Pomona Grange

(By Gertrude Haak)

Pomona Grange met Saturday in an all-day meeting at Talent, with good attendance, considering the day being very rainy.

C. C. Hoover gave an exceptionally good report for the committee on agriculture and marketing, telling of accomplishments of the committee this year. Those who think the Grange is not accomplishing much should have heard this report.

Ray C. Ward, for the good of the order committee and Mrs. Victor Barsell for the home economics committee, also gave excellent reports. Mr. Ward in his report urged reorganization of the Jackson County Grange council, showing how we were missing many good things because of lack of a peanut organization.

Mr. Beaver urged the basque of roses be dropped Jackson county picnic, passed and postponed here.

The Grange went on record urging all agricultural people in the county to patronize those merchants who patronize the Rhodes of Jackson county.

During a period of the afternoon Secretary A. B. Hancock of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, addressed the Grange and introduced E. S. "Jerry" Jessoe, who spoke to the grangers on the Rhododendron Festival celebration. Both ladies were very interesting. Mr. Hancock also explained the work that the chamber is trying to do for the benefit of agriculture in the county.

The Grange went on record as declaring their desire to cooperate in any way possible with the chamber in making this jubilee celebration a success both as a Grange and as individuals.

It was decided to affix one Pomona stamp each with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rose, to the Rose City Grange convention to be held at Eagle Point in November.

Those present voted it both of a joint installation for all subordinate Granges in December. Place and time same as to announced later.

The degree of Pomona will be conferred at the regular meeting in December. This is an exciting meeting and will be held in the Central Point Grange hall. A cooked dish supper will be served.

Taxing action cooperation with the advisability of a central egg depot were also discussed.

The Ramona also went on record as endorsing the candidacy of Mrs. Mable Sims of the Jacksonville Grange, for State Grange lecturer. Mrs. Sims is highly qualified for work of this kind, and we hope all Jackson county grangers will do their best to elect her to that position.

The April meeting each year has been designated as Memorial meeting, the service to be held directly after the lecture hour.

The Grange went on record as endorsing a resolution to adopt a farmers' moratorium public meeting, district to be worked out later.

The Rogue River Grange recommended that the various subordinate Granges in the county cooperate in putting on their degree work, thereby getting the work done more promptly and saving a great deal of work for each Grange, in matrimonial teams for all degrees.

A rousing vote of thanks was extended the Talent Grange for its splendid hospitality and fine dishes served.

The lecture hour consisted of a group of songs by Wesley McDonough, James McDonough, Bill and Arthur Straus and Jerry Fitzgerald; reading by Mrs. Grant, violin duet by Hiram and Eugene Moore of Enterprise Grange, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Moore on the piano.

Doris Richardson Nealon pleased with a solo, in which she was accompanied by Mrs. Mable Sims at the piano. Frank Jackson of Enterprise Grange pleased with two harmonica numbers, and Thomas Cullen, aged member of Enterprise Grange, with a violin solo.

Mrs. Sheets of Phoenix spoke at length on "What will become of our Christmas package," in which she gave some very valuable advice about mailing letters and packages, giving postal requirements, which many of us do not know.

The ladies of Sams Valley Grange, Mrs. Steeguiller, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Grant, Mary Eddington, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Epuresen and Eva Frink, sang the songs which pleased the audience.

As a request number, Mr. Banwell, secretary of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, responded with a couple of piano numbers, during which he kept up a constant humorous monologue and showed his artistry as a piano performer. He also gave an example of a spurious sounds by an Eloptera land yacating in this country, who were pushed by smoke or tools as a fireworks of early progress, all of which with they seemed enjoyed by the Grangers.

By Mr. Banwell and Mr. Jessoe we say "Three cheers. We declare just one more verse."

ELMER BACK IN CAGE; PEOPLE OF PASADENA NOW BREATHE EASIER

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The good folk of Pasadena sighed sighs of relief today, for Elmer, a six-foot trained boa constrictor, was safe at home—just like many Pasadenans have been since he got loose Sunday.

Elmer's owner, C. C. Stickney, took him for an automobile ride and "lost" him Sunday when the cage came open as the machine rounded a corner.

Thenceforth, the populace had one chill after another.

Today a pedestrian was flabbergasted to see the reptile dangling from the limb of a parkway tree, vacuously surveying the scenery. Stickney hot-footed it to the scene and whistled to his pet. Elmer slithered down the tree and crawled into his cage, which had been placed on the sidewalk. News of his "return" spread like wild fire. It was the best news story to the public here in two days.
