

Local and Personal

Up from Hill—Fred Bayla of Mont Crest ranch at Hill, Cal., was a business visitor here yesterday.

Down from Trail—Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pence of Trail were business callers in Medford yesterday.

Mrs. Watson Leaving—Mrs. Gladys Watson is leaving for the north to accept a position in Portland.

Down from Phoenix—Among ranchers attending to business matters in Medford yesterday was Bert Stanciff of Phoenix.

Puts Up Ball—William Shann, arrested Thursday night by city police on charges of drunkenness, put up $10 bail Saturday.

In Medford Saturday—John D. Holst, forester for the Rogue River national forest, was in Medford Saturday from Camp No. 2, near Butte Falls.

Bothering Client—Carl Bennett of 343 South Grape street informed city police Saturday morning that an attempt was made at 1:15 a. m., Saturday to steal his chickens.

On Scenic Tour—Delroy Getchell, who is making a scenic trip along the Roosevelt highway with friends, is expected to return here tomorrow. They left Medford Friday.

Fowler Conducts Show—R. O. Fowler, county agent, spent yesterday in the Sams Valley district conducting a chicken and garden show, in which 4-H club members are participating.

Mrs. Norman Here—Mrs. Fred Norman of Portland arrived in Medford Saturday morning to join her husband, who is bailiff here for the southern Oregon term of federal court.

Finds Son—Clifton Baker, negro porter on the Shaasta, reported yesterday that his son, Reuben Baker of Berkeley, Calif., who left home some time ago, has been located at New Orleans.

Mrs. Harris Here—Mrs. L. D. Harris of Red Bluff, Cal., is visiting in Medford this week and will be accompanied on her return south by Mrs. Leona Whitman and her young grandson.

On Vacations—Otto DeJarnett and William Casey, clerks at the local post office, are on their vacations. At this time, as are R. E. Swan and Earl Scripser, carriers. Scripser is in the central Oregon country deer hunting.

To Get Instruments—Palmer Music and Electric store will receive a shipment of new and used band instruments from San Francisco next Tuesday, according to an announcement made by C. H. Isaac. This shipment will meet the demand for instruments for band students in the schools of this city.

To Conduct Shop—Mrs. Violet Daley has announced that she will maintain the Daley haberdashery located in the Allen hotel, and plans to be at the shop each day to take charge of the business matters. W. L. Derrick and H. Schermelhorn are employed in the shop at the present time, Mrs. Daley stated.

To Leave Town—Eugene O'Halloran, 48, arrested at a local confectionery about 6:30 o'clock Friday evening, on charges of being drunk in a public place, was sentenced to ten days in the city jail, or leave town immediately. He was taken before Judge A. D. Curry Saturday morning. O'Halloran said he would leave town. He had a bottle of hay rum, and two padlocks in his pockets at the time he was arrested.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLANS SERIES OF PLAYS FOR ASSEMBLIES AT HIGH

Dramatic work for the ensuing year at the Medford high school is now underway.

Mrs. Glenna Mae Early, advisor for the Dramatic club, has already sent to Sussex, England, for a play they may give for the Christmas program of this year.

A series of four plays are also to be given this year for pay assemblies. These will be under the direction of Ralph Bailey, but members of the Dramatic club are the probable choice for the various roles of these plays. The yearly Senior play is also under the direction of Mr. Bailey. Last year all but two of the roles of the Senior play were filled by members of the Dramatic club. This is not a requirement of the Senior play.

The Dramatic club is presided over by Dolph James as president, Marguerite Boyle, secretary-treasurer; Bob Sherwood, property manager, and Harold Grove, stage manager.

Nineteen of last year's thirty-four members were graduated last June, now leaving fifteen members, which all but one of these is to be graduated this June. Only one Sophomore was taken in last year, Mildred Drury.

Tryouts for new members are to be held in about two weeks. In charge of the try-out program is Mildred Drury. Betty Thorndyke has charge of the committee for newcomers. Those petitioning for membership are: Mary Powell, Katharine Ford, Carolyn Jane Hill, Glenna Minear, Mildred Buckles, Betty Purdin, Dorothy Buchter, Phoebe Dean, Jane Israel, Coral Burton, Rosemary Babel, Mary Cummings, Doreen Elwood, Margaret Younger.

Pauline Champlin, Lois Kimball, Barbara Holt, Ruth Petch, Hattie Baugh, Aileen Latham, John Koppen, Hazel Cowan, Thelma Fowler, Constance Corman, Phyllis Fulton, Constance Moore, Betty Vilm, Eljen Beitz, Ed Vallier, Frank Pull, Amy Elliot, Virginia Lindley, Wanda Wyant, and Patricia Young.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Friend of route 2, a daughter, weighing 7 pounds, at the Sacred Heart hospital Saturday, October 14.

FELON CELLS FOR TWO NABBED HERE

Captain Lee M. Bown received word from The Dalles that the grand jury had indicted Sidney Joseph, 52, and John W. O'Malley, alias George Doyle, 47, on charges of burglary not in a dwelling and that the two had been sentenced. O'Malley was given 2 1/2 years in the Oregon state penitentiary, and Joseph five years, upon plea of guilty.

The two were arrested here a few weeks ago, as were Mrs. Ruby Joseph and her 17-year old son Richard Hamilton, all charged with the same offense. No disposition has been made of their cases. Captain Bown said. Both Joseph and O'Malley are escapees from the Texas penitentiary.
