

COUNTY BUDGET DRAFTERS HOLD FIRST MEETING

First meeting of the Jackson county budget committee was held this afternoon. The budget committee is composed of George Alford of Fern Valley, former county commissioner, Fred Wahl, Medford, cashier of the Farmers and Fruitgrowers bank, and O. A. Alenderfer, Medford, former mayor and councilman, appointed by the county court last Saturday, and the county court composed of County Judge Earl B. Day and County Commissioners Emmett Nealon and Ralph Billings.

Four members of the budget committee are identified with farming and Alenderfer is interested in the Hollywood orchards. The personnel of the budget committee has two members from the south end of the county, Commissioner Billings of Ashland and Alford of Fern Valley. Wahl and Alenderfer from this city and Nealon and Day from the northern area.

The first work of the committee will be the selection of a chairman and study of Oregon laws granting and defining the rights of budget boards. All the county departments have presented estimates for the coming year. County Judge Day has prepared a table of budget expenses for all western Oregon counties, and they will be viewed in fixing of Jackson county budgets.

The budget, County Judge Day announces will be based upon sound business principles and methods, with an effort to reduce the county costs, without crippling governmental functions, or loss of federal and fee revenue, through over-stressed economy.

Greater Medford Club Re-elects Officers

At the meeting yesterday afternoon in the club rooms at the city hall, plans for the coming year's work were made, and the officers who served during the past year were re-elected, as was the board of directors. During the business session it was voted to furnish the clubrooms, and a number of nice chairs and dishes have already been purchased, it was announced. The club decided to support all other clubs of the city as far as possible in this winter's work.

The board will conduct a business meeting once a month, and according to the plans outlined Monday, a card party will be held each month, under the supervision of the board, instead of committees. Funds will go towards charity, and furnishing the hall. The clubrooms will also be rented to various individuals and organizations for parties, according to Mrs. G. R. Satchell, president.

Officers re-elected were Mrs. Satchell, president; Mrs. M. J. Norris, first vice-president; Mrs. L. Pennington, second vice-president; Mrs. Rose Scheffelin, secretary, and Mrs. Alice Keppen, treasurer. The board of directors is composed of Mrs. Stella Merrick, Mrs. A. E. Peames and Mrs. R. C. JONES WILL TAKE BALLOT SENTENCE TO HIGHER COURT

Formal notice of appeal to the state supreme court was filed today in circuit court, by Walter J. Jones, former mayor of Rogue River, now serving four years in state prison, for conviction of vote-stealing. The notice is directed to the county officials of Jackson and Klamath counties, and the state attorney general. Attorney T. J. Eurlight of this city, and Attorney Glen R. Jacks of Oregon City, appear as counsel for Jones.

Two of the central figures in the late local turmoil besides Jones, have filed appeal notices. They are L. A. Banks, agitator serving life for murder, and Gordon L. Schermerhorn, former sheriff, under a three year sentence for ballot theft conviction. Friends say that E. H. Pehl, first lieutenant for Banks in his disturbing activities, has no intention of filing an appeal. The same applies to J. Arthur La Dieu, former business aide of Banks, now serving four years for his part in the ballot thefts.

WOMAN LEAPS 19 STORIES TO DEATH

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A woman identified as Mrs. Charlotte Weller, whose husband, Captain R. M. Weller, was said to be critically ill in a veterans' hospital in Tucson, Ariz., was killed today in a fall from the 19th floor of a Fifth avenue hotel.

Police said she had leaped from a room in the hotel. They found in the room a sleeping man and when police awakened him he described himself as Charles Ogle, of Philadelphia, a friend of Captain Weller.

On a table police found a note, badly scrawled and incoherently written, signed "Charlotte C. Weller." Ogle, a tall, middle aged artist, was taken to a police station for questioning. He said Mrs. Weller had been the driver of a British ambulance in France and had met Captain Weller, then a member of the staff of General Douglas MacArthur, at Rouen, in 1918. He said Mrs. Weller was about 36 years old.

19 L. A. SCHOOLS REMAIN CLOSED AFTER TREMBLOR

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Nineteen public schools in Los Angeles remained closed today as the aftermath of yesterday morning's sharp but brief earthquake tremor, which resulted in two deaths, injury to about a dozen persons and a light property damage.

Closing of the 19 schools, which followed an all-day holiday in the school system yesterday, was ordered by the board of education because its inspection of buildings was not completed yesterday.

No estimate of property damage in southern California was available, but a survey indicated it would be relatively small. Only two buildings in Los Angeles were damaged extensively. They were a market building on Central avenue and the old Central police station on First street, from which more than a ton of masonry was shaken loose.

Mrs. Sophia Kaspow, 73, and Francis Ramirez, 55, succumbed to heart attacks after becoming hysterical when the shock struck throughout southern California at 1:10 a. m. Those hurt in the quake suffered minor injuries.

The Carnegie Institution seismological laboratory in Pasadena reported the epicenter of the shock was about 25 miles southwest of Pasadena.

Several minor earth vibrations in southern California followed the sharp shock. The last one to be reported was in the Imperial valley at 6:45 o'clock last night. Scientists were unable to determine whether the sharp quake at 1:10 a. m. yesterday was an after-shock of the March 10 quake which took a toll of more than 120 lives and caused property damage amounting to millions, or was a new earth development.

BOYS EAT DYNAMITE WITHOUT ILL EFFECT
ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Three hungry little boys found a package of some dark brown stuff packed in sticks. They decided it must be peanut butter. They got some buns spread them with the "peanut butter" and ate with a relish. A policeman found out they were eating dynamite, soaked by rain. The dynamite peanut butter went into a bucket of water at headquarters and the three boys went home, apparently none the worse for the repast.

about Cigarettes

Of all the ways in which tobacco is used the cigarette is the mildest form

YOU know, ever since the Indians found out the pleasure of smoking tobacco, there have been many ways of enjoying it.

But of all the ways in which tobacco is used, the cigarette is the mildest form.

Another thing—cigarettes are about the most convenient smoke. All you have to do is strike a match.

Everything that money can buy and everything that science knows about is used to make Chesterfields.

The right home-grown tobaccos—seasoned with just enough aromatic Turkish—are blended and cross-blended the Chesterfield way.

Then the cigarettes are made right—firm, well-filled. Chesterfield uses the right kind of pure cigarette paper.

There are other good cigarettes, of course, but Chesterfield is the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better. Chesterfields satisfy—we ask you to try them.
