

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon Hamilton

Society Is Quiet Prior To Holiday; Mr. Rankin Honored

Society during the past week has been experiencing the lull, which often precedes a holiday. With Thanksgiving still more than a week away, the events, which are planned, are scheduled for that time. The Elks will entertain with a holiday ball on Thanksgiving eve and numerous dinner parties are already arranged to precede the affair. Open house will be observed in several homes and many family parties, in keeping with fine old tradition, will bring guests to this city and take a number of folk away.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, who are returning from a trip thru the east, will stop in Passadena to spend the holiday with Mrs. Carpenter's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Blue.

A large event today will be the party at Rogue Elk Inn honoring Hugh B. Rankin, retiring supervisor of the Rogue River national forest. Employees of the forest are entertaining for their chief and the guest list will include forest officials, employees and their families and a few friends of the honor guest. Arrangements are being made to entertain 137 people.

Interest in football will be revived again next week-end for many local folk, when Stanford plays the University of California at Palo Alto. Among people going from this city will be: Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bardwell and Mr. and Mrs. T. Slater Johnston.

Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Perry of Pocatello, whose two daughters, Elizabeth and Frances, are students at Stanford this year, also plan to see the game, expecting dual thrills since Stanford is also their alma mater.

A welcome visitor in the valley this week is Mrs. Margaret Biddle of Yamhill ranch in Klamath county, who is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies. The Leonard Carpenters entertained at dinner for her presence Thursday evening at their attractive country place.

O.S.C. Club Meets Monday Evening

The court house auditorium will be the meeting place for Monday evening of the Oregon State College club and an invitation is extended to all alumni and former students of the college.

The committee for the occasion is composed of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders, Miss Lora Mitchell, Mrs. L. Moe and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fowler.

Gleaner Class Cancel Meeting
The Gleaner class of First Baptist church will not meet with Mrs. W. H. Eaton as planned for Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 21, but will attend the evangelistic meeting in a body, Tuesday evening they will sing their class song (by request), usher and act as reception committee at 8:30.

Mrs. Roberts Hostess To Neighborhood Club
Mrs. W. H. Roberts was hostess to the Oak Grove Neighborhood club on Thursday. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing. Mrs. C. W. Shores was appointed to call on the teachers of the Oak Grove school, and ascertain if there are any children in need of clothing.

The club members are willing to help to the best of their ability, those in need.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. C. Miner on Dec. 6.

Alpha Delta Class Enjoys Social Session
The Alpha Delta class of the Christian church Bible school held its regular monthly business meeting and social in the recreational hall of the church Thursday afternoon with about thirty members in attendance.

Needle work and conversation were the principal diversions of the afternoon. The committee, with Mrs. Everett Eads as chairman, served refreshments at the close of the social hour. A short business session preceded the social, being presided over by Mrs. C. M. Hon, the class president. The next meeting will be the Christmas party at which time Pollyanna gifts will be exchanged.

F. L. Club Holds Benefit Parties
A card party was held by the members of F. L. club last Thursday evening at the home of Georgia Hess, 224 Vancouver avenue. Those present were: Katherine Satterlee, Mabel Conder, Ethel Weed, Carrie McDannell, Mildred and Edna Hilderbrand, Bernice Sears, Jean Jennings, Helen Williams, Eleanor Curry, Caroline Leadon, Dorothy Armstrong, Lottie Caldwell and Georgia Hess. Various games were played after which light refreshments were served.

Several of these parties will be given at the various homes to benefit the club. Hostesses for the evening were: Georgia Hess, Edna Hilderbrand, Jean Jennings, and Dorothy Armstrong.

Miss Arizona, 1934

Students of University of Arizona have chosen pretty Dorothy Greer from Houston, Tex., as the most beautiful coed of the school and she will be the school's "Miss Arizona 1934." (Associated Press Photo)

Mr. Holbrook Given Birthday Party on 84th Anniversary

Entertaining for the pleasure of her father, J. F. Holbrook, who observed his 84th birthday November 10, Mrs. W. P. Andrews of 35 Vancouver avenue was hostess at dinner last week to twenty guests.

A beautiful birthday cake, decorated with 84 candles, announced the reason for the party.

Among guests present were: G. L. Holbrook of Klamath Falls, D. C. Holbrook of California, W. J. Holbrook and Virgil Holbrook of Malin, L. R. Holbrook of Talent, P. L. Andrews and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Andrews and family.

Post-Delphians Review Poetry

An interesting interpretation of the New Poetry was given by Mrs. F. H. Johnson at the meeting of the Post-Delphian club at the library last week.

Mrs. Katherine Fabrick Stie gave the reading from Edna St. Vincent Millay.

The next group meetings will be held November 23, group I at the home of Mrs. F. H. Johnson and group II at the home of Mrs. W. Campbell.

The following list of books was suggested to the members: "Tobacco Road," Erskine Caldwell; "Magnolia Street," Louis Golding; "A Fortnight in September," R. O. Sheriff.

"Twenty Years A-growing," Maurice O'Sullivan; "The Barbary Coast," Herbert Asbury; "The Anthology of Haiku," Miyamoto; "Man Wants But Little," Wilson Wright; "Impressions of S. America," Andre Seigfried; "Flush," Virginia Wolf.

F. E. O.'s To Meet With Mrs. Moore
There will be a meeting of the F. E. O. at the home of Mrs. E. A. Moore next Wednesday afternoon. Dessert will be served at 1:00 o'clock.

Lady Elks Meet Tuesday for Cards
Bridge, pool and bowling will be enjoyed by the Lady Elks Tuesday afternoon, when they gather at the local temple for their regular social time. All wives of local Elks are invited to be present.

Mrs. Hoyer Is Honored at Shower
Mrs. A. H. Gregory entertained at a shower Tuesday evening at her home on East Jackson street, in honor of Mrs. Carl Hoyer. A pleasant evening of games was enjoyed and the honor guest presented many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Invited for the evening were the honor guest, Mrs. Carl Hoyer, Mesdames M. E. Olson, Emilee Smith, Joe O'Brien, J. T. Davis, Clarence Pierce, Meta Cox, Mabel Marsh, W. R. Baird, and Mesdames Geraldine Latham, Alice Pahl, Virginia Gregory and Marjorie Gregory.
Mrs. Gregory was assisted by Mrs. Baird.

Stanford-Canfield Wedding Reported in Bay City Press

Medford folk go south this week to locate their interests in wedding news and will find it in the following announcement in Saturday's San Francisco Examiner:

This afternoon at 4, at the home of the bride in Piedmont, Miss Helen Winslow Stanford will be married to Mr. David Huntington Canfield of Crater Lake, Oregon, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. Mr. Joseph Winslow Stanford will give his daughter in marriage, and Miss Bernice Miller, a sorority sister, will be the only attendant. Mr. Russell Andrews, formerly of Palo Alto and now of Klamath Falls, Oregon, will be best man and there will be no ushers.

The couple will live in Klamath Falls, where the groom is connected with the national park service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winslow Stanford and a grandniece of the late Senator Stanford. She is a niece of Mrs. Mark L. Regua of Montecito. She was graduated from Stanford university, where she is a member of Kappa Gamma sorority.

Mr. Canfield is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hawley Canfield of Minneapolis, and is a graduate of the University of Minnesota. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The society section of the bay city paper also reports several social events arranged for the pleasure of the bride.

Mr. Canfield is well known in Medford through his work as chief ranger at the Crater Lake national park. Mr. Andrews, his best man at the wedding, also has many friends here.

Crater Lake Guild To Meet Monday
There will be a meeting of Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church Monday evening at the home of Mrs. B. C. Wilson, 63 West Fourth street.

Members are asked to arrive at 8:00 o'clock. Mrs. Wilson will be assisted in entertaining by Miss Gertrude Watling and Mrs. H. M. Weishaar.

Beautiful Setting For Building Bridge
An abundance of autumn foliage added beauty to the home of Mrs. J. R. O'Connor on Park avenue for the meeting there Thursday of the Building Bridge club. Red and green foliage also formed the centerpiece of the tea table, combined with candles.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Percy.

Priscilla Circle Has Pleasant Meeting
Priscilla circle met at the home of Mrs. F. B. Burr on Rose avenue last Wednesday. The hostess entertained for the pleasure of her mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Burk, Sr.

After the devotionals, Mrs. McDannel gave a reading in honor of the late Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. Wylie also gave a reading, "Gates Ajar." A Thanksgiving poem was read by Mrs. Lucretia Whitlock, after which the hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. Oatman Hostess To Missionary Group
The South Methodist Women's Missionary society will meet with Mrs. N. E. Oatman, 223 South Central on Tuesday afternoon for their social and program.

The two services for the annual week of prayer will be held in the church Thursday afternoon at 2:30 and Sunday evening, November 26 at 7:30 o'clock.

The Thursday afternoon program will consist of a worship and consecration service, followed by a radio program from Nashville, Tenn., which will deal chiefly with negro work. The offering for the home work for this year's week of prayer goes to Palms college, an institution which for fifty years has been giving to negroes a chance for the higher and broader life.

The Sunday evening service has to do with both the home and foreign spheres, the latter being the Stephen Memorial hospital of Changchow, China. The main features of the program as a dialogue, "Building and Curing in Changchow," by Mrs. Bills and Mrs. Albright; "Incidents in the Life of Paine College," Mrs. N. D. Wood; song by the choir, "Where Hast Thou Gleaned Today," with solo parts by Mesdames Nellie Elcher, Adahoe Seiler and Esther Hughes; pantomime, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee," Mrs. Dussie, solo by Mrs. Chase, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the missionary work.

Miss Nye to Wed Ivan Hardy Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Alfred Nye announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Anne, to Ivan Hardy Jones, of Austin, Texas.

Miss Nye is superior of home economics in the Austin junior high school, a position she has held for the past three years. Mr. Jones is assistant forest supervisor of Texas and at present is located in Lufkin, Texas.

Mrs. Wm. Fridegar Feted on Birthday

Mrs. Wm. Bryson and Mrs. Geo. B. Young entertained November 13 for Mrs. Wm. Fridegar in honor of the anniversary of her birthday.

The Young home in the Orchard Home district, was beautifully decorated in fall flowers for the occasion, and many friends of the honor guest called during the day. One o'clock luncheon was served and a portion of the afternoon spent in sewing. The Mesdames Evelyn and Beryl Brockway, Claudina Toile and Lela Young assisted in serving.

Refreshments were served by the committee: Mesdames Judy, Schaffer and A. B. Culy.

Quilt Fair, Event for Coming Friday

Women of the Christian church are planning a quilt fair for Friday, November 24, from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m., to be given in the recreation hall of the church. There will also be a display of games and antiques. A cafeteria luncheon will be conducted, and a small admission fee charged.

Pythian Home Benefitted

A benefit card party for the Pythian Home was held at the home of Mrs. Jessche on Friday evening. Mrs. Moffat and Mrs. Kilson assisted the hostess. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Ed Pease and Mrs. Mary Webber, and pinhead prizes by Mr. Swartz and Mrs. Wolf.

Mrs. Conrad Entertains Carnation Club Thursday
Mrs. J. F. Conrad was hostess Thursday evening to members of the Carnation club, at her home, 632 Palm street.

As the club is making a quilt, the members sewed on quilt blocks during the evening. Music was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Cave and Mrs. Conrad. The club extended its appreciation to the hostess, who so graciously entertained. Mrs. Conrad is not a member of the club.

Mrs. Rinabarger Honored at Party
Mrs. Ora Rinabarger was pleasantly surprised Monday evening when members of the Wenonah club gathered at her home.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening, high prize going to Elena Eskine and low to Maggie Eskine. After the usual number of games were played lovely refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Wenonah Club Entertained
The members of the Wenonah club were entertained at a bridge party Thursday afternoon at the home of Florence Rush. There were six tables of cards in play.

Blanche Rinabarger won high score for the afternoon and Mrs. Gibson low.

Mrs. Gladys Lawrence received the traveling prize.

Mattie Luman and Dorothy Dickey assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mable Quakenbush at the experiment station, December 7.

Many From Here Attend Party of Neighboring P.-T. A.

There were 13 tables of bridge in play at the party given by the Central Point Parent-Teacher association at the Grange hall Thursday evening.

Prizes at the very pleasant affair, were awarded Dr. B. G. Wilson, Miss Dee Scherfel, Donald Faber and Mrs. Sam Kohler. Mrs. Earl Leever, president of the Parent-Teacher association, yesterday voiced her appreciation of the cooperation of all who assisted in making the party a success, especially the many people in attendance from Medford.

Games were followed by serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Boshars Hostess to Class
Mrs. J. T. Boshars was hostess to the Golden Links Bible class of the First Baptist church Thursday afternoon. There was a short business session with the president presiding followed by a Thanksgiving address read by Mrs. Beach.

Refreshments were served by the committee: Mesdames Judy, Schaffer and A. B. Culy.

Travel Study Club Has Interesting Session

The Travel Study club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown and an interesting program was presented. Mrs. A. J. Hanby led the current events and reviewed "White Magic" by Joseph Apple.

Mrs. Laura West gave an interesting talk on her travels in Egypt, illustrating it with pictures and numerous curios, brought from there.

W. R. C. To Hold Phoenix Meeting
The Women's Relief corps held a special meeting Wednesday at the Armory for the purpose of inspection. Mrs. Annie E. Steinbaugh of Grants Pass was the inspection officer and she was accompanied by Louise Reed of that place.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon, after which the business meeting was held. Plans were made to meet with Mrs. Chas. Pickle at Phoenix November 23 for an all day social meeting. Members are asked to take a covered dish.

Mesdames Boshars and Miner Entertain
Mrs. J. T. Boshars and sister, Mrs. J. S. Miner, were hostesses to the women's auxiliary of the First Baptist church Tuesday. The president, Mrs. Grace Crawford, presided.

This chapter describes the last supper—Judas' bargain to betray Christ. The prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane and Judas' kiss.

A covered dish luncheon was served by George T. B. Davis' booklet entitled, "Praying Through for Revival." Request for prayer for sick missionaries. Prayer, Mrs. B. F. Neff.

A basket of provisions was prepared for a needy family, some of whom are ill.

Mrs. Boshars then announced the program for the afternoon. Dr. C. W. Cutler spoke in place of his wife, who was detained at Lakeview, but will be here Thursday. He told of the chapel card work and the Home Mission society.

He also told of some results of the work while at Grants Pass. One whole family of six converted. In Albany 28 in one day gave their hearts to God. He closed with the thought, "God Still Lives and Loves." "God Will Win."

Solo, "Just for Today," was sung by Mrs. B. F. Neff.

Reading "Marjorie Gray" (a pioneer story) by Edith M. Griffin.

Solo, "Golden Bells Ring for You and Me," Helen Judy.

Seeks Career

Viola Curwood, daughter of the late James Oliver Curwood, novelist, is in Hollywood trying to decide on a career of acting, painting or writing. (Associated Press Photo)

Daughters of Nile Prepare Boxes for Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving is not far distant and local members of the Daughters of the Nile are already making plans to assure the little crippled children in the Shrine hospital at Portland something for which to be thankful, when the world outside gathers at festive boards. Each year the Daughters of the Nile prepare boxes for the children. Committees have been named in Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass to carry on this season's work and Monday, November 27, has been chosen as the time limit for filling of boxes.

The local committee is composed of Mrs. Chas. L. Woods, Mrs. J. A. Perry, Mrs. C. E. Gates and Mrs. W. E. Hiltson. Donations for the boxes will be received at Mrs. Woods' home, 103 Genesee street, this week. Persons unable to deliver contributions are asked to telephone 1640 and a car will call for them.

Phoenix Thursday Club to Meet
The Phoenix Thursday club will hold a special meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Bert Stancliff. All members are urged to attend.

Laudys of Portland Welcome Son
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lundy of Jacksonville highway are the grandparents of a baby boy, born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lundy, Nov. 8th, at Emanuel hospital, Portland. Mrs. Lundy returned Wednesday evening on the Shasta from Portland, where she visited the Charles Lundy.

Mrs. Putnam Honored At Lovely Shower
Mrs. M. E. Putnam was hostess last week at her home, 828 Newtown, at a miscellaneous shower, honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Glen Putnam. White chrysanthemums decorated the rooms for the occasion and many lovely gifts were received by the honor guest. Refreshments were served following the social time.

Present were: Mrs. M. O. Wilkins, Mrs. C. McEwen, Mrs. Mildred Taylor, Mrs. Ruth Edmonds, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Harry Lacey, Mrs. Hawk, Mrs. Mabel Yorton, Miss Juanita Yorton, Mrs. George Beldin, Mrs. Fred Stephenson, Mrs. Mabel Cox, Mrs. Fred Harvey, the honor guest and the hostess.

Parish Hall, Scene of Turkey Dinner Wednesday Evening

Plans are nearing completion for the Thanksgiving dinner to be sponsored by the women of the Catholic church this coming Wednesday at the parish hall.

Mrs. Mary Weston, chairman of the affair promises a dinner in keeping with the highest expectations for the holiday season. It will be turkey and homecooked.

Lady Kiwanians To Meet Monday
The Lady Kiwanians will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gus Newbury for the first meeting of the year and a large attendance is anticipated.

Reames Chapter To Hold Invitation
Reames Chapter O. E. S., will hold regular meeting Wednesday evening, November 22, at eight o'clock. Their will be initiation and the November committee will serve refreshments.

Members are urged to be present and visiting members will be welcome.

Grants Pass Women To Attend Meeting
A very interesting and instructive program has been arranged for the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, which will meet at the church parlors Tuesday afternoon, November 21st, at 2 o'clock, for annual Thanksgiving service. Miss Elizabeth Burr will lead the devotionals fitting to this season of the year. The Thanks offering will also be taken. In addition to the regular topic, "Southern Mountains," which will be presented by Mrs. N. C. Chaney, several women from Grants Pass including the Presbyterial president, Mrs. T. M. Stott and Mrs. John Hoffman, the Presbyterial minister's wife, will be present and give a report of the recent state synodical meeting held in Portland. Mrs. E. N. Warner, of this city, who also attended the state meeting one day, will give her glimpses of the meeting. The ladies from the missionary society in Phoenix are invited and anyone interested in missions will be welcomed.

Mrs. Boyle, Hostess To Club at Bridge

Mrs. J. C. Boyle was hostess Wednesday at desert bridge to Women of Rotary. There were 24 present for the pleasant affair and high score was held by Mrs. Jack Swem.

Assisting Mrs. Boyle in entertaining were Mrs. Chas. Glen Smith and Mrs. Roland Hubbard.

DR. H. P. COLEMAN
Chiropractic and Physiotherapy
Oregon License 164
California License 3029
12 Years in Medford, Ore.

Free Enlargement with each roll of film printed.
Gardner Drugs

Hand Bags

Exquisitely Fashioned
Calfskin and Steer Hide

at
Closing Out Prices

25% to 40%
Discount

Lawrence's

THE MYSTERIOUS WORLD WITHIN YOU
These strange feelings of intuition and premonition are the urges of your inner self. Within you there is a world of unlimited power. Learn to use it and you can do the right thing at the right time and realize a life of happiness and abundance. Send for now, FREE, SEALED BOOK that tells these fascinating facts. Address: FRIAR W. D. A. ROSICRUCIAN BROTHERHOOD, SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

LARRY SCHADE
Diamonds - Watches
Jewelry
Silver Ware
YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Special Attention: Newtown Growers
We have a large order for Newtowns, part of which we are unable to fill, 135s to 216s size Newtowns, cold storage stock, both Extras and Fancies.
If any grower has Newtowns in cold storage and is interested, call at the American Fruit Growers Office on North Central Avenue.
G. R. GREEN
District Manager

FRESH From the Decorator's Touch
Hotel Manx presents a new, brighter face to its California friends. Every room is charming, and is being modernized to the last detail. Running ice water, Dining Room and Coffee Shop in connection. Door attendant and garage service.
NEW DEAL RATES
Without Bath—Single..... 1.50—2.00
Without Bath—Double..... 2.00—2.50
With Bath—Single..... 2.00—2.50—3.00
With Bath—Double..... 3.00—3.50—4.00
Hotels, attractive priced.
MANX
MEET ME AT THE MANX
Managing Owner, Chairman California Hotel Association
POWELL at O'FARRELL • SAN FRANCISCO

SMART SET
Majestic RADIO
Isn't it smart!
IT'S the new Majestic Century Six—charter member of the "Smart Set" of Radio!
Walnut blended with lacewood. Velvety hand-rubbed piano finish. Flashing chromium grill.
A superheterodyne, naturally. Six tubes that serve as eight... for two are Duo-Valve tubes—two in one!
A Majestic feature—these Duo-Valve Self-Shielded tubes...
The "air" is a new world with this super-performing radio. Yes, police calls. See and hear the Century Six. The price... $45.00
Complete Radio Service—Parts—Used Radios
Witham Super Service
Eighth and Riverside. Phone 116

With DR. THOMPSON'S
DOUBLE SUCTION PLATES THAT FIT
You can have your Turkey and EAT it, too
For these life-like plates are made to fit tight in your mouth, so you can eat, chew, smile and talk as naturally as with normal teeth.
HUNDREDS OF SATISFIED PATIENTS RECOMMEND MY PLATES
DENTAL WORK AT PORTLAND PRICES
Dr. Thompson
"Best for Less"
Opp. 1st Nat'l Bank
123 East Main
PRICES AND TERMS YOU CAN AFFORD
Phone 70

Murray's
Art Hairdressers
41 S. Central - Phone 363
Let us give you a beautiful Permanent before Thanksgiving. Complete for $3.75.