first meeting of the high school Girl Scout troop I, held Sept. 28, the girls registered and began a layette as a civic project. After registering the new captain, Miss S. T. Walker, was introduced and she started the girls on the layette. While the garments were being cut out a business meeting was held for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. A. Latham was re-elected chairman; Irene Stubbfield was elected secretary and Leda O'Neal was re-elected treasurer. Jean Gillings, last year's secretary, declared that "a girl should be elected who liked to write and who really understood what she was supposed to be doing." The position was put into the capable hands of Irene Stubbfield. Julie Schow was also a candidate for secretary.

A hike was then discussed but no definite plans were made. The date of meeting was voted to be changed from Thursday to Tuesday evenings because several scouts are unable to attend Thursday evenings.

The meeting was then turned over to the making of the layette. Scouts present at the first meeting were: A. Latham, Irene Stubbfield, Leda O'Neal, Beth Gillings, Margaret Elliot, Barbara Holt, Mildred Walker, Jean Gillings, Julie Schow, and Marie Van Dermark.

Miss Walker is to be assisted by Mrs. Fliegel.

From all signs of the first meeting it looks as though the high school troop is going to be very active in scout work during the coming year.

At a recent meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders' association Miss Sybil T. Walker was elected chairman and Miss Ruth Meusel, secretary-treasurer.

Girl Scouts will gather for their first meetings of the school year at the following times and places: Roosevelt, troop II, Monday, Oct. 2, at 4:30 o'clock at the scout headquarters; Berrydale, troop III, Thursday, Oct. 5 at 7 o'clock at the Howard school; Junior High School, troop IV, Wednesday, Oct. 4 at 7 o'clock at the scout headquarters; Lincoln, troop VI Thursday, Oct. 5 at 4:10 at scout headquarters, and Washington, troop VII, Monday, Oct. 2, at 4 o'clock at the Washington school gymnasium.

Parent-Teachers Enjoy Splendid Support Here

Perhaps the reason that the attendance at the luncheon and business meeting of the Medford Council of Parents and Teachers on last Tuesday broke all former records, is due to the fact that these representatives of Medford's parents realize as never before the enormity of the problems that face the children of today, was the explanation given yesterday.

Mrs. Arthur Short, chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Report of Mrs. Drysdale, chairman of the Parent-Teacher council luncheon given for the Jackson County Teachers' Institute on Sept. 8 at the high school showed a net profit of $22.94.

The chairman of the several Parent-Teacher units of the city gave an outline of the work they were planning for the school year. These plans showed that much time and thought are being devoted to ways of solving the problems confronting Medford's own children, one of which is establishing lunch rooms and aiding in clothing deserving but needy pupils.

Mrs. Mabel Mack, county home demonstration agent, was present and told of plans for the organization of several radio-listening groups in Medford and vicinity to take up Parent-education subjects. The lectures have been prepared by Sara Watt Prentiss, professor of child development and parent education at O. A. C. This interesting study will be viewed by the radio audience as "The Developing Home." The first of these lectures will be given over KMED on October 8 at 1:30 p. m. Classes for listening and discussion will be organized before 11 a. m. and will continue throughout the winter months on every other Monday afternoon. Parents should avail themselves of this splendid opportunity by joining one of the radio-listening clubs.

Mrs. Paul Gerber, president of the county council of Parent-Teachers, was present and announced the first meeting of the county council to be held at Central Point on Saturday, Oct. 14.

Mrs. Theo. Tolletson, state vice president of Parents and Teachers, was also a guest at the luncheon.

Announcement was made of the State Parent-Teacher convention to be held in Salem on Oct. 24 to 27. Many Parent-Teacher members from Medford are planning to attend.

Mrs. B. R. Finch was appointed publicity chairman for the Parent-Teacher council.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Short gave some of the highlights of the national Parent-Teacher convention which she attended in Seattle during the summer.

One of the great problems being considered there was how to save our time-honored system of education. Parents-Teachers saw child welfare and education at the cross-roads. They realized too, that the alarming situation confronting them had not developed wholly as a financial question. Individuals and groups who think this is a good opportunity to claim their share in the democratic theory of education are taking advantage of the opportunity.

Dr. Blanka, of the University of California deplored the fact that so much money is being used in building good roads and the schools were being allowed to close their doors. He said "We can ride on lumber roads for a while, if they only lead to a school house door." He pointed out also that it costs $3000 to convict

High school, troop I, met Thursday at the scout headquarters and Jackson, troop V, met Saturday at the Jackson school.

Captains of the troops are: Troop I, Miss Walker; troop II, Miss Vera Humphrey; troop III, Mrs. Hilding Bergaon; troop IV, Miss Margaret Kerr; troop V, Miss Ruth Meusel; troop VI, Miss Naomi Hohman; troop VII, Mrs. Harold Johnson and troop VIII, of Phoenix, Miss Lottie Watkins.

Mrs. Leland Carpenter will act as captain of the Washington school troop until Mrs. Johnson returns from the north.

Brownie Pack No. 1 of the Washington school will hold its opening meeting Wednesday, October 4, at the Washington school. A new Brownie Pack No. 2, of the Roosevelt school, will be organized Thursday, October 12, at the Roosevelt school.

Brownie leaders include Amy Lynch, Elizabeth Gillings, Jean Gillings and Martha DeSouza.

The Girl Scout office, 500 E. Main will be open Tuesday and Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5. Telephone 540. Special appointments may be made at any time. Scout business may be transacted on the other days of the week with Mrs. Charles Bateman, 411 Woodstock, telephone 1304-L.

Dance at Normal School Enjoyed

Many members of the local younger set attended the "Mix-Up," Southern Oregon Normal school dancing party, Thursday evening at the Normal school. Medford is well represented in this year's freshman class and practically the complete June graduating class from the Ashland high school has enrolled at the Normal, where many social festivities will grace the winter season.

Lady Lions Dine Tuesday Afternoon

The Lady Lions will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. C. Mulholland on Berkeley Way for luncheon and social afternoon. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 and Mrs. Mulholland will be assisted by Mrs. H. T. Hubbard.

The W. C. T. U.
By Mrs. Wm. H. Hill.

The Jackson County W. C. T. U. met Thursday, Sept. 28, at Ashland for an all-day meeting to listen to reports and make preparations for the state convention which is to convene October 17-20 in Portland. Luncheon was served at noon to some sixty or more members and guests.

The high light of the day was the election of Mrs. August McCormick, Ashland's wide-awake president, to be president of the Jackson county dry forces, and Mrs. Annie Roseborough of Medford, vice-president. Miss Jean Anderson of Ashland is the new secretary and Mrs. Luella Stearns of Ashland continues as county treasurer.

The addresses by Mayor Wiley of Ashland, City Attorney C. V. McClure of Ashland; Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, "Temperance and Health," and Former County Superintendent of Schools Susanna Holmes Carter on "Temperance Education," constituted the very constructive program, interspersed with excellent musical numbers.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"The Jackson County Women's Christian Temperance Union, in its second meeting of the year, reverently pledge anew our loyalty to the temperance cause with full confidence in ultimate victory. To promote this program of our organization we adopt the following resolutions:

"We reaffirm our convictions that total abstinence is the only safe practice in regard to the liquor traffic.

"We further declare that, even though balancing of the budget requires the adoption of drastic measures, this nation, founded on great moral principles, should refuse to gain revenue from that which degrades its people.

"We appeal to dealers in merchandise and commodities which are necessities in every home, not to sell beer and wine, for in so doing they promote drinking among women and children.

"No question is settled until it is settled right and the liquor problem will not be settled by legalizing beer or repealing the 18th amendment.

"We render special thanks to our county officials who planned this splendid convention and to the Ashland women who so thoughtfully provided for our enjoyment. To the Methodists who have been most helpful and considerate in the use of their church and for all the other favors for which we render thanks."

We urge all our friends to join in the support of this great work by co-operating with the new officers in their plans for the year. Their full addresses are: Mrs. Augusta McCormick, 219 Almont St., Ashland, president; Mrs. Annie Roseborough, 807 West Sixth St., Medford, vice-president; Miss Jean Anderson, 437 Mountain Ave., Ashland, secretary; and Mrs. Luella Stearns, 78 Pine St., Ashland, treasurer.

Mrs. Frock Hostess

At Dinner Wednesday.

Mrs. Loren Frock entertained Wednesday evening at Waucoma Inn for Mr. and Mrs. Glen LaBarre.

Medical Auxiliary To Meet Thursday

The auxiliary to the Jackson County Medical association will meet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clary here Thursday afternoon, Oct. 5. The officers of the organization are: Mrs. E. A. Woods, Ashland, president; Mrs. R. W. Stearns, Medford, vice-president; Mrs. C. I. Drummond, this city, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Weston Hosted at Party

Mrs. Gus Weston was honor guest Monday evening at a surprise party given at her home by a number of neighbors and friends. Lovely gifts were presented Mrs. Weston by those present. Refreshments were served during the evening, with a large birthday cake being cut.

Present were Mrs. and Mrs. W. S. Gilmore, Mrs. M. J. Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barnes and Miss Catherine Weston.

Dr. Showalter, state superintendent of schools in Washington said "Those who strike at the schools are blind to their true worth."

The Parent-Teacher national congress passed a resolution asking for federal aid to keep the schools of America open, and determined that there would be no surrender to the depression so far as Parents and Teachers were concerned.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Tolletson at 59 Geneva ave. on October 17.

Mrs. Gerber Reports

The Washington Parent-Teacher association held its first meeting for the year on Friday of this week.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Heyland, Mrs. Carl Bennett presided.

Mrs. Gerber, county council president, gave an inspiring report of the National P. T. A. convention held in Seattle to which Mrs. Gerber and Mrs. Short, council president, were delegates. Tea was served by the new officers.

Mrs. Heyland Named.

Mrs. Jack Heyland of Medford has been named by the nominating committee for the Oregon congress of Parents and Teachers to act as regional vice-president and aide to the president for a term of two years.

Mrs. William Kietzer of Portland, has been suggested by the same committee as president for the ensuing term.

The biennial convention of the Oregon congress will be held at Salem October 24-27, with the outgoing president, Mrs. W. T. Brice, presiding. Mrs. Hugh Bradford of Sacramento, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be present to give the main address of the convention, "The Child and His Community."

Mrs. Schuler Hostess To Health Workers

The chairman of the Jacksonville Health unit met Friday at the home of Mrs. I. E. Schuler in Medford. A covered dish luncheon was served after which Mrs. Schuler, county Health Unit sponsor, discussed some very interesting plans for the coming year.

Presbyterian Women's Association to Meet

The Women's association of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. Members of the East Side circle will act as hostesses for the afternoon with Mrs. Burdette Dodge, chairman.

Methodist Missionary Society Plans Luncheon

The annual dues-paying luncheon of the Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church, which comes in the month of October, will be held in the church parlors at 1 o'clock, Tuesday, October 3. All members are urged to be present and guests are welcomed.

To Foot Sufferers

I have been successful in securing the services of a nationally-known and very prominent Foot Correctionist, who will be in my office two days.

Monday and Tuesday, October 2nd and 3rd

He does not use drugs, knife, or metal arch supports, or other similar methods, but corrects the 26 bones, 28 articulations, muscles, ligaments and all structures of the foot without a thrust, and practically painlessly, and can give prompt relief in all cases accepted. Do not fail to see him while he is here, as you may be suffering from other serious ailments as a result of bad feet.

ARBITRATION TRY

ERE STRIKING IS LABOR HEAD PLEA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(AP) In an appeal to restless members of the American Federation of Labor for patience until the recovery program develops fully, President William Green of the federation asked today that dissatisfied workers try to arbitrate before striking.

His statement was taken by some organization officials as a keynote for the convention that opens next week. In the declaration issued while thousands of workers through the country were on strike, Green held that the "right to strike is fundamental."

But reminding that the national labor board was attempting to settle employer-employee disputes and state and local boards were being created for the same purpose.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. Sept. 30.—(AP) —With tension unrelieved, it appeared tonight that only definitely expressed union recognition for both coal and steel workers would bring any appreciable degree of peace in this strike area.

Four thousand striking miners ceased picketing the giant Carnegie Steel company's by-products plant at Clairton shortly after announcement that operations of captive mines had agreed to the coal code, but their places immediately were taken by steel pickets.

Three pickets, members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers are employees of the Carnegie company. They took their places peacefully but firmly at the entrance of the plant and leaders expressed belief the several thousand workers in the plant would walk out next week.
