

ROOSEVELT PUPILS WILL HAVE FROLIC NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

The pupils of the Roosevelt school, under the direction of their teachers, are working hard to perfect the following program, which will be one of the leading features to be presented at the "Annual Halloween Frolic" of the school on Friday evening of this week, October 27.

- Halloween Frolic Program. Two performances, 7:30 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. 1. Playlet—"The Wraith Witch." Characters: Betty Pierce, Lois Fringle, Maxine Pierce, Nancy Heath, Ruth Nordwick, Carroll Carlin, Ruth Siorah, Richard Schuchard, Coleen Stephenson, Jack Gray, Donna Stevens. 2. Acrobatic Stunts—Sally Lee Russell and Joan Buchter. 3. Original play, "Spirits of Halloween." Reginald Fifer. Rastus Geraldine Bunch. Mirandy Phillip Gates. Sambo Fairies: Jeanette House, Kathryn Young, June Jarmin, Betty Frye, Dixie Davis, Mary Linkart, Mary Lou Lytle, Carol Banish. Brownies: Larry Wilson, Leigh Eden, Billy Darby. Skeletons: Bruce McKay, Jack Nosler, Bobbie Burton, Steve Dippe, Kenneth Lawrence. Ghosts: Helena Smith. 4. Interpretive Dancing—Janet Reter. 5. Playlet—"Have You Heard the News?" Characters: Gloria Williams, Anita Davis, Jean Jennings, Frances Jones, Mary Beth Bradfish, Mary Elizabeth Shreve, Nancy Wall, Shirley Weisenberger. 6. Hawaiian Memories. Characters: Jerry Vawter, Donna Stevens, Reed Cox, Richard Schuchard, Phillip Robinson, Virginia Stinson, Alfred Dodson, Bobby Lee, Jimmy Kuehne, Hugh Williams, Robert Hanlin, Jack Littrell, Patricia Dippel, Barbara Boyden, Jean Phyllian, Barbara Kendrick, Peggy Dean, Bethel Morbach, Mary Lee Strang, Wamnette Rosenberg, and Charles Boyden. Boys' fish pond! Girls' fish pond! Candy! Good eats! Proceeds to be used to buy milk for the underweight children. All friends and parents of the Roosevelt school are cordially invited to attend the gala occasion, which has increased in attendance and popularity from year to year.

SHRINE TO STAGE RITES IN DESERT

One of the most novel and unique Shrine ceremonies ever held in the "Old West" is planned by Kerak Temple, of Reno, and will be carried out at Las Vegas and Boulder City, Nevada, in the heart of the desert country.

This region, where the stupendous work of rearing Boulder Dam is under way, is one of the last of America's "Wild West" frontiers.

On October 28th a large class will be initiated Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in the presence of many of the outstanding Masonic characters of the West.

On the 29th, under the guidance of Frank T. Crowe of Six Companies, the visitors will be conducted intimately through the workings of Boulder Dam.

Hundreds of Shriners are joining the caravans making the journey to Las Vegas, Boulder City and Boulder Dam for the novel entertainment which will be provided. Paved highways lead to this "Mecca" from all directions and there are ample hotel accommodations for all.

A most cordial invitation is extended to all nobles of the Mystic Shrine to attend this "dawn ceremonial."

RETAIL MEAT DEALERS MEET EUGENE SUNDAY

A meeting of the Oregon Retail Meat Dealers' association will be held in Eugene next Sunday, October 29, it was announced here today by E. G. Harlan, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The meeting starts at noon and Mr. Harlan is very anxious that representatives from Southern Oregon attend. Anyone interested is asked to get in touch with the chamber of commerce.

SALEM, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Reduction of a three-year charge to petty larceny brought a plea of guilty from William Gates, 54, Portland, and a 90-day jail sentence was imposed in justice court here yesterday. It was alleged that Gates stole a suitcase from a transient.

Now All My Pimples Are Gone writes one woman. "I suffered from pimples and blackheads for one year, all the time hating to go to parties or dances, my skin looked so bad. I tried various treatments without success, but the first time I used Resinol Soap and Ointment, I noticed an improvement. Now all my pimples are gone."

Resinol advertisement with image of a woman's face and product packaging.

Society and Clubs Edited by Eva Nealon Hamilton

F. L. Clubs Hold Convention Here

The eleventh semi-annual convention of the F. L. clubs of Oregon was held Saturday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall in Medford with Medford acting as hostess club.

At 5:30 o'clock a banquet was served in the dining room by the Past Noble Grand's club and the Rebekah lodge. The room and tables were very attractive in Halloween and autumn decorations.

After the banquet many members of the visiting clubs and of Medford club went through the new F. L. club's bakery.

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 o'clock by Linnie Leach, state president of the F. L. clubs of Oregon, and roll call was answered by 42 members.

During the business session officers for the ensuing six months were elected, with installation ceremony by the Medford club.

The following program was put on during the evening by the local F. L. club:

Piano Solo—Georgiana Husung. Vocal Solo—Lucille Cave. "In an Old Fashioned Garden," accompanied by Georgiana Husung on the piano.

Play—"The Triangle," by Edna Hilbrandt, Besse Thompson and Marlan Mellin.

Vocal Solo—Lucille Cave, "Oregon," accompanied by Georgiana Husung on the piano.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club convention will be held in April, 1934, at Junction City, Oregon.

Special Music at Presbyterian Church

The first musical service of the fall season will be held at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, director of music, announced yesterday.

The program to usher in the new season will include several guest soloists, among them Miss Grace Burnett, who sang in recital here Monday evening to be well received by local critics; Mrs. F. E. Nandie and A. J. McDonough, who need no introduction.

The members of the church choir and the regular soloists will complete the cast.

Mrs. D. S. Libbey, now organist at the church, will play the accompaniments and other compositions.

An invitation is extended all persons who enjoy an evening of sacred music. A free will offering will be taken.

Shriners Make Plans For Annual Ladies' Night

An Ashland committee of Shriners, headed by W. H. McNair, is arranging plans for Ladies' Night, which will be observed at the Masonic temple in Ashland Friday evening.

A Halloween party will be staged at that time with covered dish supper at 7 o'clock. The Ashland women are asked to bring hot dishes, while the women from out of town will supply cakes and salads.

An interesting program is promised by the Ashland committee and card playing and dancing will be enjoyed from 9:30 to midnight.

All members of Hillah temple and their wives and guests are invited. An invitation is also extended visiting Shriners, the Shrine fee constituting the card of admission for the occasion.

Willamette Alumni Group Enjoys Dinner

Miss Emily Brown was hostess Monday evening to members of the local Willamette university alumni group at dinner and a jolly party at her home.

Dinner was served in a colorful Halloween setting, realism of which was emphasized by arrival of the witch, none other than Mrs. W. G. Crool, who distributed gifts, bearing good-luck charms to the guests.

Present were: Mrs. Dale Ginn, Mrs. Arda Turner, Miss Helen Stiles of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nee of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Don Faber, Miss Beatrice Lockhart, Miss Irene Clark of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Denman, Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, Miss Pauline Findley, Mr. and Mrs. Dorell Huson, Miss Ruth Clement, Mr. Frank Van Dyke and the hostess, Miss Emily Brown.

Mrs. Yonce Charming Hostess Tuesday

Mrs. V. W. Yonce of North Peach street entertained yesterday at a lovely party, using autumn leaves and flowers about the rooms to add a gay setting for bridge games. Contract bridge was played with high scores held by Mrs. W. P. Stewart and Mrs. D. W. Stone.

Following games refreshments were served by the hostess.

Lincoln Reception Large Friday Affair

At the reception held Friday evening at the Lincoln school honoring Mrs. Ethel Florey, president of the service club, ten were present for the dinner. The tables were attractively decorated in pink d'ishes, flowers and candles.

Place cards were cleverly concealed names of flowers which the guests were to be known as during the evening. Those who failed to adhere to the rule were fined.

A comic presentation of "Maggie and Jiggs" was given under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Adler and Mrs. Blaine Shirley.

At eight o'clock a reception was held, and a good attendance was reported.

Included in the numbers on the program were two saxophone duets by Audrey Scovell and Winifred Wilder, accompanied by Gayle Buchanan. Miss Marguerite Luman entertained with a vocal solo, and Master Harrell Wilson of Ashland played a violin solo.

An interesting talk concerning the school curriculum was given by City School Superintendent E. H. Hedrick, and Miss Ora Cox, school principal, also talked briefly.

Punch and wafers were served at the close of the meeting.

Hard Times Party Planned, Howard School

A hard times party and Halloween pound social will be held at the Howard school Friday evening, October 27, it was announced yesterday by the Parent-Teacher association. The entertainment will open at 7:30 o'clock.

WOOD DEALERS TO STAY IN ONE SPOT

The wood dealers' situation here, which has been a problem to the public as well as the dealers, for a long time, was improved last night, when the dealers met at the chamber of commerce and approved the proposal of the Medford city council for use of the lot on Front and Third streets, across from the fire hall.

The dealers, now stationed along the street, will move to that lot and will establish an office and official market headquarters there.

A dealers' association is being formed and the public will be welcomed into the public wood market to be established. Prices will be set and agreed upon by the association. No more wood trucks, as a result, will be stationed on the streets of the city.

ROYAL SCOT IN ROSE CITY TODAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Maintaining a schedule from San Francisco almost as precise as on its famed "home" run of 401 miles between London and Glasgow and Edinburgh, the "Royal Scot," London Midland & Scottish railway's famous train also moved into the Union station here today.

William Gilbertson, veteran "driver" was at the throttle. City and state officials welcomed the Scot's official party, and hundreds of citizens greeted the train's arrival.

Tonight the train will leave for Seattle. After a day in that city it will move on to Vancouver, B. C., and east over the Canadian lines to Montreal, there to be loaded aboard ship for London.

TELEPHONE REUNITES BROTHER AND SISTER

SAN JOSE, Calif., Oct. 25.—(UP)—Harry Urmy was idly thumbing a telephone directory in Berkeley when he saw the name of Edythe Urmy. "I wonder," mused Urmy.

He dialed the number and when a woman answered he said: "My father was Samuel M. Urmy." "So was mine," answered Miss Urmy. Brother and sister arranged a reunion—after 25 years of separation.

BIRTHS

Announcement of the arrival of a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burns of Santa Monica, Cal., has been received by friends in Medford. Mrs. Burns was formerly Jean Loomis.

Alpha Delta Class To Be Entertained

The Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. T. Davis, 1112 East Main street, Thursday afternoon, October 26.

A large attendance is desired, as Pollyanna names will be drawn at the meeting and a pleasant social session is promised by the committee.

Local O. E. S. Officers Visit Central Point

The Central Point chapter of Eastern Star celebrated the 25th anniversary of the lodge's organization there last night and several chapters of the valley were represented at the social evening.

Going from Medford were Mrs. E. M. Wilson, worthy matron of Reames chapter, and her officers.

Building Bridge Club Meets, Lewis Home

Mrs. R. L. Lewis will be hostess tomorrow at her home on Catherine street to members of the Building Bridge club for their regular weekly gathering. She will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Lee Hunter.

Golden Links Class Plans Holiday Party

The Golden Links class of the First Baptist church will hold a Halloween party Friday, October 27, in the recreation hall of the church. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Dinner Tonight at St. Mary's Academy

The Sisters of St. Mary's Academy are entertaining tonight with a chicken dinner at the academy at 6 o'clock to which the public is invited. The dinner will be followed by a motion picture program at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock by the installation

MEDFORD STUDENTS AT ASHLAND NORMAL HAVE BIG PART IN ACTIVITY

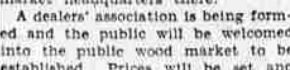

ASHLAND, Oct. 25.—(Sp.)—Graduates of Medford high school are taking active part in the student life of Southern Oregon Normal School. Durward Gass was recently chosen president of the Associated Men students and of the Jackson county club; Catherine Chaney is vice-president of the Jackson county club and reporter on the Siskiyou; Aileen Guy is secretary of the Girls' Glee club; Bill Lyman is vice-president of the Men's Glee club; Ed Bullock is pep promoter in the form of yell leader; Miss Jean Fabrick is a clever columnist on the Siskiyou staff, Journal of the Normal; Miss Florence Dannels is likewise a correspondent on the Siskiyou staff; Mary Chambers is vice-president of the Women's league; Ruth Ottoman is treasurer of the Jackson county club; Kenneth Barneburg and Durward Gass have been honored by membership in Theta Delta Phi, men's scholastic fraternity.

Rites For Hart Are Held Today

Funeral services for Walter V. Hart of Table Rock, who died at a local hospital Monday were held this afternoon at two o'clock from the Conger funeral parlors, instead of Thursday, as announced in yesterday's paper. Reverend Holmes of Ashland was in charge of the service, and interment was made in the Siskiyou Memorial park.

This Vassarrette Girdle Knows its Place . . . . . AND STAYS THERE!

NEVER an uneasy moment in this conscientious new Vassarrette Girdle! Put it on the way you want it . . . and it will be there after a day at the office, an afternoon at the bridge table, or an evening of dancing. Soft and absorbent next to your skin . . . and so silky smooth outside that your dresses simply glide on. It's nothing to launder.

Adrienne's

WOOD DEALERS TO STAY IN ONE SPOT

The wood dealers' situation here, which has been a problem to the public as well as the dealers, for a long time, was improved last night, when the dealers met at the chamber of commerce and approved the proposal of the Medford city council for use of the lot on Front and Third streets, across from the fire hall.

The dealers, now stationed along the street, will move to that lot and will establish an office and official market headquarters there.

A dealers' association is being formed and the public will be welcomed into the public wood market to be established. Prices will be set and agreed upon by the association. No more wood trucks, as a result, will be stationed on the streets of the city.

ROYAL SCOT IN ROSE CITY TODAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Maintaining a schedule from San Francisco almost as precise as on its famed "home" run of 401 miles between London and Glasgow and Edinburgh, the "Royal Scot," London Midland & Scottish railway's famous train also moved into the Union station here today.

William Gilbertson, veteran "driver" was at the throttle. City and state officials welcomed the Scot's official party, and hundreds of citizens greeted the train's arrival.

Tonight the train will leave for Seattle. After a day in that city it will move on to Vancouver, B. C., and east over the Canadian lines to Montreal, there to be loaded aboard ship for London.

TELEPHONE REUNITES BROTHER AND SISTER

SAN JOSE, Calif., Oct. 25.—(UP)—Harry Urmy was idly thumbing a telephone directory in Berkeley when he saw the name of Edythe Urmy. "I wonder," mused Urmy.

He dialed the number and when a woman answered he said: "My father was Samuel M. Urmy." "So was mine," answered Miss Urmy. Brother and sister arranged a reunion—after 25 years of separation.

BIRTHS

Announcement of the arrival of a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burns of Santa Monica, Cal., has been received by friends in Medford. Mrs. Burns was formerly Jean Loomis.

Alpha Delta Class To Be Entertained

The Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. T. Davis, 1112 East Main street, Thursday afternoon, October 26.

A large attendance is desired, as Pollyanna names will be drawn at the meeting and a pleasant social session is promised by the committee.

Local O. E. S. Officers Visit Central Point

The Central Point chapter of Eastern Star celebrated the 25th anniversary of the lodge's organization there last night and several chapters of the valley were represented at the social evening.

Going from Medford were Mrs. E. M. Wilson, worthy matron of Reames chapter, and her officers.

Building Bridge Club Meets, Lewis Home

Mrs. R. L. Lewis will be hostess tomorrow at her home on Catherine street to members of the Building Bridge club for their regular weekly gathering. She will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Lee Hunter.

Golden Links Class Plans Holiday Party

The Golden Links class of the First Baptist church will hold a Halloween party Friday, October 27, in the recreation hall of the church. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Dinner Tonight at St. Mary's Academy

The Sisters of St. Mary's Academy are entertaining tonight with a chicken dinner at the academy at 6 o'clock to which the public is invited. The dinner will be followed by a motion picture program at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock by the installation

Men! Don't Fumble This One The LAST Quarter!

MEN, we're in the LAST QUARTER. Only November and December stand between us and the GOAL POSTS in this game against Inventory. Profit has been THROWN FOR A LOSS, but Sales makes CONSISTENT GAINS. We studied the LINE-UP of Penney's Footwear and found that Men's Shoes and Oxfords were moving too slowly. Sturdily built and rugged but just didn't move fast enough to suit us. We went into a HUDDLE and decided to take the PENALTY. We had no SUBSTITUTE for Leather, but figured that good old Value and Low Price could SCORE. So if it takes your LAST HALF, you will never make YARDAGE against Saving money like right now. This is one of the biggest shoe events we have ever TACKLED and TWO BUCKS puts us over. The KICK-OFF is at 8:30 in the morning and continues until the last BOOT is gone. We can get no more REPLACEMENTS. These are all FIRST STRING numbers.

Yes Sir, Men! One Huge Group of Men's SHOES and OXFORDS and we seriously urge you to visit PENNEY'S SHOE DEPARTMENT for real savings. Not all sizes, but all remarkable values. $2.00 Hurry.

J. C. PENNEY CO.

Attend the football benefit show at the Hunt's Craterian theater TONIGHT

Advertisement for Camel cigarettes featuring a man with a headache and a woman on a phone. Text: "Do jangled nerves make you say things you'll regret? How many times in the course of a week do you snap at someone? If you check very carefully you will probably find that it happens more times than you realize. For one of the dangers of jangled nerves is that the victim so seldom knows about his own condition. It not only hurts others—but himself as well." Includes a diagram for a nerve test.

HOME OWNERS LOAN CORP. BONDS MEDFORD IRRIGATION BONDS TALENT IRRIGATION BONDS CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER PREFERRED STOCK JACKSON COUNTY BLDG. & LOAN STOCK Bought—Sold—Quoted M. N. HOGAN & CO. Investment Securities 201 East Main. Phone 1151

The Store of Happy Wedding Rings White Rose Wedding Rings Radiant as Diamonds Larry Schade

Do jangled nerves make you say things you'll regret? The more alert you are, the more high-strung and alive, the greater danger there is of jangled nerves. Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves. COSTLIER TOBACCOS Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes! CAMELS—THEY NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!