

ROOSEVELT VISITS CERMAK TOMB

President Roosevelt took time during a flying trip to Chicago, where he addressed the American Legion convention, to visit the tomb of the late Mayor Anton Cermak, who was killed by an assassin's bullet intended for the President, in Miami, Fla. He is shown (left) as Mrs. Roosevelt placed a wreath. (Associated Press Photo)

BYRD'S SECOND SHIP LOADED FOR ANTARCTIC TRIP

The steamer Jacob Ruppert, flagship of Rear Adm. Richard Byrd's second expedition to the Arctic, is shown at Boston navy yard as it was being loaded with supplies and equipment. A snowmobile which will be used in the frigid wastelands is shown lower left as it was taken aboard. Lower right is one of the cows which will supply fresh milk for the expedition. (Associated Press Photos)

EINSTEINS WHISKED FROM BOAT TO AVOID CROWDS

Prof. Albert Einstein, noted scientist, and Mrs. Einstein are shown as they left their ocean liner to board a tug in New York harbor when they arrived from Europe. They were whisked away in seclusion, apparently to avoid any Nazi demonstration. At Princeton, N. J., Dr. Einstein will spend the winter in research work. (Associated Press Photos)

HERE'S A SCENE AFTER BLOODY BATTLE IN HAVANA

This "battlefront" scene was in front of the National hotel in Havana, after the day-long battle between soldiers and army officers who were barricaded in the hotel. The dead shown here were officers who fought against troops of the reorganized Cuban army. (Associated Press Photo)

HELD IN $250,000 MAIL ROBBERY

Raymond Holwell (left) and Theodore Norell were jailed in Denver on charges of complicity in a plot to dispose of loot from a $250,000 Chicago mail robbery of last December. Federal District Attorney Thomas J. Morrissey said the pair confessed. (Associated Press Photo)

SENATE SUB-COMMITTEE ENTERS WAR ON RACKETEERS

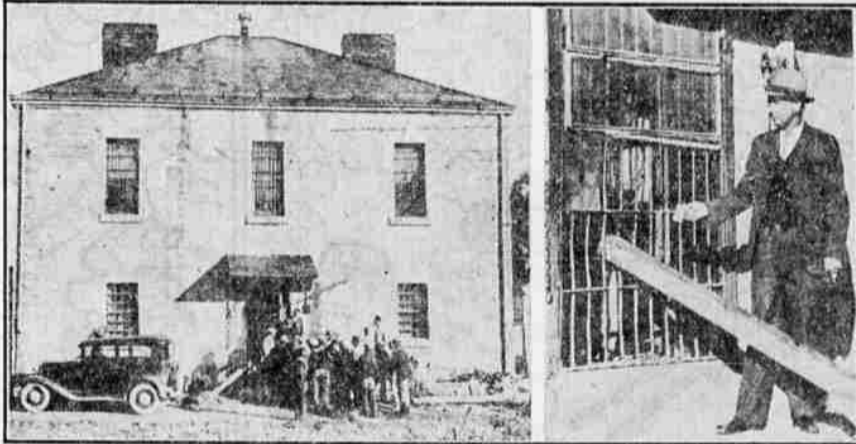

Legislation giving the federal government greater facility in prosecuting the racketeer, kidnaper and gangster was demanded by United States District Attorney Dwight Green (center) as a senate sub-committee on racketeers met in Chicago. At right is Sen. Royal S. Copeland, chairman of the sub-committee, and at left Sen. Louis J. Murphy of Iowa. (Associated Press Photo)

CHICAGO LAW STUDENT MISSING

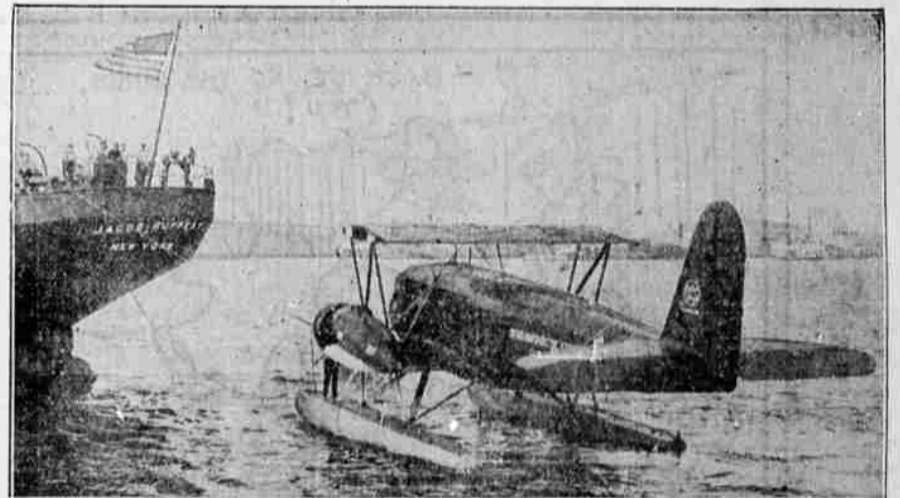

The mysterious disappearance of William Walton Hall, Chicago law student and heir to part of a fortune, and receipt of extortionist notes by his wife led his relatives to believe he might have been kidnaped. Hall is shown here with his young son. (Associated Press Photo)

MARYLAND JAIL WHERE NEGRO WAS SEIZED BY MOB

Pictured here is the jail at Princess Anne, Md., after it had been stormed by an angry mob which overpowered state police, battered down the doors and seized George Armwood, a negro, and lynched him. An officer is shown at right examining the battering ram used by the mob to break in the doors. The negro, who, police said, confessed attacking an aged woman, was hanged after being dragged through the streets behind an automobile. His body was burned in front of the court house. (Associated Press Photos)

BYRD'S 'WINGS' ON ANTARCTIC EXPLORATION TRIP

The plane in which Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd hopes to fly over the South pole for the second time is shown moored to the "Jacob Ruppert," flagship of the expedition, at Newport News, Va., just before being taken aboard and stowed away for the trip. (Associated Press Photo)

ACTRESS AND HUSBAND SEPARATE

Claire Luce, actress, and her society husband, Clifford Warren Smith, have agreed "to disagree" and as a result the one-time Follies girl is scheduled to receive $25,000 a year for the rest of her life. Announcement of the agreement, which involves no legal separation or divorce, was made in New York by attorneys representing both the blonde actress and her wealthy amateur aviator husband. (Associated Press Photo)

VICTIMS IN ILLINOIS MINE WAR

Arthur Turton (left) and Clarence Cooper were two of the several miners wounded in the clash between rival union groups at Harrisburg, Ill. (Associated Press Photo)

Speaks For Germany

Expounding the government's version of its action at Geneva, Konstantin von Neurath, German foreign minister, said that "there must not be a second disarmament of Germany" and sought to fix the responsibility for the "world's tangle" upon England and France. (Associated Press Photo)

NO PASTURES FOR BYRD'S COW!

This cow, "Foremost Southern Girl," is one of the animals to be taken to the Antarctic on Admiral Byrd's expedition. Edgar F. Cox of Buffalo is shown with her. (Associated Press Photo)

Scrappy Guard

Bill Corbus is one of the outstanding coast line men in his guard position on the Stanford football team. (Associated Press Photo)