LEGION WILL SPREAD ANNUAL FREE FEED AT NOON ARMISTICE DAY

"Contrary to many reports, the American Legion will stake its usual big free 'feed' for all ex-service men at the Elks' temple Saturday noon, Armistice day," according to commander Oliver Ostermyer.

This feed will follow the big parade. All those participating in the parade are requested to be at the city park at 10:30 Saturday morning.

The climax of a more than usual big day will be the annual American Legion Armistice day ball at the Oriental Gardens, at which popular prices will prevail.

This dance has for 13 years been the outstanding event of Armistice day, and is known far and wide as the "big thing" of the Legion year.

Friday's Mail Tribune will give full and complete details of this big day.

MAIL CARRIERS NEED NO CHAUFFEUR LICENSE

Ashland Normal Makes Big Plans For Homecoming

Sons' homecoming publicity broadcasts will be on the air at 4:30 p. m. on November 9, 14 and 16 from station KJMED. The programs are under the direction of Rachel Forsythe of Ashland, who is in charge of the homecoming publicity.

On November 9, the program will include a group of songs by a boys' quartet, composed of Durward Gass, Art Cook, Bob Nelson and Bill Lyman, all of Medford. Miss Harriet Baldwin, Medford music supervisor, will accompany the quartet. Also on the program is Miss Jean Crawford of Klamath Falls, who will sing. Winston Howell of Medford is the broadcaster for the group of programs.

Paul Goddard, head of the committee which is making arrangements for the big noise parade and bonfire which will precede the midnight review on Friday, November 17, is to be the committee representative on the program this Thursday.

Other committee members are Durward Gass, Medford, who is arranging the homecoming dance on Saturday, November 18. This dance will follow the banquet to be held at 6 o'clock at the Lithia Springs hotel. Miss Beulah Heath of Portland, who is in charge of the banquet, has announced that a medium priced dinner menu has been selected.

How are YOUR nerves?

TEST No. 8

Jangled nerves sap your vitality

Every time you let jangled nerves get the best of you... Every time you bang the door off its hinges, or "want to scream," you're taking it out of yourself.

Door banging, screaming and such antics are rude to say the least, and make your family and your friends uncomfortable... But—most important, each fit of temper you give way to is sapping your own vitality, making the next tantrum easier, ruining your health, your digestion, your disposition.

Watch you, nerves! Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly! Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for "Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves."

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

CO-ED CARRIES GUN FOR EXTORTIONIST

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Margaret Hise of West Liberty, senior journalism student, carried a revolver to her University of Iowa classes today as police investigated extortion letters she has received in the last 10 days.

A guard was stationed at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house where Miss Hise is a member, after she received a third threatening letter demanding that she have her father have $10,000 ready.

MARY WIGMAN HURT BY FALL IN THEATER

DULSBURG, Germany, Nov. 8.—(AP) Mary Wigman, the dancer, was in a hospital today suffering from a broken arm, suffered when she slipped on a dimly lighted staircase as she was leaving a stage where she had been performing.

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Nov. 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Eulus Pollock, ill since August 1 with encephalitis, or sleeping sickness, is steadily improving, her husband said today. "We now have hopes for her complete recovery," he said.
