

GIVE BUT ONCE, GIVE FOR ALL, IS CHEST'S SLOGAN

"Give but once, give for all," is the slogan of this year's Community Chest drive, announced today by the Allied Welfare Association...

Definite plans for the drive, which will open November 7 for a three-day campaign, were outlined to members of the association in an appeal...

The President of the United States has asked for this community cooperation, Mr. Hill declared, emphasizing the privilege to be extended 80 workers in making a canvass of the city...

The work of the various committees was outlined by the speaker to the most minute detail, showing that there would be no cause this year for duplication or interference.

"In our hearts we know we have the proper objective," Mr. Hill declared. "It will take the actual work of personal contacts to accomplish it."

Workers will have a certain territory to cover and when that has been covered, the general chairman assured all present, they will be asked to do no more.

A definite check will be made on each division, so that headquarters will be constantly informed of the progress of the drive.

The drive will be preceded by a luncheon at the Hotel Medford Monday, November 6, which will constitute the first gathering of the workers.

The sum of $9,000, which the general committee has decided upon as a goal for this year's drive, is to be divided in this manner: Red Cross, $1,500; Salvation Army, $1,500; Boy Scouts, $1,500; Girl Scouts, $500; Y. W. C. A., $300; Jackson County Public Health Association, $1,200; and Welfare Exchange, $250.

Community Chest posters, reading "We Have Done Our Part," will be given all persons who subscribe to the chest, so that the windows of the homes will express the cooperation of Medford and surrounding area.

The speaker was introduced at the luncheon by Eugene Thorndike of the general committee.

Report of nominations in the Welfare Association, expected today, was not given, due to the absence of the president, J. C. Mann.

Glenn Clark, who last Tuesday shot and wounded his hunting companion, Homer C. Gillette, in mistake for a deer, in the Cascade Gorge country, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, on charges of hunting without a license.

Both Clark and Gillette are residents of Alva, Okla., and were visiting kin at Cascade Gorge en route home from a visit to the Chicago fair.

Gillette's condition was improved today by Dr. W. A. Bishop, attending physician. There are no signs of the feared infection. The bullet struck Gillette in the chest wall and was deflected downward, "skimming the ribs," Clark, in his version, said he shot after watching a movement in the brush for several minutes, which he took to be a deer. The pair became separated during the hunt.

The accident was the only one reported in Jackson county during the deer season just closed.

Central Point P-T. A. Starts Enrollment Drive

The annual drive for enrollment in the Central Point Parent-Teacher Association started yesterday and the following appeal was made by the leaders of the drive:

"Never before in the history of America has the child's responsibility to the community so seriously challenged. Let us pledge ourselves to an earnest endeavor to awaken the citizens of this country to the dangers that threaten our children through a lack of community responsibility for the welfare of American childhood."

"The Parent-Teacher Association is striving with all its power to keep for the child those facilities for education and development which are his rights as an American citizen. Its objects are: to promote child welfare in the home, school, church and community; to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children. To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that the parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child; and to develop between educators and the general public such united effort as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, moral and spiritual education. Every parent is urged to enroll in the local parent-teacher unit, and to help stand by our children during this crisis in our educational system."

Various social groups of the neighborhood town will give their time to the drive this year, as they have in other cities of the state, where people have come to realize the seriousness of the threatened retrenchment in education.
