SILVER SCREEN REVIEW

By Mary Greiner Kelly.

If you are one who enjoys a picture for the acting, by all means don't miss "The Narrow Corner," which opened to a substantial house at the Rialto yesterday. For here is a picture which combines creative acting with intelligent direction, and because of the two is really worth while.

The story (Somerset Maugham's) although not exactly new, is one with plenty of romantic appeal, even for the jaded appetite. And while it's South Sea Island stuff, it has a twist or two that takes it away from the former patterns.

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., gives all he has in this one; little Patricia Ellis is a real surprise; Ralph Bellamy is at his best. But the real acting is by those not featured. And you'd better try and catch their names yourself.

Grid Stars Head Cast Of Football Picture At Holly

"With this squad of gridiron battlers, I could whip any football team in the country, and that goes for the national champion Trojans, the Rambling Irish of Notre Dame, Northwestern, Bucknell, West Point and the rest of the crack outfits," declared Pat O'Brien to a group of actors in the cast of "College Coach," which opens today with Pat in the title role.

"That's pretty strong, Pat," warned Dick Powell. "There are plenty of powerful clubs this year, but you should be able to win with this lineup:

Griffith, U. S. C., halfback; Warburton, U. S. C., quarterback; and McNeish, U. S. C., halfback, who play behind a forward line of Captain Ford Palmer, U. S. C., and Muller, U. C. L. A., ends; Harper, U. S. C., and Yeastick, U. C. L. A., tackles; Roseberg and Williamson, U. S. C., guards, with Captain Coates, U. C. L. A., centering the ball."

The regular cast features Dick Powell as the college hero, Ann Dvorak, Pat O'Brien, Lyle Talbot, Arthur Byron, Hugh Herbert, Arthur Hohl and Philip Faversham.

Ghosts Stalk On Holly Stage For Big Spook Party

Tonight brings to the Holly theater at a special midnight matinee the spook party, to be held on the stage, beginning at 11 p. m. Ala Din, well known mystic, will appear on the stage and conduct a spiritualistic seance, at which a skeleton will come to life, skulls will talk, spirits will raise tables, and thrill of thrills, the ghost will materialize and be with the audience in person.

Manager Marsh assures his patrons the chilliest, thrilliest evening of entertainment they have ever witnessed, and he says they will come away assured that there really are ghosts and spirits.

Preceding this distinct novelty in entertainment, the management will present a special screen attraction, "The Sphinx," featuring Lionel Atwill.

The show begins at 11 o'clock, and children will not be admitted unless accompanied by an adult.

GLEEMEN WILL VISIT GRANGES IN COUNTY BEGINNING MONDAY

The Medford Gleemen will start their series of visitations to the granges next Monday. It was announced today by chamber of commerce officials. The Phoenix Grange is first on the list for this season and the meeting will be held in the Phoenix high school gymnasium, Monday, November 13th, at 8 p. m.

Those who desire to attend from Medford are asked to communicate with Jack Swen, chairman of the inter-city visitation committee, of the chamber of commerce, or to the chamber of commerce direct, so that grange officials at Phoenix may be notified of the number to expect.

The visits to the granges by the Gleemen are made possible through the sale of associate memberships and those citizens who have not yet purchased memberships are urged to do so. The money raised by this means is used in purchasing musical scores and unless sufficient memberships are obtained, the Gleemen will have to forego their civic work and grange visits, it was announced by R. W. Frame, president.

An associate membership costing $2.00 entitles the holder and two friends to two concerts which will be put on at a later date. The grange concerts and others held in the rural districts are entirely free.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our friends for their kindness and for the beautiful floral offerings at the time of our recent bereavement.

D. T. Cox and Family, Mrs. Louisa Gregory and Family.

for a preview showing of "Trick for Trick," a mystery drama in which secrets of magic are revealed as two magicians vie with each other for superiority. Ralph Morgan, Victor Jory and Sally Blane are featured. The film is said to reveal all the tricks, takes and deceit with which magicians amaze their victims.

Reward Offered for Swan. BELTON, Tex.—(UP)—A prodigal swan that left its home on Lake Bassel near here has been the object of a two-weeks hunt by city officials and unemployed. The fact that a $7.50 reward for the swan's return was offered by the city manager, caused scores of unemployed to join the search. The bird was last seen floating lazily down the Leon river.
