Turkey Dinner At Central Point Is Event of Tuesday

On Tuesday evening, November 7th, another "Evening of Entertainment" will be held at the Central Point Grange hall. Those who have attended in previous years know just what an enjoyable evening is in store for them.

At 8:00 o'clock the women of the H. E. C. will start serving a roast turkey dinner. After dinner there will be dancing for those who care to dance, with both old fashioned and modern music played; and for those who don't care to dance there will be card tables and cards furnished.

This will not be a formal dinner. "Just a good old fashioned evening of entertainment" to which all are invited to come and meet friends.

Prices are listed in another part of this paper.

Royal Neighbors Have Meeting
The Royal Neighbors of America met in their hall for regular business Thursday evening with many members present. The Oracle announced that the Mistletoe club will meet with Mrs. E. W. Wakefield, 18 Almond street, Friday, November 10, at 7 p. m., for a covered dish luncheon.

All Royal Neighbors are asked to be present as this is also a special meeting. The state supervisor will have a special message for all. At the close of the evening pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the committee in charge.

Timely Program Given Study Club

The Wednesday Study club met November 1 at the women's club-rooms, for a most interesting and timely program. Mrs. W. J. Warner gave an able discussion of the federal employment program, covering three divisions, the public works program, the CCC work and the NRA, each of which she explained briefly. The purpose of this program was given as a need to get business back on an even keel, relieve unemployment and strengthen the morale of the country. Mrs. W. J. Warner, in her book review of Franklin D. Roosevelt's "Looking Forward," brought out very clearly the theories and working plans of the President. The solution for the various problems confronting our national life by economic planning, federal control of industry, industrial crime prevention, etc., were explained. The current topics were given by Mrs. N. T. Hodges. These covered national and world topics of political and scientific interest.

Virginia Gregory And Ralph Cook To Wed In Spring

Announcing the engagement of her daughter, Miss Virginia Gregory, to Ralph L. Cook, Mrs. A. H. Gregory entertained Friday evening at her home on East Jackson street for a number of friends.

Four tables of progressive games were enjoyed during the evening, with prize for high score going to Velma Jennings, and low to Roxie Frye. The tables were decorated in large chrysanthemums of orchid and yellow, white bouquets of small chrysanthemums in similar colors were also used in the arrangement.

The engagement was cleverly announced when refreshments were served. On each little orchid and yellow nut cup was a gold cupid holding a golden heart revealing the betrothal. Mrs. Gregory was assisted at serving by Mrs. Gabel Marsh.

Miss Gregory was graduated from Medford high school in the class of 1930, and has taken an active part in church and social affairs of the city.

Mr. Cook is with the American Fruit Growers, Inc. in Medford, having come here from Yakima, Wash. The wedding will be an event of the late spring.

Invited for the affair last evening were the honor guest, Miss Gregory, Mesdames M. E. Olson, Gerald Barr, Essie Smith, Goldie Taylor, Velma Jennings, Kenneth Chidister, Velma Smith and Misses Geraldine Latham, Elsie Williams, Eleanor Curry, Betty Culy, Roxie Frye, Genevieve Brown, Bertha Stinson, Marjorie Gregory and Iva Fewell.

Zuleima Temple Plans Rummage Sale

Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, will hold annual rummage sale in the Niedermeyer building next to the West Side pharmacy Thursday afternoon and Friday, November 9 and 10.

P. E. O.'s Meet With Mrs. Kelly

Chapter AA, P. E. O., will meet with Mrs. E. E. Kelly at 911 Queen Anne avenue Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, according to announcement. Miss Gertrude Parker will act as assistant hostess.

Many Enjoy Lecture By Mr. Driver

The auditorium at the court house was filled to capacity when the Medford Garden club met Thursday evening for its regular monthly meeting. A short business session was held. Mrs. D. Albin's resignation as secretary was read and an invitation asking the club to participate in the Armistice Day parade. Miss Jane Sneider and Mrs. A. H. Lamm were appointed to arrange a representation in the parade.

The president, Mrs. Miles, then introduced Raymond Driver who gave a talk on birds. His moving pictures of birds, most of them taken at his own home on the Old Stage Road, were very interesting and showed an intimate understanding of his feathered friends and their habits. Mr. Driver laid his gun away nine years ago, preferring to hunt with his camera. He feeds the birds, studies and protects them and is well repaid in the pleasure they give him, he said. Every one enjoyed the colored reels of bits of scenery taken along the Crater Lake highway, over on the coast in Yellowstone park and the Yosemite. Many flowers from his own home and the native hills were also shown. The next regular meeting of the club will be held the first Thursday evening in December and another interesting program is being planned for that meeting.

Portland Wedding Of Interest Here

A wedding of interest to local society was solemnized last week in Portland, when Miss Helen Dockery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dockery of that city became the bride of Amby Fredericka, son of Mrs. W. H. Walker of Medford.

The service was read in the Grace Memorial Presbyterian church. Miss Dockery, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding dress, a chalk white silk brocade of Elizabethan style with lace insertions, and Juliet cap of heavy lace. She carried a shower bouquet of old-fashioned flowers. Her only attendant, Miss Jean Stevens, wore a gown of pastel pink, created on simple lines with touches of blue. Wilson Dockery was best man for the groom and John Goss and George Armstrong acted as ushers.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Fredericka left for New York City, where they will make their home. Both are former students of Oregon State college, where Mrs. Fredericka was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and Mr. Fredericka affiliated with Beta Theta Pi.

Mrs. Simmons Honored Before Departure

Before departure Mrs. E. W. Simmons left yesterday to spend the winter with her son and daughter and was the incentive for considerable entertaining before her departure. She will visit her son in Tacoma, Wash., and a daughter in the south before returning to Medford.

Christian Missionary Group Enjoys Program

A very interesting program was put on by the Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church. The meeting was held in the Recreational hall Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Walter Kindred and group had charge of the presentation hour.

At the business period Mrs. Alan Curry presided. Plans for a one day convention to be held in the church November 10 were completed. Several interesting talks were given pertaining to the afternoon study, "The Crucified of America."

Mrs. C. M. Hon gave a review of the Life of Mexican people in San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. E. N. Biden gave glimpses from a diary of the Mexican work.

Rev. W. R. Baird gave an interesting talk of the Japanese people in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lois Evans read an original poem, "Our Part." Mrs. Ruth Hood and Mrs. Lois Young each brought a message in song, greatly enjoyed by all. At the social hour pumpkin pie and coffee were served to 35 members and guests.

Helen Mercer, Carol Carlin Give Halloween Party

A jolly Halloween party was enjoyed Saturday evening, October 28, with Helen Mercer and Carol Carlin as hostesses, at the home of the latter, 1334 Reedy avenue. The guests, arriving masked and in costumes befitting the occasion, added much to the hilarity of the evening. Games occupied the early part of the evening, followed by refreshments at a big table gaily decked with reminders and favors of Halloween. From every nook and corner of the house, witches, cats and spooky decorations created a weird setting. After lunch ghost stories and fortune telling in front of the fire place whirled away many happy moments. The guests were Vivian Pasmore, Dorothy Gaddis, Frances Clark, Ruth Banish, Josephine Bullis, Cathleen Conroy, Nanette Rosenberg, Peggy Dean, Lillian Lynum and Ruth Nordwick.

B. P. W. Club Has Busy Year Ahead

Mrs. Maybelle Church, program chairman of the B. & P. W. club, together with the various committee chairmen, outlined the following year's program for the club last week.

November is Education month and will start with a luncheon at the women's club rooms next Tuesday noon. Miss Lottie Watkins is chairman and has planned a nice program with the main speaker from Community Chest headquarters.

The second November meeting will be devoted to study of our public school system. December will be in charge of Miss Mildred Gates with a social service speaker and Christmas party, with boxes well filled for others. January is set aside for legislation with Maud Chapman, chairman, planning to study the problems of county officials.

February and March programs are in charge of Alice Coppin as international and public relations chairman. There will be two meetings devoted to international affairs and as National Business Women's Week comes in March, a special meeting or two will be planned for that time.

The April magazines, "The Independent Women," and study of the local press. Clara Wood will plan these meetings.

The finance committee, Belva Aiken, chairman, will present some speakers on banking during May. June meetings will be devoted to state convention reports and the installation of new officers.

During July and August, no regular meetings will be held but the health chairman, Dr. Susie Standard, has planned a picnic and several outdoor meetings.

The club will welcome at any time as guests or members, women in business or those interested in business women.

Mrs. Annie to Speak, Central Point Church

Mrs. Beulah M. Annie, returned missionary from Africa, working under the Unevangelized Tribes Federation will speak at the Central Point church Thursday, November 16th at 7:30 p. m. With her is Miss Johnson who is planning to accompany her to Africa in the near future. This service is sponsored by the Christian Endeavor society. Everyone interested is invited.

Bobby Tucker Celebrates Birthday

CENTRAL POINT—Mrs. O. D. Tucker entertained Thursday honoring her little son Bobby's tenth birthday. The rooms were pretty with Halloween decorations and the table was especially attractive with the large birthday cake in the center, and favors for each guest.

Miss Marian Tucker was assisted in serving by Miss Helen Hansen and Miss Norma Holland. The honor guest received many nice gifts.

Those present were: Ardis Hansen, Lois Smith, Mildred Williams, Maxine Holland, Peggy Croft, Nadine Musty, Gwin Marine, Doris Penlan, Georgia McClean, Michael Thornley, Harvey Taylor, Chester Grimes, Toddy Grimes, Edgar Ross, Johnny Ross, Wayne Hoffman, Bobby Vincent and Guy Owens.

Birthday Party Given For Two

With their families present and guests, numbering 19, Mr. Wheeler of Medford and Mrs. Walker of Phoenix celebrated their birthdays at the country home of the latter in Pioneer Lane on All Saints' eve, October 31. The evening was devoted to Halloween games and refreshments in keeping with the season were served.

Many gifts were received by the honor guests, who were required to blow out the candles on the huge birthday cake.

Foreign Missionary Society to Meet

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Darby on Queen Anne avenue.
