

TRUCK OPERATORS DEMAND ARRESTS WAIT LAW RULING

of the truck association that he would protect truck owners from enforcement of the law until it was clarified in the courts.

As an alternative to no action by the governor, it was voted to make a statewide appeal to continue to roll the trucks to serve the public in outlying districts. To this end, the members voted to face arrest if necessary.

Hardship Cited.

Suggested cautionary courses were laid aside. Instances of hardships occasioned by P. U. C. tag enforcement were multiplied. Considerable complaint was voiced against the manner in which state police officers have been making the truck tag arrests.

A recall suggestion by Col. F. W.

Stevens of Goldston, Ore., drew loud applause after other gubernatorial recall sentiment had been sounded earlier.

Members were opposed to filling out regular application forms and posting deposits pending outcome of appeal, holding that they would have no recourse in case the law is held unconstitutional. Utilities Commissioner C. M. Thomas, who was handed the job of enforcement of the bus and truck law by the legislature, had recommended that the fees be paid by the truckers, under protest.

Miss Warner Replaced. — Because Miss Winifred Warner is not returning to the Oregon State college campus this year, DeMaris Hertz, a senior in home economics, has been elected president of Phi Chi Theta, honorary organization on the campus. Miss Warner was elected to head the group last spring, according to announcements in the Oregon State Barometer, but did not return to school this fall. Miss Warner's engagement was recently announced.

To Fish Rogue. — C. Templeton Crocker of San Francisco arrived here this forenoon on the Shasta from San Francisco, to spend several days in the Rogue River valley as the guest of C. N. Black. They plan to do some fishing in Rogue river, Captain Black said this morning.

ENTERPRISE GRANGE HAS BIRTHDAY FEAST FOR THREE MEMBERS

At the regular meeting of Enterprise Grange, of Evans Valley, Thursday evening an additional feature was added in the form of a birthday dinner in honor of three members of the grange for which a very happy crowd gathered and enjoyed a pleasant hour.

At the business session three former members, Mrs. C. N. Law, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Barto were welcomed back into full membership, these ladies having been out on demits for several months.

Clyde Ringer who has been confined to his home for some time on account of a broken leg, was able to get about in a wheel chair and was present at the meeting and dinner which was followed by a lecture program and an hour of dancing.

Saturday night a fine crowd attended the annual Boosters day program prepared by the worthy lecturer Frank Jackson. The consisted of a discourse by Worthy Master Eugene Moore, in which he explained what the grange stands for in the state and nation.

The program included an address of welcome by Worthy Lecturer Frank Jackson; songs, skits, short stories, etc., by various members, followed by supper and a dance. A good size crowd was in attendance, several coming from a party held at the school house that evening.

Saturday evening, Oct. 7th there will be a public dance given jointly by the grange and Woman's club of the community, at the Grange hall at Wimer, for the purpose of raising funds to buy school books for needy children in the Wimer district. There will be a small charge for supper and every one is cordially invited to attend and thereby contribute their bit to this worthy cause.

Bring a few copper pennies as Mrs. Vivian Barto will contribute a painting to be auctioned off at 1 cent per bid, the proceeds to go towards the general fund raised for books, at this year's entertainment. Mrs. Vivian Norman Barto just returned from a two weeks business visit in Roseburg in the interests of the advertising department of the Oregon Grange Bulletin.

DONATIONS NEEDED AT WELFARE EXCHANGE IS WORD FROM MANAGER

Although a host of worthwhile contributions in articles and money have been brought to the Welfare Exchange in the new headquarters in the city hall, there is still a need of donations, Miss Helen Carlton, manager of the Exchange, stated today, voicing her appreciation of the splendid support given this project by the people of the valley.

The generosity of the city of Medford was also commended by Miss Carlton, who stated that the new location of the Exchange is one constantly pervaded with a sunny attitude in keeping with the real sunshine filtering in.

The Exchange is open Wednesdays and Saturdays and the demands upon it are far from small, so any one able to extend donations, is asked to do so.

The first Wednesday in November the sewing room will be opened and 26 women have already applied for work. This feature of the welfare exchange was one that proved unusually satisfactory last year and an equally successful season is anticipated for the coming winter.

MRS. J. W. CRAYS

Widely Known Home Economist and Lecturer

mailed us the following signed statement which we have on file:

MEDFORD, OREGON, OCTOBER 2, 1933.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT I VISITED AND INSPECTED THE PEERLESS MARKET, 14 NORTH BARTLETT STREET, AND FOUND IT VERY SANITARY IN EVERY RESPECT.

THE REFRIGERATORS ARE KEPT IN FINE CONDITION AND THE SHOW CASES ARE CLEAN AND WHITE. THEIR MEAT IS HANDLED CAREFULLY AND AS AN EXTRA PROTECTION TO THE PUBLIC, THE MEAT CUTTERS AND ALL EMPLOYEES IN THE SHOP SUBMIT TO A PHYSICAL EXAMINATION EVERY THREE MONTHS BY A LOCAL PHYSICIAN.

I ALSO LEARNED THAT ALL MEAT IS THOROUGHLY INSPECTED IN THE SLAUGHTER HOUSE AND AT THE ROGUE RIVER PACKING PLANT.

I THEREFORE CONSIDER THE PEERLESS MARKET A SAFE AND CLEAN PLACE TO BUY.

VERY TRULY YOURS,
SIGNED: MRS. J. W. CRAYS.
