SCHEFFEL LEAVES ON FUND MISSION

City Superintendent Fred Scheffel left Medford last night for Portland to confer with Engineer C. C. Hockley regarding Medford's application for federal funds for installation of the proposed new sewage plant here.

Medford's application left here some time ago for approval of the state engineer and request for its continuance to Washington, D. C., was approved by the city council in regular meeting.

Frankie McBride, well-known radio entertainer in the east, is one of the featured members of Jess Stafford's entertainers who are coming to Medford this evening to present a half hour musical act preceding the dance at the Oriental Gardens, starting at 9 o'clock.

Stafford, head of the band and entertainers, was the featured trombonist in the late Herb Wiedoff's dance band, and following the leader's death, Stafford took up the leadership and has built up a large unit of star players.

He has done motion picture work with Buddy Rogers, and has played many months at the Palace hotel, broadcast over station KPO, and has recorded for Brunswick as well.

Stafford will be welcomed to Medford by Mayor E. M. Wilson.

Why Get Up Nights? Drink lots of water and milk. Not much tea or coffee. Eat plenty of fruit and non-starchy vegetables. Not much meat and starches. Use a bladder laxative to drive out the impurities and excess acids which cause the irritation that wakes you up.

Chevalier In Holly Premier

The premier showing of "The Way To Love," with Maurice Chevalier as Francois, happy-go-lucky poet, philosopher and advertising sandwich man of the sidewalks, whose greatest ambition is to be a guide and who lives to make others happy, opens at the Holly theater Saturday.

Advance reports say this picture, which will not be released from the studio until Friday, the day before it opens in Medford, is very much different from the usual Chevalier film. There is a continual flow of laugh provoking incidents against a background of music and romance.

The cast includes Ann Dvorak, Edward Everett Horton, Arthur Plerson, Minna Gombell and John Miljan. Gary Cooper, in real life a shy, retiring type, plays the part of a hat-twisting, small-town sheik and dentist in "One Sunday Afternoon," now playing at the Holly. However his beautiful love-making is interspersed with several free-for-all scraps, a wrestling match and other highly comic moments.

In Frances Fuller, recently recruited from the New York stage, Paramount has a combination of Helen Hayes and Janet Gaynor. Small, sparkling, intensely dramatic, Miss Fuller has all the attributes of a new screen find.
