

PROTESTING ILLINOIS MINERS MEET IN BALL PARK

When thousands of members of the Progressive miners' union marched into Springfield, Ill., to protest against conditions in Illinois soft coal fields, they congregated in Springfield's baseball park. (Associated Press Photo)

SEEK NEW ENDURANCE RECORD

Viola Gentry (left) and Mary Sansom are shown at Floyd Bennett field, Long Island, as they made final preparations for their attempt to break the refueling endurance flight record for women. (Associated Press Photo)

U. S. GOLD PURCHASES PUT BIG MINES IN SPOTLIGHT

The government's policy of buying gold at a fixed price has focused attention again on the nation's more famous gold mines. This is a general view of the noted Homestake mine at Lead, S. D., which produces about $6,000,000 in gold annually. Since 1876 this mine has produced more than $200,000,000 in gold. (Associated Press Photo)

FORMER CHAMPION GOES WESTERN

Jack Dempsey, former champion heavyweight, put on full western regalia, including a 10-gallon hat, and led with a six gun instead of a left during a visit to Tucson, Ariz. Here's the old mauler in the old western outpost. (Associated Press Photo)

Price Plan Expert

In selecting his plan for raising commodity prices, President Roosevelt adopted one of four procedures which Prof. George F. Warren (above), of Cornell university said could be followed by any country off the gold standard, in establishing a desired price level. (Associated Press Photo)

PUSH FEDERAL PROBE OF RACKETEERS

Joseph B. Keenan (left), special assistant attorney general in charge of the federal drive on gangs and racketeers, is shown discussing with Judge Thomas O. Green of Chicago some of the problems the senate sub-committee hearing in Chicago is investigating. (Associated Press Photo)

WINKLER QUESTIONED ON KIDNAPINGS, ROBBERIES

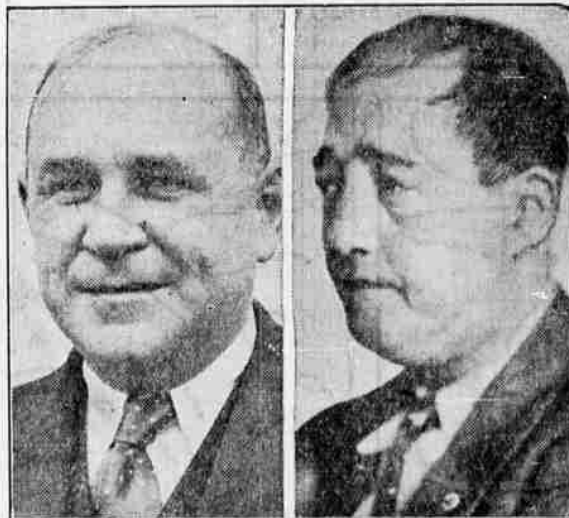

Gun Winkler (left), notorious Chicago "public enemy," was taken into technical custody by federal agents in Chicago for questioning about recent kidnapings and the Chicago robbery of federal reserve bank messengers. Sergeant Al Schuetz, who led a raiding squad on Winkler's apartment, is shown with arms found there. (Associated Press Photos)

KIDNAP PROSECUTOR IS REWARDED

Joseph B. Keenan (right), who as a special assistant in the department of justice has been directing the government's prosecution of kidnapers, received his commission as a regular assistant attorney-general from Homer Cummings (left), attorney-general. (Associated Press Photo)

IN PUERTO RICO CONTROVERSY

A tense situation was created in San Juan, Puerto Rico, by bomb plots directed at Gov. Robert H. Gore (left). Additional police protection was ordered following the finding of a bomb in the garden of his San Juan residence and an explosion on the roof of his summer home. The calm of the island was further disturbed by striking students who protested the appointment of Rafael Alonzo Torres (right) as a trustee of Puerto Rico university. (Associated Press Photos)

PLAN NON-STOP FLIGHT TO HAITI

Capt. J. L. Boyd (center) is shown perusing maps with Harold Palmer Davis (left) and Robert G. Lyon (right), former navy flier, who will accompany him on a proposed non-stop flight from New York to Port Au Prince, Haiti, a distance of nearly 2,500 miles. (Associated Press Photo)

FARM STRIKE, LABOR CHIEFS MEET

Milo Reno (left), president of the National Farmers Holiday association sponsoring the national farm strike, is shown as he conferred in Chicago with A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Whitney, speaking for all rail brotherhoods, proffered their "sympathetic co-operation" to the farmers. (Associated Press Photo)

PAAVO NURMI AND BRIDE SEPARATE

Paavo Nurmi, noted Finnish runner, and his bride of less than two years have separated, and it was learned Mrs. Nurmi has taken steps toward obtaining a divorce and custody of their year-old boy, Matti. The three are shown in this picture. (Associated Press Photo)

Stellar Player

Much of the credit for stopping Southern California goes to Norman "Red" Franklin, Oregon State's speedy back who passes accurately, punts well and plays a fine defensive game. (Associated Press Photo)

Bosses Buckeyes

Sid Gillman (above) of Minneapolis, one of the Big Ten's better wingmen, is co-captain of the 1933 Ohio State eleven with Joe Gallus, guard. (Associated Press Photo)

'SPIKE' TELLS THE SENATOR!

Edward L. "Spike" O'Donnell (left), Chicago "public enemy," was refused permission to testify before a senate sub-committee hearing in Chicago on racketeers, so he cornered the committee chairman, Sen. Royal S. Copeland, to "give him some advice on how to direct the younger element out of the pathways of crime." (Associated Press Photo)

THE HUBBELL BOYS OF OKLAHOMA

When Carl Hubbell, pecan farmer and pitching ace of the champion New York Giants, demonstrated his famous "screw ball" for his fellow-villagers on "Carl Hubbell Day" at Meeker, Okla., his two brothers, Jay (left) and Merritt (right), basked in their share of reflected glory. (Associated Press Photo)