Elks' Dance Heads
Hallowe'en Calendar
Leading in interest with many groups in the round of Hallowe'en festivities, is the dance to be given by the Elks tomorrow night at the temple, opening officially the winter dance season.

Elaborate preparations for the affair are nearing completion today and a large crowd is expected. Music will be played by Reginald Pifer's orchestra and a holiday atmosphere will prevail throughout decorations and features.

The committee for the dance is headed by Bob Strang, who will be assisted by Stanley Sherwood and Grover Corum.

Miss Gregory, Hostess at Hallowe'en Party
Miss Lyle Gregory was hostess last Friday to the Senior Young People's class of the Christian church at a Hallowe'en party at her home near Central point, and was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Frank Perl, and Mrs. Mary Coker.

Guests, arriving at the Gregory home, were greeted by ghosts peering from a bulwark of cornstalks, barricading the door. They were instructed to use the windows for entrance and found still more ghosts haunting their paths, just inside the silk. Owls, bats and witches added to the spookiness of the scene, in which fortunes were told and guessing games introduced for entertainment of the guests, preceding the serving of refreshments appropriate to the holiday season.

Present were: Mrs. Lois Young, Mrs. Carl Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Powell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vincent and son, Bobby, Mrs. Roy Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. George Marine, Mrs. Marion Adams, Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson, Miss Lottie Franklin, Miss Eula Benson and the hostess.

Miss Ruhl on Vassar
Welfare Drive Committee
Students as well as townspeople these days are giving their thoughts to philanthropies, as the season for Community Chest and other welfare drives arrives. And Medford is represented as far east as Poughkeepsie, N. Y., according to the following announcement from Vassar college:

"The Students' Association of Vassar college are this week conducting a drive for the purpose of raising $7,000 for seven organizations in their budget. These include the Poughkeepsie Unemployment Relief fund, a foreign scholarship for Vassar, Tokyo college in Japan, and Penn Normal school in South Carolina. Herbert E. Mills, Professor Emeritus of economics opened the drive in the college chapel Monday morning. The chairman of the drive is Ruth Queen of Ithaca and Roxane Ruhl of Medford is a member of the committee."

Miss Kabele Honored at Birthday Party
Tuesday evening the members and friends of Zion Lutheran church gathered at the church parlors to honor Mrs. Geo. P. Kabele at a birthday dinner. The large birthday cake was cut by the honor guest and a number of hymns were sung. Roy Wolf entertained with a violin solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sherrod.

The Ladies' Aid of the church met Thursday afternoon and made plans for the cafeteria dinner and bazaar, which will be held in the church parlors Armistide day. The dinner is an annual event with the Lutheran women and one anticipated each year by the public. Many hand made articles, suitable for Christmas gifts, will be on sale at the bazaar."

Miss Kendall, Guest of Miss DeLoah Here
Miss Mildred Kendall of Salt Lake City is house guest here of Miss Joan DeLoah and was among guests at the dinner party given over the week end by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phetteplace at Waconoma Inn. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schoenfeld of San Francisco, with whom Miss Kendall motored to the Rogue River valley on this, her first trip to southern Oregon.

Mr. Schoenfeld is representative of the Clayburg Bros. of San Francisco.

Westminster Forum Plans New Program
