

THREE CIRCLES OF WOODCRAFT HOLD CONVENTION HERE

Neighbors of Woodcraft circles of Ashland, Phoenix and Medford held a district convention at the I. O. O. F. hall here Wednesday afternoon and evening. The meeting opened at 5 p. m. with a meeting of two juvenile circles. The two juvenile circles represented in the work were of Phoenix and Medford.

The hall was prettily decorated with large bouquets and baskets of fall flowers, carrying out the colors of the Neighbors of Woodcraft circles—red, white and green. A model juvenile meeting was conducted by members of the Phoenix juvenile circle, with the following officers in the chair: Senior guardian, Mildred Ward; guardian neighbor, Rosemary Bishop; past guardian neighbor, Jeanne Hancock; attendant, Helen Briscoe; advisor, Janet Bishop; clerk, Maxine Cobleigh; musician, Patricia Furry; banker, Dale Cobleigh; captain of guards, Harriet Briscoe; inner sentinel, June Bishop; outer sentinel, Maritta Furry; musician, Verna Loffer; flag bearers, Leola Cobleigh and Biddy Bishop; Harriet Briscoe, Barbara Standliff and Beverly Standliff, and Dorothy Parr of the Ashland juvenile circle, Mabel Hardesty of the Phoenix juvenile circle was also present.

A number of the adult members of the three adult circles were present to witness the work, also Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner and Grand Manager Ann Hawkins. During the meeting a corsage was presented to both the grand officers by the past guardian neighbor, who gave a presentation speech which would do credit to any other circle member.

At the close of the business session members of the Medford juvenile circle entertained with a dancing number with LaMurie Beck giving a toe dance. Both the grand officers spoke to the juvenile circles complimenting them on the fine work they were doing as exemplified in the afternoon.

Members of the Medford circle with their advisors, Mrs. Hilda Hansen, were introduced. All the juvenile circle members were then called to the banquet hall, where they were served with supper. The tables in this room were prettily decorated in flowers and fall berries, and candles, again carrying out the circle colors of red, white and green.

The meeting of the adult circle began with a potluck supper served in the banquet room at 8:30. As soon as all were assembled a few pep songs were enjoyed led by Mrs. Clara Fisher and Dorothy Loffer, with Clarence Hansen of Medford accompanying on the violin. The meeting was started at 8 o'clock with nearly 300 present. Members of Oak circle at Phoenix, Acorn circle at Ashland and Chrysanthemum circle of Medford were escorted into the circle room by the guard team of the Medford circle and introduced in turn by the guardian neighbor of the Medford circle, Mrs. Ruth Jones.

On opening of the meeting by the Medford guardian neighbor, the meeting was turned over to the officers chosen from the three circles to exemplify the work, as follows: Guardian neighbor, Mildred Ward of Phoenix; past guardian neighbor, Mrs. Adah Pankey, Ashland; advisor, Florence LaTourrette, Medford; attendant, Vivian Dalkeberg, Ashland; captain of guards, Lona Bergman; inner sentinel, Nettie Hallcroft, Phoenix; outer sentinel, Hilda Hansen, Medford; senior guardian, Florence A. Tucker, Ashland; musician, Dorothy Loffer, Phoenix; flag bearer, LaVern Dalkeberg, Ashland; correspondent, Elva Caster, Phoenix; managers, Rosell Wait, Phoenix; Gus Samuels, Medford; Will Bennett, Ashland; the guards, all of the Chrysanthemum circle of Medford, were: Bertha Penwell, Venita Anderson, Annabell Muchmore, Marjorie Pearson, Beate Gail, Tolitha Pickel, Susie DeVore, Florence Boussem, Etta Parker and Carrie Millness.

Flowers were presented by Mrs. Clara Fisher of the Medford circle to both the grand officers, while a song, "Roses Bring Memories," was sung by Marine Green of the Medford circle, with Lewis Parker of that circle accompanying her.

A model meeting, including balloting, initiation, opening and closing, was exemplified by the officers in the chairs, Mrs. Minnie Hiner offering constructive and pleasing criticism when mistakes were made in exemplifying the work.

A question box was opened and all questions answered by Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner. Greetings and messages were also brought by Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner and Grand Manager Ann Hawkins, and General Manager Clarence Dryden of Klamath Falls; and Mrs. Florence Morrison, guardian neighbor of Acorn circle of Ashland. Other visitors present were Mrs. Clarence Dryden of Klamath Falls circle and Mr. and Mrs. Regent, both of Klamath Falls.

An appreciation from Guardian Neighbor Ruth Jones of Chrysanthemum circle of Medford was expressed to all committees and others who worked to make the meeting a success.

The committees appointed from the three circles were: Entertainment, Beate Gail, Clara Fisher and Marjorie Pearson of Medford; Ada Huxley, Opal Phillips and Elva Caster of Ashland; and Elva Caster, Elva Briscoe and Dorothy Loffer of

LEGION PROGRAM IS DESCRIBED BY LOCAL CHIEFTAIN

The American Legion program for 1934, beginning at once, has just been compiled by national headquarters and a copy received by the Medford post No. 15 of the Legion here.

It is described by Oliver L. Overmyer, commander, as the most constructive and conservative in the history of the Legion. "No one can object to this," he said, "and every citizen of the United States can support it. The American Legion will have no difficulty this year. Every veteran of the World War should get into this work at once, because his help is needed. Our national commander, who is called the 'Abraham Lincoln of the Legion' in his home town, declares half of the men and women of the World War still living will join the Legion this year, and that it is up to each Legionnaire to see that they do. Then we must have a unity of thought in each of these activities, unity of expression and unity of action. We can have such teamwork under our national commander's leadership and cannot fail. Our first job is to thoroughly understand our program."

The major points of the program, in a nutshell, as outlined by national headquarters to the post officials here, follow: Restore those disabled in line of duty in the war to their status prior to March 20, 1933; hospitals in government institutions all serve veterans requiring it; restore active connection for the disabled veteran if his case was so stated prior to March 20, 1933; and provide government protection for dependent widows and orphans of veterans.

Increase Legion aid to needy children of veterans which has been necessitated by economy reductions of benefits to veterans; ratify child labor amendment in states where this has not yet been done; promote legislation, state and nationally, to provide public health facilities, and conduct educational campaigns concerning child welfare conditions, facilities, mothers' aid and legal adoption of minors.

Protect our schools from undue economy slashes, advance patriotism, character and health among students. Conduct youth activities including junior baseball, Boy Scouting, C. M. T. C., R. O. T. C., National Boys' week, junior rifle clubs and 4-H clubs. Participate in community service work. Sponsor reduction of immigration quotas by 90 per cent down to 10 per cent allowed under 1924 laws. Urge federal laws excluding aliens communists, and expulsion of aliens who would overthrow our government or who are beholden to the Third Internationale. Continue principle that naturalized citizens must bear arms in defense of this country in an emergency. Oppose recognition of communist Russia. A law and order committee will be appointed by the national organization to study the problem of crime, and devise plans for state and national Legion organizations to participate in curbing crime. Urge laws to end sale of machine guns and similar weapons except to military and law enforcement authorities. Build up the navy from third place, and the army from 17th place, to provisions of the London treaty. Oppose cancellation of any or all war debts. Advocate the United States entering into the League of Nations or to adherence to the World Court, either with or without reservations. Urge boards of review to make complete and conscientious consideration of all facts and circumstances pertaining to every claim of disabled veterans. Support the NRA in the present emergency and favor a sound American dollar. Advocate a careful study by our government of the dangers of inflation. Demand an equitable distribution of the tax burden and the elimination of injustices brought about by tax securities.

Missionary Film At Presbyterian Sunday Evening

Members and friends of the congregation of the Presbyterian church are looking forward with great interest to Sunday evening's service at the local church. During the program, motion pictures of mission work in Alaska will be shown. The reel of film, furnished by the Presbyterian Board of National Missions, depicts the work of the missionary and teacher in presenting Jesus Christ to those who know Him not. The information gained will be of great value to those who are interested in mission work and will present a thrilling aspect of the endeavor to those who have never known a great deal about this phase of evangelism.

As usual and in conjunction with the showing of the film, the regular young people's evangelistic service will be presented with Rev. William J. Howell as speaker of the evening. The young people's choir will offer a special number and other young people will take part in the prayer, Scripture reading and ushering. The service will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Be correctly coseted in an Artist Model by Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann. Daughters of Nile Patrol will hold another rummage sale in building opposite Rialto theater, Sat., Nov. 18.

SOUTHERN OREGON RABBIT BREEDERS WIDEN AFFILIATION

The Southern Oregon Mutual Rabbit breeders completed plans for affiliation with the American Fur Growers' Association, Inc., at a monthly meeting held at Lem Wilson's home in Jacksonville November 12.

At a previous meeting officers were elected for the local branch of the American Fur Growers' Association, Inc., as follows: President, C. C. Althouse; secretary-treasurer, Charles Fischer; first vice-president, J. C. Findley; second vice-president, Dr. I. H. Gove; plant manager, Mr. Peck. At this time the American Fur Growers, Inc., announces that they are in the market for any quantity of live rabbits that come up to specifications as set by them. All meat is marketed under the famous Do-Ra-Me brand.

The American Fur Growers' Association, Inc., is a co-operative movement of over 3000 members, and through its wide scope of activities its members receive a better price for their rabbits. It eliminates the chiseler and price cutter, and furnishes the consumer with rabbit meat that is produced under sanitary conditions. In other words a new deal for the rabbit grower has arrived. The raising of rabbits is now on a firm foundation. A reliable market is now open for growers for those who live in a radius of 100 miles of Medford.

Mr. Findley says he will have good news for the Angora wool rabbit growers at an early date. Any one interested in the plan of marketing under the American Fur Growers, Inc., can obtain further information by contacting the officers of the local branch or by inquiring at the Chamber of Commerce.

JUDGE RECOVERING FROM SEVERE COLD

Circuit Judge Harry D. Norton, who has been confined to his home since last Friday with a bad cold, complicated by having a tooth pulled, is improved and hopes to be able to resume his judicial duties by the first of next week. The illness delayed holding of the regular term of court in Josephine county this week, and the maintenance of the calendar schedule in this county, which was to be resumed today.
