LIQUOR RUNNERS READY FOR DRIVE ON REPEAL HEELS

Rum Ships Lurk Outside 12-Mile Limit With Heavy Cargoes—Hope to Under-sell Legitimate Trade

By ARCH EDDY
United Press Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA.—(UP)—A gigantic liquor business is waiting at the 12-mile limit for the repeal of prohibition.

Nearly a hundred whisky ships, the greatest number since 1924, are lying at anchor in the Atlantic ocean, ready to rush their cargoes of "bootleg" liquor into seaboard cities as soon as the states ratify repeal.

This situation was disclosed by a government investigator, who has been making a survey of conditions here.

A year ago, according to the agent, there were scarcely a dozen ships along "Rum Row." Now the number is nearer 100, and increasing. The ships, he said, are loaded with fine whiskies from St. Pierre, Miquelon, Bimini and the Bahamas. Most of them are propelled by four Liberty motors and will travel 40 miles an hour, or better, loaded. Their sides are steel plated as a protection against coast guard bullets.

The plan of the bootleggers is to undersell legitimate distributors. By purchasing liquor in vast quantities at from $10 to $14 a case, they figure to undersell licensed distilleries by 25 to 30 per cent.

Coast guardsmen here say that the depression has been a boon to the liquor syndicates. Bootleggers have been able to buy swanky yachts from formerly wealthy people. The bootleggers themselves dress in flannels, blue coats and yatching caps, and idle beneath striped awnings on the decks as they convey their contraband cargoes from the 12-mile limit.

"I don't know when I've met so many yachtsmen in the bootlegging business," one coast guardman said. "In the old days they all said they knew Andy Mellon—my friend Andy," they called him. But now it's Roosevelt who's their pal."

CITIES OF OREGON SHOWING BETTER FINANCIAL STATUS

SALEM, Ore.—(UP)—Financial condition of Oregon cities has showed considerable improvement in recent months, according to State Treasurer Rufus C. Holman.

On July 1, Oregon municipalities, outside of Portland, had a bonded indebtedness of $32,775,820, compared to $34,045,315 the same time 1932. During the same period warrant indebtedness increased from $1,914,309 to $2,069,957, leaving a net debt decrease of $1,115,047.

Of 193 cities reporting to the treasurer, 110 reduced their net indebtedness. Thirty-three reduced their bonded indebtedness and 104 their bonded indebtedness.

Larger cities making substantial reductions of obligations during the year included the following:

EMPLOYERS FACE PROSECUTION FOR FALSE NRA CLAIM

PORTLAND, Ore.—(Special)—Fines of $500 and six months' imprisonment are faced by employers who falsely represent themselves to be operating under the provisions of the blue eagle code, or who are fraudulently displaying the blue eagle. President Roosevelt today advised Portland district NRA headquarters.

The text of his executive order follows:

Executive Order.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 10 (a) of the national industrial recovery act approved June 16, 1933 (Public No. 67, 73rd Congress), I hereby prescribe the following rules and regulations necessary for carrying out the purposes of title I of said act:
