JUDGE DAY ENDORSES FORGET-ME-NOT SALE

To the people of Jackson county. In these days of anxiety and financial worries, it is really refreshing to consider the plight of the neighbor who is worse off than we are. We can be divided on this issue or that issue, but we are all united in the idea that the public should pause and pay homage to our disabled American war veterans. The "forget-me-not" is not only a symbol of our obligation and love for these men who have willingly sacrificed everything for the good of their country, but it is a chance to really help in a small way in financial aid.

I am sure that all citizens will consider it a pleasure, rather than a duty, to give universal support in this "forget-me-not" sale.
EARL B. DAY, County Judge.
