

Local and Personal

In Yreka Today — Mrs. Adrienne Steward of this city is spending today in Yreka, attending to business matters at her store in that city.

Miss Fairbanks Visitor — Miss Ruby Fairbanks of Yreka, Cal., was a business visitor in Medford Wednesday. Miss Fairbanks formerly resided in this city.

From Grants Pass — Miss Mary Burkhardt, who is employed at the Cindarella shop in Grants Pass, was in Medford calling on friends yesterday.

Copco Man in Grants Pass — J. D. Ross of the Copco office at Medford was a business visitor in Grants Pass Wednesday. Ross is connected with the accounting department.

Mrs. Kendall Better — Mrs. Gerald Kendall of 414 Jackson street was reported recovering yesterday from an operation recently undergone at the Sacred Heart hospital.

Hewitt Arrested — Earl H. Hewitt was arrested at Roseburg yesterday on charges of stealing a saw outfit from Joe Croft. According to Croft's complaint, Hewitt was assisting him in sawing wood. Croft went into Klamath Falls a few days ago for supplies, he said, and upon his return to camp, the saw and all the cutting equipment were gone.

Returns from East — Mrs. Royal Bebb and young son Ward returned here today in the Shasta from an extended stay in New York, where Mrs. Bebb has been studying music and visiting friends.

To Return Here — Officers will return T. C. Vest to Medford from McMinnville, where he was arrested on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses. His bond has been set at $500.

Sale Opens Friday — The rummage sale of chapter AA, P. E. O., will open tomorrow in the shop on West Main next to the Golden Rule store. The committees arranging the affair have been very busy for the past week and promise a fine showing of cooking utensils and clothing.

To Have Baby Show — A baby show, to include children under six whose fathers or mothers attended Albany college, will be a feature of the annual Albany college homecoming program, Saturday, October 28, it has been announced. The show will be held in Hauser gymnasium, immediately following the free campus luncheon for visitors and alumni. A program is to feature Dr. Wallace Howe Lee, who joined the faculty in 1886, a football game with Pacific university, and the annual alumni banquet in Woodward hall. Alumni, former students and friends are included in the homecoming invitation.

Schnozzle Coming

Alice Brady, Jackie Cooper, Jimmy Durante, Frank Morgan, Fay Templeton, Madge Evans—brilliant names of Broadway and Hollywood—are on parade at the Craterian theatre, where "Broadway to Hollywood," spectacular cavalcade of the theatre, is now showing.

The great pageant of the stage, mingling poignant drama with sizzling pageantry, tells the story of three generations of troupers; the rise of vaudeville and the ultimate decline of vaudeville in favor of the motion picture.

In this intensely human drama of the loves and joys, the triumphs and heartbreaks of a vaudeville family whose career is traced over a period of fifty years, a touching narrative is interwoven with colorful spectacle as the audience from time to time sees what is going on upon the stage as well as behind the scenes.

Fay Templeton sings, Barney Fagan dances as of yore. There are gorgeous Albertina Rasch ballets. The dramatic climax shows five hundred dancers in the largest talking-picture set ever built.

Cecil and Sally, Radio's favorite youngsters, come to life on the stage of the Craterian Theatre Sunday with the personal appearance of these two internationally famous stars, who come to Medford with their entire company to present their hilarious two-act sketch which is patterned after their radio broadcasts "The Funniest Things."

Besides Cecil and Sally, the following air-famed characters will also be seen and heard, like characters stepping out of a book: Aunt Bess, Uncle Thomas, Widow Mason, Dr. Morgan, Mr. Gillwater, John Fee and others. W. C. Fields and Alison Skipworth are co-starred in the screen's contribution to hilarity, "Tillie and Gus." Little Baby LeRoy is also in the cast as a featured performer.
