TRY ARBITRATION BEFORE STRIKING PLEA TO UNIONS

Wagner Tells Federation Convention That Walkout Should Be Last Resort—Union Card to Rule Buying

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Senator Robert F. Wagner, chairman of the national labor board, today appealed to the American Federation of labor convention to arbitrate first and use strikes "only as the very last resort."

"It is tragic," Wagner told the nearly 600 delegates, "that workers who have endured so patiently during years of unalloyed misfortune should resort so largely to extreme methods after revival has begun, and when further revival depends upon the success of the program for cooperation."

"The strike as a first resort is not prohibited by law; it is banned by common sense."

Makes New Problems.

"The crucial point is that the strike is never more than a protest. It has no constructive force. It creates hundreds of new problems but can not solve a single one."

"Where reconciliation seems impossible, disputes should be taken to the various agencies which the government has set up for the settlement of industrial disputes."

As one of these agencies, he enumerated the national labor board, saying that it "stands before the country with a long record of settlements which have been satisfactory to every interest."

The American Federation of Labor agreed today that its more than 3,000,000 members should patronize only those retail stores that display a union shop card in addition to the blue eagle.

Unanimously, its convention adopted a resolution saying that purchases from such stores would "guarantee fair wages and working conditions."

Many Unorganized. The resolution contended that "there are millions of retail store employees, who are still unorganized and who have no voice in the regulation of their working conditions," but that "the presence of both the

DISABLED VETS MEET TONIGHT TO PLAN SALE OF FORGET-ME-NOTS

Disabled American Veterans will meet in the Armory tonight at 8 o'clock to work out a program on the Forget-Me-Not sale on Armistice day. All disabled veterans of the World War are invited.

Arthur E. Salles, adjutant, has received the following copy of a letter sent by President Roosevelt to National Commander McQueen of the Disabled American Veterans:

"My Dear Commander McQueen: The annual Forget-me-not campaign of the Disabled American Veterans is worthy of generous support."

"There is ample evidence that the use of these contributions in maintaining a free rehabilitation service to disabled men in preparation and presentation of their claims has been helpful to both the veteran and the government."

"May I offer by commendation of the stand of your recent national convention at Cincinnati in deciding not to press immediate redemption of the adjusted service certificates until the condition of the treasury warrants such action? Furthermore, I believe the D. A. V. has acted wisely in concentrating its attention to the cause of those whose disabilities are traceable to their war service."

"It is my earnest hope that your Forget-me-not campaign will be wholly successful."

"Very sincerely yours, 'FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT'."

FEWER AILMENTS WILL BESET MAN IN NEXT CENTURY

Longer Life Free From Such Major Ills As Tuberculosis and Diabetes Is Seen in Future by Medical Expert

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Mr. 2033 won't have so many ailments to worry about if the prediction of Dr. George W. Crile of Cleveland comes true.

Dr. Crile, head of a surgical and medical clinic in the Ohio city, took a peek at the man of the next century yesterday and reported that he would have some causes for rejoicing. Not only would the man of 2033 enjoy longer life, he said, but he would be rid of such devastating diseases as tuberculosis and diabetes. By that time, he predicted, medical science will have conquered these two ailments.

Causes Will Be Known.

By the time 2033 arrives the layman will have been educated to what physicians know now concerning the importance of local infections in the teeth and elsewhere as causes of diseases of the heart, blood vessels and kidneys, and such ailments will be greatly reduced, Dr. Crile said. So will all other infectious diseases.

But on the other side of the picture the doctor foresaw a possible increase in the heart, kidney and other organic ailments that are caused by nervous and mental strain, described by him as the "kinetic drive of environment conditions."

And cancer, he predicted, will still claim many victims, even though the nature of the disease may be eventually disclosed.

Laymen Given Insight.

Dr. Crile was one of several speakers who addressed laymen in their language at meetings arranged at a century of progress by the American college of surgeons, which opens its annual clinical congress yesterday.

Dietitians, hospital recording librarians and anesthetists, are meeting in conjunction with the surgeons.

Dr. Crile said he believed that medical science would do more than guard the health and increase the span of life for the man of the future. A profound effect upon his education and preparation was foreseen by him.
