JUNIOR HIGH TO PLAY ASHLAND'S JUNIORS FRIDAY

Medford junior high school football team will tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock meet the junior high school team from Ashland at Van Scoyoc field here in their initial game of the season.

Coach Ray Henderson has listed the probable starting lineup as:

Oliver and Stelle, ends; Campbell and Santo, tackles; Tuttle and Ehrhardt or Gillman, guards; Field, fullback; Luman and Littrell, wingback; Hayes, center.

A drive is being put on by the junior high pupils to obtain enough funds for purchasing new outfits for the boys. A check for $5 was today received from Harvey L. Arnee, manager of the General Petroleum corporation, and the football boys were expressing their appreciation of the gift.

JUNGLE THRILLS IN 'NAGANA' AT ROXY

"Nagana" with Tala Birell, exotic Viennese beauty, in the principal female role, opened today at the Roxy theater. Notorious for the multiplicity of her lovers, Tala finally falls genuinely in love with Melvyn Douglas in his role of Dr. Radnor, head of an organization engaged in fighting the ravages of jungle diseases in Africa, and follows him to a plague infested native village. Braving the attacks of wild beasts, she finally arrives in Nagana, and here begins a strange existence, amid the savage tribes of the African interior.

Ronald Coleman Craterian Star.

"The Masquerader," playing at the Craterian theater for three days, starting today, has Ronald Coleman enacting a double role—as Sir John Chilcote, member of parliament, and as John Leder, his distant cousin from Canada. Everything goes along fine when Leder starts doubling for Sir John until his mistress senses something atry and denounces him as a fraud.

This is the screen version of the play made famous by Guy Bates Post, and which he twice played here in Medford at the old Page theater.

"Penthouse" Will Appear At Holly; Maritza Starring

With Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy at the top of an impressive cast, "Penthouse," the production from the pen of Arthur Somers Roche, coming to the Holly Saturday.

Directed by the masterful touch of W. S. Van Dyke, who brought such notable productions as "Trader Horn" and "White Shadows in the South Seas" to the screen, "Penthouse" presents a modern and laudable picture of New York's high spots—the Mad Manhattan that Walter Winchell and O. O. McIntyre have glorified in the public press.

Filmed almost entirely in settings that represent the lavish penthouse world atop New York's skyscrapers, the picture captures the pulse of the great metropolis' roof-top life.

The new Sari Maritza is now starring in the Holly picture, "Monte Carlo Madness."

ATTENTION, MOTHERS! The famous "Robin Hood Shoes" mean health for your children. $1.25 to $3.45. THE BAND BOX & SHOE BOX.

Fine Cast In New Drama At Rialto

The newcast film rushes in where angels fear to tread.

He sets up his camera in cathedrals or gangsters' hideouts with equal aplomb.

He is right on the spot to flatter, cajole or intimidate assassins into posing for the camera.

He may be seen grinding away on the wing of a speeding plane one day; on the bridge of a battleship plunging through the heavy seas the next day; and on the topmost spire of a skyscraper the third.

He is reckless, foolhardy, devil-may-care—abiding by one code—

He may be seen grinding away.

He is the man glorified in "Headline Shooter," authentic filmization of a globe-trotting adventurer who takes his love where he finds it, but always carries the same camera. William Gargan is the central character, and Frances Dee is the first girl he photographs with his eyes and heart.

It plays at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Saturday.

PECORA DECIDES WILL MAKE RACE FOR PROSECUTOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Ferdinand Pecora, counsel for the senate banking committee, decided today to run for district attorney of condition and it was readily accepted by the committee and their opinion was that I should take the nomination because they feel that the active work of this investigation will be finished by the first of the year."

Pecora, accompanied by aides, received the congratulations of Clarence Dillon, head of the firm of Dillon, Read & Company, now being investigated, as he walked from the committee room.
