Missionary Group Has Meeting at F. M. Corlies Home

The monthly meeting of the W. H. M. S. of the First M. E. church, was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. M. Corlies on Laurel street.

Mrs. W. A. Holloway presided during the business session. The yearly Thanks Offering service will take place the last Sunday evening of this month with an interesting program as a feature. It was announced. The next meeting of the society will be with Mrs. W. Campbell on East Main street.

The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Grace Pantley, theme, "The winding path, and connecting roads," Luke 4-45.

Mrs. W. Hill gave a review of the study chapter, theme, "The man, the machine, the job," presented in an interesting and informative manner.

Mrs. Koppen with the aid of a map gave the history of the "Home Society" from the year of its beginning, in 1880, up to the present time, with Messames Kunzman, Walker, Andrews and Phipps supplementing different periods.

The Misses Patricia Short and Margery Olson, put on a pantomime of the "Mite Box and the Pocket Book," which was well received.

The hostess, Mrs. Corlies, was assisted by Miss Phipps in serving refreshments during the social half hour.

Presbyterians Plan Service

Once again the young people of the Presbyterian church have arranged a Sunday evening gospel service. In addition to the regular evening evangelistic song-service and message, a motion picture reel showing mission work in Alaska, will be displayed. These pictures are furnished by the presbyterial board of national missions and are a part of the educational program of the church.

Alice English will give an explanatory talk with the films and Donald Price will be in charge of the display. Sunday evening's speaker will be Rev. William J. Howell, pastor of the church. Mr. Howell will present another of his sermons, illustrating the efficiency of the gospel of Jesus Christ in the world today. Other young people taking part in the service are: Pianist, Margery Paley; song leader, Constance Moore; prayer, Noel Benson; scripture, Pauline Champin; ushers, Evelyn Randle, Mary Kirschelm, Bob Littrell and Dor Barrett.

The young people's choir, under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. Howell, will present a special number. This choir is composed of some thirty young people. The service begins promptly at 7:30 and all are invited to attend. Non-church-goers of Medford are also especially urged to attend these services.

Wednesday Club Studies Banking

The members of the Wednesday Study club enjoyed a timely and interesting program at the meeting held in the Women's club rooms, on November 15.

Mrs. C. A. Meeker gave a talk on "New Developments in Banking." She told briefly how banking had developed as the country had grown and in so doing had been adapted to the current needs. The federal reserve system was shown to have been a step forward along this line. Different forms of banking, such as branch banking, mutual savings banks were discussed and new banking reforms, including the Glass-Steagall bill were explained.

In the book review of Basil P. Blackett's "Planned Money," Mrs. J. H. Cochran showed the necessity of national planning, not only economically but socially and politically. Stability of currency and a maintained price level were given as a necessity which could be achieved only through planning. An explanation of the successful experiment in managed currency being carried out in Sweden was given.

"Current events" for the afternoon took on the form of an impromptu discussion of news of interest.

P. T. A. Notes

"Daddy's Night" at Jackson school on Friday, Nov. 24, is to be a festive event. A delicious turkey dinner planned by Mrs. L. A. Warden and her committee is to be served in the traditional pleasing style. Parents are asked to arrive at 8:30, bringing their own dinner service.

The program will include, community singing led by Dr. E. W. Shockley, songs by Merland Tollefson, several dancing numbers by students from the Benson Studios, and a Jackson school boys' quartet. The speaker of the evening will be County Judge E. B. Day.

Daily Groups
Jackson P. T. A. radio discussion groups will meet on Monday, Nov. 20 at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Short, 622 West Second street, and Mrs. C. I. Hays, 49 Quince street. Any interested person is cordially invited to attend either group.

City Council
The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher City Council will be held Tuesday, Nov. 21 at the home of Mrs. Charles Thompson at 1004 W. Fourth.

This will be a covered dish luncheon.

Mrs. Eldon Drysdale will give a report of the state convention. Regular business meeting will follow.

Junior High
An executive committee meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Harry Rinabarger Monday. Plans for the year's work were discussed and important business matters cared for.

Urgent business included communications from the state president, Mrs. Wm. Kietzer, regarding school issues to be taken up at the special legislative sessions.

Resolutions were passed, urging our legislators to avert a crisis in school matters by passing a bill to assist the school districts in meeting outstanding indebtedness.

Other resolutions, addressed to Hugh B. Johnson were passed. One urging the retention in the new code of the clause allowing individual exhibitors to reject a certain percentage of the pictures in a block.

Second, to protest the clause being sponsored by movie interests, which would restrict the showing of educational films, except by regular exhibitors.

The finance committee submitted plans for replenishing the treasury. These were approved by the executive committee, and plans were made to carry them out at once, rather than wait for the approval of the association.

A series of card parties to be given by workers of the association was planned. The first, given at the home of Mrs. Ed Pose assisted by Mrs. L. P. Stubbins, was held Thursday, with four tables of bridge in play.

Other parties are being planned for the near future.

Daddy's Night
The Parent-Teacher association of the Washington school has designated Friday, November 24 as "Daddy's Night."

This is the one evening of the year when the fathers are the honor guests.

A splendid dinner provided by the women of the circle will be served at 6:30. Dinner will be followed by a program and stunts, under the leadership of George Henselman and a social evening and general good time will follow. It is especially desired that all patrons of the school attend and become acquainted with the school life of their children.

Pythian Club Has Bridge Club
The regular meeting of the Pythian club was held last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Fisher. Bridge was enjoyed during the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jackson and Delia Frost. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. Fisk, Tuesday, November 28th.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

By Beth Gillings

Troop 1 held a surprise party last Monday, honoring the birthdays of Lida O'Neal, Dorothy Burgess, and Beth Gillings. The evening was spent in playing games and giving charades. The serving of fruit jello and cakes with birthday candles brought the evening to a close. Miss Ruth Muesel acted as leader in the absence of Miss Sibyl Walker, who is ill. Committees for the party were: Games, Barbara Holt, Clella Walker, and Jean Gillings; refreshments, A. Latham and Irene Stubblefield.

Invitations were made and cut out at the meeting of the Dark Hollow Brownies of the Washington school last Wednesday. The Twenties passed the intelligence part of their Brownie test and the Brownies tied up packages as part of their Golden Bear test. New sisters and seconds were appointed. Betty Latham is Sixer of the Pixie Six with Janet Turpin as her second; Dorothy Stubblefield is sixer and Virginia Clegg is second of the Elf Six; Marjorie Cox is sixer of the Fairy Six and Cora Ella Havena is second; Jeanne Erskine is sixer and Natalie Parker is second of the Kelpie Six.

The Twenties passed part of their intelligence test last Tuesday. Several of the girls are nearly ready for their pins. Betty Paske, who will be pack leader of that pack, and Jean Gillings, who will be Tawny Owl, were present.

Tawny Owl Miss Ethel Houston of pack two, which met last Tuesday read the Twenties the first Brownie story. Then Brown One Miss Opal Harvey, led them in games. The meeting days of the two packs have been changed. Pack two will meet on Tuesdays and pack three on Thursdays.

Queen Esther Circle To Meet
The Queen Esther section of the Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. H. H. Harvey, 106 Lincoln street, Tuesday afternoon.
