Christian Churches of Southern Oregon in Conclave Nov. 10. Christian churches of southern Oregon will hold a one day conclave at the local Christian church Friday, November 10th, beginning at 10 a. m. Barton A. Johnson of Indianapolis, associate secretary of the Promotional Division of the United Christian Missionary society, will be leader of the convention. Miss Bernice Clawson, for several years a missionary in Japan, will be one of the speakers.

The theme of the convention will be "Christ, the Pioneer of Life," and all features of the day's program center about this idea. "Pioneering in Our State" and "Pioneers of Life" are two of the principal talks during the morning program.

In the afternoon the men and women will hold simultaneous conferences. Miss Clawson will speak on "The Missionary, a Pioneer." The women, who will soon observe their sixtieth anniversary, will have a special period devoted to their activities called "Sixty Years of Pioneering."

State missions, national missions, world missions, will all have their place on the program. Other speakers will be: Mrs. L. H. Fishburn, general secretary of the Women's Missionary society of Oregon; Dorothy Leake, of Portland, Junior superintendent; B. M. Day of Eugene, Young People's superintendent; C. P. Swander of Portland, and C. H. Hilton of Grants Pass.

These luncheons are colorfully planned in accordance with a bulletin issued by the Oregon State college, thereby assuring a nourishing, balanced and appetizing lunch.

The membership drive in charge of Mrs. Stanley Jones has gone over the top, with additional members still coming in.

The delegation recently sent to the state convention at Salem, has returned full of enthusiasm, new ideas and interest in the future plans of the organization.

Plans are being going forward for "Daddy's Night" which is to be celebrated on the evening of Nov. 14th, with a dinner and an especially fine program.

The study club groups will meet at the following homes on Monday, Nov. 6th, at 1:30 p. m.: Mrs. Chas. Thompson, 1004 W. Fourth St., Mrs. L. E. Clevenberg, 511 Haven St.

Any interested person is invited to attend either of these groups or to form a group in her own home if she so desires.

Lincoln Club. There were 50 women in attendance at the meeting of the Lincoln School Service club held Friday afternoon and an enjoyable program was presented, including two Indian songs and an Indian play by pupils of the 2A and 3B rooms.
