Miss Ness, Bride, Beautiful Church Service Thursday

The most beautiful social event of the week in Medford and the largest church wedding of the year was solemnized at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Sacred Heart Catholic church, when Miss Agnes Dorothy Ness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Ness of Roseburg, became the bride of Albert LaVerne Hawn of Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hawn of Roseburg.

The impressive ceremony was read by Father Francis W. Black before the candle lighted sanctuary, decorated in bouquets of yellow, white and bronze chrysanthemums. Ferns and potted palms were used with the favored autumn flowers to add beauty to the altar.

Preceding the wedding service soft organ music was played by Sebastian Apollo of this city. Then louder strains announced the arrival of the bride party. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and was attired in long fitted gown of white satin, created on princess lines with long glove sleeves, forming a pronounced puff above the elbow, and with high neckline. Her deep auburn hair was lovely beneath a veil of tulle, caught high at the back of her head by a spray of orange blossoms. The deep lace edging of the veil fell in a train beneath her dress. She wore mits on her hands and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Little Miss Rosemary Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hays, and Larry Hays, young son of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hays, who led the bridal procession, were dressed in quaint frock and tulle suit. The little girl carried an old fashioned bouquet of roses and violets.

Misses Kathleen and Marion Ness, bridesmaids, wore frocks of crayon rose and gold, colors which emphasized the other autumn tones predominant in the church. Shallow creases with net brims and mits of the same color completed their costumes. They carried large bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Donald Hellwell of Marshfield was best man for the groom and Ford Singleton of Roseburg and Thos. H. Ness, Jr. of Oregon State college, ushers.

Mrs. James C. Hays sang the "Ave Maria" during the service and Harold Corlies the communion hymn.

Following the wedding a reception for 100 guests was held at the Hotel Medford, where Mrs. Willard Johnson of Roseburg, Mrs. Hays of Medford and Mrs. Walter Frederickson of Roseburg poured. Assisting in serving were the Misses Genevieve and Virginia Ness, sisters of the bride, here from Roseburg.

Among out of town guests for the wedding and reception were Mrs. Studley and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Robertson of Eugene; E. M. Adams of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hellwell of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ham of Grants Pass and the following from Roseburg: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hawn, and Mrs. Walter Frederickson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton, Ford Singleton, Miss Hazel Strickland, Chas. C. Malley, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. Geo. Bolten, Mrs. George Willett, and son, George, Mrs. Harold Nichols, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Frank Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler and daughter, Eleanor.

The W. C. T. U.

Regular monthly meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. was favored Thursday afternoon by the presence of the Jackson county president, Mrs. Augusta McCormick of Ashland who brought a very comprehensive report of the recent state convention at Portland when the 50th anniversary of the W. C. T. U. in Oregon was observed, the golden offering from their friends amounting to over $100. More than 300 delegates and friends of this great pioneer movement, sat down to a banquet held in Centenary Wilbur Methodist church, one of the largest in the city.

Mrs. McCormick presented many workable ideas for cooperating with the state in plans for education which have ever been the paramount project in the past. Mrs. J. C. Woods, beloved past county president, gave some added delights on the convention as did Mrs. Mitchell Russell, delegates from the local union.

Medford has an opportunity of having the state convention next fall and the women would like to hear from some of the 2000 girls in this county who are interested in sharing in the entertainment of the state dry forces. Won't you phone the president, Mrs. Oldenburg and offering any encouragement you can?

Medford Folk Join Trek to Portland for Football Game

Medford, with the rest of the state, sort of moved to Portland this week end as the Rose City became the all-Oregon campus, so social events usually arranged here for Saturday and Sunday were transferred to the football center, where chrysanthemums, yellow and bronze, were blooming on all feminine lapels yesterday.

In addition to the big game, many social events were enjoyed by visitors and festivities will be continued today, sororities and fraternities having arranged luncheons and teas in addition to the two big dances last night.

The Masonic temple on the East Side and the Amateur Athletic club on the West were the gathering places of the majority last night. Students and alumni of Oregon held their dance at the first named place and Oregon Staters in the second.

Ranson Meinke, president of the Oregon State student body in 1930-1931, appointed the alumni committee for the college dance, which included Forrest Pickett of this city. Jack Benefield, as general chairman of festivities for Oregon students, was assisted by several persons, whose names appeared in prominent places while they were on the campus, among them Mrs. Augusta Gerlinger, Mrs. Georgia Benson Patterson and Brian Minnaugh, ex-president of the University of Oregon student body.

Among those planning to attend the big game from this city yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Larson, Mrs. Slight, who visited her son, Dick; Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Max Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trovbridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
