Housewarming at University Club Will Be Tuesday

The major event of the coming week, socially speaking, preceding the Armistice holiday, will be the housewarming at the University club, opening in the new location, 1000 West Main street.

Members, their families and friends will gather there Tuesday evening for dinner at 7:30 o'clock, with bridge and dancing to follow.

The past week has been rather gay with a continuation of Halloween parties, informal entertaining and a general revival of interest in the comings and goings of local folk and guests.

Mrs. W. F. Biddle, Sr., returned the first of the week from a visit in the east, including a motor trip through the New England states and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Page of Pinehurst, North Carolina, visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl during the past week, leaving Wednesday for San Francisco via the Redwood highway. Mr. Page, who is the eldest son of the late Walter H. Page, ambassador to Great Britain during the Wilson administration, is making a motor trip throughout the country, in the interest of a large newspaper syndicate in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, who have been spending the past month at their river lodge the "Heris," returned to Medford and are now at their winter place in the Valley View district.

Mrs. T. E. Daniels was hostess recently at three lovely luncheons, at which chrysanthemums were used in table decorations and about the rooms. She entertained Wednesday, Friday and Tuesday and luncheon was followed each day by three tables of contract bridge.

A large wedding of the autumn will be solemnized this week at the Sacred Heart Catholic church, when Miss Dorothy Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hess of Roseburg and LaVerna Hawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawn of Eugene, are married Thursday by the Reverend Francis W. Black.

Members of the bridal party were announced last week.

Seattle Singer Sets New York Critics On Ear With G. Sharpe

Not in the memory of the oldest critics of Gotham had anyone before sung to them in G. Sharpe above High C but Virginia Le Ras of Seattle, 25 year old member of the Chicago Opera Company, reached this note in her New York debut. But despite her unusual range, improvement in tone and stage presence is needed before she can become a star, they said. (Associated Press Photo)

Miss Brammer Is Bride at Wedding in Southern State

In the Bluefield, West Virginia, Press is found the announcement of a southern wedding of interest to many Medford people, as the bride, Miss Pauline Pepper Brammer, is a graduate of the local high school and a charter member of the local chapter of the Children of the American Revolution.

The press report reads: "Miss Pauline Pepper Brammer, this city, and Mr. Walter R. Matthews of Lamar, Ala., were married October 1 at Bristol, Tenn., formal announcement of the marriage having been made here last evening. The bride, who is widely known for her beauty and charm, is a daughter of Mr. J. W. Brammer, of Buchanan, Va. She is a sister of Misses Billie, Blanche and Ruth Brammer, and a niece of Miss Pearl Brammer, this city. She has been a resident of Bluefield four years, being connected with the offices of Dr. John McGuire, in the Perry building.

"Mr. and Mrs. Matthews are leaving this morning for a honeymoon trip. News of the marriage is of particular interest, on account of the popularity of the bride and bridegroom."

The bride is a granddaughter of Joseph E. Pepper. The Peppers were the first people to settle west of the Blue Ridge mountains in Virginia. Their lands were granted from King George II. Mrs. Matthews graduated from the Medford high school four years ago and is a niece of Mrs. Nancy Pepper Crews of this city.

Mrs. Solinsky Is Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. E. C. Solinsky was hostess Wednesday at luncheon at her home on Queen Anne Wednesday, entertaining for Mesdames Martin Palmer, Ray Edwin, John R. Sargent, D. S. Libbey, Beiderlinden and W. E. Robertson.

Luncheon was followed by bridge.

Pythian Sisters Plan Dinner Dance.

The Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias are sponsoring a dinner dance Wednesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall, to which the public is invited. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock, and dancing will follow at 9:00.

Music for dancing will be played by Dyng's orchestra.

Alpha Delta Class Entertained Thursday.

The Alpha Delta class of the Christian church Bible school was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. T. Davis, Thursday afternoon.

The business session was presided over by the class president, Mrs. C. M. Hon.

Names were drawn for the Polly Anna club for the coming year and relief for a needy family was provided.

During the social hour games, stunts and contests were enjoyed and refreshments served by the committee.

Football Draws Many to Eugene for Homecoming

These days are football days, and Medford folk are football minded, judging from the number of people spending this week-end in Eugene for the University of Oregon homecoming and the general exodus promised for next week-end, when Oregon plays Oregon State in Portland.

Among members of the younger set attending the games in Eugene were: Misses Dorothy Burgess, Phyllis Phythian, Joyce Banish and Dorothy Gore. Miss Burgess was guest there of her grandmother and the other three misses were entertained at Phi Mu sorority by Miss Gore's sister, Rose.

Miss Grace Burnett also attended homecoming on the campus as guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Burnett.

Others enjoying campus life for the short period were Misses Betty Paske, Betty Vilm, Virginia Lindley, Amy Elliott and Barbara Holt, who motored north with Mr. O. L. Lindley; Misses Margarite Boyle, Suzette Stennett, Marjorie Paley, Patricia Carlson, Georgia Webb, Louise Elrod, June Davis, Elizabeth Eason, Patricia Smith, Larkie Beck, Irene Anderson, Helen Allison, Margaret Ward and Dorothy Burgess, and Messrs. J. Chermontee at Cottage Grove.

Miss Moore Among Phi Beta Pledges

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene.—Miss Marian Moore, University of Oregon student from Medford, has been pledged to membership in Phi Beta, national honorary sorority, it was announced by the organization.

Membership in Phi Beta is extended to women students talented in music, and prominent in campus music activities. Only 16 were pledged this year.

Miss Moore is a freshman and majoring in music. She is affiliated with the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Mrs. Frohbach Honored By Club Members.

Members of her card club feted Mrs. H. O. Frohbach at her home Thursday, arriving unannounced to join her in celebrating her birthday anniversary. Luncheon was prepared by the guests and followed by bridge. Honors were held by Mrs. George B. Alden and Mrs. J. H. Butler.

Present were Mesdames Hubbard, Herman, Stennett, Maasdam, West, Alden, Butler and Frohbach.

Halloween Party Enjoyed, Huesong Home.

A Halloween party was given last Monday evening at the home of Georgiana Huesong for the members of F. L. club and their guests.

A short informal business meeting was held and plans and activities of the club for the coming winter months were made. After the business meeting, Halloween games and other amusements were enjoyed by all until a late hour after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Members present including guests were: Georgiana Huesong, Lucille Cave, Jean Jennings, Edna Hilderbrand, Bease Thompson, Ethel Humphrey, Viola Aldredge, Georgia Hess, Marian Mellin, Dorothy Armstrong, and Nelda Eberhard, who is visiting here from Lakeview, Oregon.

The next business meeting of the club will be held at the home of Jean Jennings on Vancouver avenue, November 13th.

Mrs. Wilson Gives Reames Chapter Officers Dinner

Mrs. Addie Wilson, worthy matron of Reames chapter, entertained officers and installing officers of the chapter at 4:30 dinner at her home on South Riverside Friday evening.

Yellow tapers and yellow chrysanthemums formed the table decorations and the same autumnal flowers were used in profusion about the rooms. Place cards carried the O. E. S. emblem.

Following dinner, bridge was played with Mrs. Kate Young and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel receiving honors for the women and Dr. Dippel and Dr. Standard for the men.

Mrs. Meeker Has Party for Staff

On Tuesday evening the ladies of the M. M. Department Store staff were entertained with a Halloween party by Mrs. C. A. Meeker at her home on North Barrett street.

The rooms were colorful in decorations of marigolds, autumn leaves and jack-o-lanterns. Ghosts and witches added to the festive event. The evening was spent playing Halloween games, which were enjoyed by all present, after which refreshments were served.

Guests were Mesdames Murray, Curtis, Satterlee, Purcell, Calder, Brandon, Billings, Smith, Davis, Hemphill, Root, Elliott, Rush and Misses Whitson, Oathes and Walker.

Past Matrons to Play Bridge Monday.

Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. Klein were hostesses to the Pythian club, at the home of the latter on Tuesday evening. Bridge and 500 were played, prizes being won by Mrs. Helmeroth and Mrs. Moffatt. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fisher on Tuesday, November 14.

Mrs. Mary E. Payne plans to leave Medford soon for Oakland, Cal., where she will spend the winter with her daughter.

Miss McKuer's Talks Enjoyed.

General members of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church here motored to Ashland Thursday, where they were guests of that missionary society to hear a lecture by Miss Esther McKuer of New York, representative of the Women's National Board of Missions.

The speaker gave an interesting review of her work, speaking particularly of conditions in Cuba.

Following the lecture tea was served by the Ashland Missionary society, completing a very pleasant afternoon.

Halloween Party Given For Smedley Children

Mrs. Earl Smedley entertained with a Halloween party Tuesday evening for her children, Helen and Leonard Smedley. Those invited were Virginia Hally, Edna Dale, James Elliott, Richard Mole, George Rohrer, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Lillian Howard Rogers and Robert Newman.

Mrs. Arthur Rogers assisted in decorating the house with corn stalks, pumpkins, witches, bats, etc. The house was beautifully decorated with orange and black curtains with table to match.

The guests were served refreshments, carrying out the same color scheme. Games were played and prizes awarded the winners and lowest losers.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick Hostess to Club

Mrs. P. J. Kirkpatrick entertained the Oak Grove Neighborhood club on Wednesday with 10 members present. Mrs. L. D. Miner of Ashland was a guest.

Mrs. Lundy, president, gave a report on the number of garments made and delivered to needy children.

It was planned to have a food shower Thanksgiving week for an unfortunate family. Each member responded generously.

The afternoon was spent in sewing. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Roberts on November 15.

Good Food and the Smile of Good Health

Good food and good health go hand in hand—especially in this true of meats, the best source of proteins for growing children.

Meat hard to chew, is hard to digest and seldom is it chewed sufficiently by a child. While to a degree supplying the necessary proteins, tough meat is a greater menace to health, —indigestion, mal-nutrition and a general undermining of health may result.

Good meat, especially beef, is necessary and essential to the health of children. Even that should be properly cared for until at its best.
