APPLECATE, Nov. II.—(Spl.)—Every one knows the atory of the three bears, sithough few have come face to face with the family. That is just what happened to Harold Crump of Little Applegate after he set his bear trap. On walking up to his trap he discovered the animal which growled to bring her protecting mate over the hill to fight for her. After killing both of the older bears Harold heard the cub crying in a tree above him as the little fellow saw his parents dying. Harold's next bullet brought the club tumbling to the ground. There has been many other little Applegate trappers who have caught bears this fall. After taking the bait and springing the trap three times a large brown bear walked into a trap set by Glenn Saitmarsh. The bear weighed over 200 pounds. Among lucky trappers are J. T. Lovel, Willis Scott and Leo Fields.
