Norman Foster and Marian Nixon are two lovers in "Pilgrimage," whose romance is shattered by a misunderstanding neither of them could avoid. The picture has been widely

"The Bowery" on Craterian Bill

"The Bowery," a lusty story of the nineties, plays at the Craterian theatre for three days, starting today. Little Jackie Cooper and Wallace Beery are re-united for the first time since their memorable "The Champ." George Raft is also featured along with Fay Wray and Pert Kelton. "The Bowery" has Beery as the tough Cuck Conners, saloon keeper and boss of the Bowery, whose heart is as big as his bulk; Raft is Steve Brodie, who made Brooklyn Bridge famous. Little Jackie has the role of Swipes. There's John L. Sullivan and the famous Carrie Nation. There are rival Connors-Brodie volunteer fire brigades that battle with brickbats, brass-knucks, and black-jacks as the fire burns merrily. And there's Brodie's famous jump.

UNTIL TUESDAY NIGHT

The Roaring Nineties!

Ah, the Good Old Days! When the Ladies Stepped Up to the Bar . . . . . With an Axe!

Chuck Connors! Bowery big shot! Swaggering swell! Swipes, the newsboy, wise in the ways of men before his time! Steve Brodie, the guy who took a chance! Lucy, flower of Five Points! All thrown together in a great picture of a great day! . . . A roaring panorama of the days "When You and I Were Young, Maggie"!

No Raise in Prices

Talk about your modern gangsters! Say, those little Lord Fauntleroy's would have violets pinned on them by the boys who gathered at "Five Points" on the Bowery.

The BOWERY
FAY WRAY PERT KELTON

See Pert Kelton, the '98 saloon soubrette and her ham-hipped-balloon-busted bunch of chorines, contaminating the souls of the Bowery blades with their hot-cha "Can-Can" Dance! . . . The days of nickel beer, singing waiters, knock 'em down and drag 'em out dance halls, and the tenderloin district that echoed to "See what the boys in the back room'll have"—You'll love it!

Chevalier Coming

Maurice Chevalier is coming to the Holly next Saturday, October 21st. In a premier showing of his very latest comedy hit, "The Way to Love," Claudette Colbert in "The Torch Singer," is now the Holly's attraction.

ADDISON DAVID HELMS OF KLAMATH JUNCTION IS CALLED BY DEATH

ASHLAND, Oct. 14.—(Sp.)—Addison David Helms, well-known member of one of Ashland's pioneer families, died Friday at his home at the Klamath Junction after a long illness.

Addison David Helms was born at Denver, Colo., May 12, 1863, but had lived in or near Ashland for the last 40 years.

Mr. Helms had long been a respected member of the community in which he lived, and will be mourned by many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms were married in 1886, and had since that time lived in Ashland and at their Klamath Junction home, spending 35 years at the latter place. During the last five years they had lived in California throughout the winter.

He leaves to mourn his death his widow and one son, Addison David Helms, Jr., of Ashland. Another son, Donald, died in 1913.

Mr. Helms was a regular attendant at the Christian church and was a member of the Woodmen of the World.

Funeral services will be announced later. Interment is to be at Gold Hill.

"HOT PEPPER" ON ROXY SCREEN TODAY

Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen, famous for their roles of Quirt and Flagg, portray these characters in "Hot Pepper," depicting their adventures as Broadway Beau Brummels and owners of rival night clubs where they fight over women amid scenes of gay revelry. "Hot Pepper" opens at the Roxy today. Lupe Velez enacts the leading feminine role and El Brendel plays a comedy part.

LIONEL BARRYMORE IN STUDIO DRAMA

"Sweepings," a composite fictionalized history of the founders of fortunes and their frivolous offspring, opens at the Studio theater today with Lionel Barrymore in the title role.

He gives one of his greatest characterizations, it is said, as the founder of a fortune whose tottering old age is blasted and made miserable by the scapegrace escapades of his children.

Dr. C. H. Paake will resume his practice of Dentistry at 319 Liberty Bldg., beginning Oct. 16. Phone 533.
