

Grappling Gridman Coming

George "Wildcat" Wilson

NEW SEATING PLAN FOR MAT MATCHES WEDNESDAY EVENING

Something new in seating arrangements is promised Medford wrestling fans Wednesday evening at the Medford Armory when Pete Belloastro, bellwether Sacramento grappler, meets George Wilson, ex-Washington State college gridman, in the main event on Promoter Mack Lillard's card. Lillard has thrown open the entire ring-side as well as the balcony seats to the public for one price—no reservations will be made.

SLATER JOHNSTON LOOMS AS THREAT IN GOLF TOURNEY

Surprising all the golf experts here and abroad who believed him "all washed up" as far as competitive play is concerned, T. Slater Johnston, the pride of the Antelope, sailed into the quarter finals of the P. T. A. tourney at the Medford club over the week-end by defeating B. H. Williams, five and four. Slater's "cannon ball" tee shot with its TNT recoil, was working perfectly and he lammed them down the fairway for two and three hundred yards, while his Ar-buckle stance in putting was also clicking perfectly. A combination which he admits will be difficult for any rival to beat. Slater, in fact, has solved the game.

LAUNDRY BOWLERS WIN FIRST MATCH IN CITY TOURNEY

The Domestic Laundry and Peerless Meat Market bowling teams inaugurated the City Bowling league schedule on the Natorium alleys last night, the laundrymen annexing two out of three games to gain a flying start in the winter's tourney.

CLINGMAN PINS PARKES TWICE

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Taking two falls out of three, Otis Clingman, 160, of Oklahoma City won the main event on last night's wrestling program here from Herb Parkes, 162, of Vancouver, B. C.

PORTER BREAKS 25 STRAIGHT AT GUN CLUB TRAPS

George Porter passed an important milestone Sunday in his trapshooting career when he broke his first 25 straight at the Medford Gun club traps. George was greatly elated, and justly so, over this accomplishment. His goal now is 100 straight.

ELLSWORTH VINES NOW TENNIS PRO

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Ellsworth Vines finally has taken the plunge into professional tennis. Hard on the heels of the most disastrous season of his comparatively brief career, the 22-year-old Pasadena youngster has signed a one-year contract with Big Bill Tilden on terms Tilden declines to disclose, but which possibly will net Vines about $25,000 for 1934.

Terry Signs New Giants Contract

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Bill Terry, who led the New York Giants to a world baseball championship in his first full year at the helm, today signed a five-year player-manager contract at a substantial increase in salary, reliably reported to call for $40,000 per season.

Trapping Deer—Two local men, H. A. Corlies and J. A. Corneller, were fined $100 each Saturday when they pleaded guilty before Justice E. W. Madison to a charge of unlawfully trapping deer. The men were arrested Saturday by the state game warden. Sentence was suspended on Corneller, but Corlies is held under obligations to pay his—Granite Falls Daily Courier.

Reserve Officers Meet—Announcement was issued this morning by Captain Carl Y. Tengwald that a reserve officers meeting will be held at the Armory tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Major H. J. Tierney of Eugene will be present, and officers are requested to bring their extension school work to the class, or any questions on the work.
