

Local and Personal

Leaves for North—E. W. Carlson of Table Rock left Friday evening on the Oregonian for the north.

Bicycle Stolen—Jack Latourette of 1317 North Riverside reported to city police Saturday that his bicycle was stolen.

Mrs. Prescott Returns—Mrs. O. J. Prescott returned home the first of the week after an extended visit to Jefferson, Iowa and vicinity.

At Park Office—Miss Maravene Kiddle of LaGrande, is employed at the office of the Crater Lake National park in the federal building here, having come here recently.

"Rosey" to Game—A. S. Rosenbaum was among the local football fans who journeyed to Ashland to see the "SCNS" homecoming game with the "EONS" yesterday.

Lip Is Cut—A. B. Allen of this city suffered a cut lower lip Saturday morning when his automobile crashed into the rear end of the car which I. Krostein of Los Angeles was driving four miles north of Medford.

Leaves Saturday—C. M. Allen, telephone engineer for the forest service with headquarters in Portland, left Saturday for the north, having spent the past week in the Rogue river national forest.

On Inspection Trip—Lieutenant Robert H. Soule and Lieutenant Robert T. Frederick of the CCG headquarters here, left Saturday morning on an inspection tour to various camps in the district.

Held in Jail—Nate Dyer, 27, and Roy Johnson, 40 pleaded guilty in justice court Friday to vagrancy, and were sentenced to fifteen days in the county jail. They were arrested early in the week by state police.

Runyard to Medford—Donald Runyard, lighting specialist for the California Oregon Power Company has returned to his headquarters at the Copco home office after a short business visit in Klamath Falls.

Have Tires Stolen—Walter Looker reported to the city police that Friday night he had two tires stolen from 606 West Fourth street, and L. F. Schulz of 822 Cedar said two tires were stolen from a trailer at his place.

Return Today—Mrs. Joe Cave and young son Jimmie are expected to return to Medford this evening from Myrtle Creek, where they have been spending the past ten days visiting Mrs. Cave's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Aldredge.

Sunday is Bound Over—S. S. Sunday, charged with forgery of an endorsement, was bound over to the grand jury when arraigned in justice court Saturday morning. Bail was fixed at $500. Sunday is being represented by Attorney Robert Hammond.

Circle Plans Bazaar—Mrs. F. R. Hagerty and Mrs. Fred Root entertained the Ever Ready circle Tuesday, with 19 members present. Plans were discussed for the bazaar to be held December 8. Mrs. Fred Lindley was in charge of the devotional. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Class to Meet—Loyal Women's Bible class of the First Christian church will meet in the recreational hall of the church Tuesday afternoon, at two o'clock, according to announcement. All members are urged to attend as important business matters will be considered. Visitors are invited.

Meetings Continue—Evangelistic meetings are continuing with interest at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Cutler was at the service Thursday evening. Dr. Cutler spoke especially to those who have their names on "church." The church is a power if do the work. The "members" the "church." The church is a power if each one loves the Lord, he said. The Junior League choir sat on the platform and sang several choruses. The B. Y. P. U. ladies quartet sang "Drifting Away from God."

RCA PERFECT SOUND
15¢ ROXY 15¢
THEATRE
ANYTIME - KIDDIES A TIME - ANYTIME
Starts TODAY
Continuous Shows 1:45-11

HEAVEN HELP A SAILOR ON A NIGHT LIKE THIS!

SAILOR'S LUCK
with James DUNN and Sally EILERS

ALSO - TALKARTOON
POOCH THE PUP CARTOON
NEWS

Cited to Court—Luther Jenkins, who September 10 was arrested by Deputy State Fire Warden John D. Holst, has been cited to appear in justice court in Medford to face the charges of smoking while traveling within a closed fire area.

Accept Positions—Several well known young men of this community have accepted a position with the California Oregon Power Company in connection with the "Better Light" campaign sponsored by local merchants and Copco. Among the recent additions to the personnel of the Copco lighting staff are Lloyd Williamson, Ben Day and Norman Gall.

To Give Operetta—Talent school give an operetta, "The Magic Piper," under the direction of Miss Dorothy Baughman, on November 24, according to announcement made Saturday.

Names Omitted—Through an error, the names of Mrs. Sadie Gill, clerk, and Mrs. Sylvia Barkdull, advisor, of the Medford Neighbors of Woodcraft, were omitted from the report of the gathering held here Wednesday evening.

Send for Plates—Lee G. Garlock, local representative of the American Automobile association, announced Saturday that his office will send for 1934 license plates, for the members, which are obtainable through the Portland office. Mr. Garlock said that they would be available immediately after December 15, the date announced by the secretary of state's office.

Reports to Police—Jimmie Baylis, who resides on the Hillcrest road, had his bicycle stolen Friday from the Junior high school, a report on file at city police station says.

Stops in Medford—E. J. Hanslik, forest inspector, is spending the week-end in Medford before continuing to Lakeview where the headquarters for the Fremont national forest are located.

See Strange Star—K. Widmer, who resides in the Butte Falls district called at the Mail Tribune office Saturday morning, and reported that Friday evening, about 5:07 o'clock, he saw a strange star falling in the vicinity of Roxy Ann. It gave off a bluish-white light, he said. The local weather bureau, stationed at the Medford Municipal airport said that no report had been made by their operators of any such spectacle.

Matinee 1:45-3:15 RIALTO Evening 7:00-9:00

TODAY and MONDAY

A Parade of Hearts... Hate... Intrigue Fighting... Reckless Adventure!

The romance of a man . . . reckless with himself . . . reckless in love . . . enacted against the background of the seething Sahara with the Foreign Legion . . . going willingly to a devastating fate . . . because one woman had faith in him!

The DEVILS IN LOVE

with VICTOR JORY LORETTA YOUNG VIVIANNE OSBORNE DAVID MANNERS C. HENRY GORDON HERBERT MUNDIN A FOX PICTURE

On the Stage Today Only... All Shows

Paul Bunyan and his Lumberjacks

RADIO ARTISTS FROM KEX-KOIN

Songs and Music of the Woods

See Paul Bunyan do amazing tricks with his double-bladed axe . . . you'll get a new thrill!

PRICES FOR TODAY ONLY
Adults 25c MATINEE EVENING Kiddies 10c

Shows at 1:45 7:00-9:00

CRATERIAN

Mats . . . 25c
Eves . . . 35c
Kiddies 10c

Starts Today for 3 Days!

THE SAGA OF THE SKIES!

"THE MAIL MUST FLY"... a slogan that drives men to daring deeds... that stretches the courage of their women to its farthest limits!...

Here is the most thrilling drama of the night air-mail ever written... Modern... Momentous... Romantic... not a war story but a mighty drama of this present day!

- ★ John BARRYMORE
- ★ Helen HAYES
- ★ Clark GABLE
- ★ Lionel BARRYMORE
- ★ Robert MONTGOMERY
- ★ Myrna LOY

From the story by the famous French novelist, Antoine de Saint-Exupery

"Night Flight"

"For the passion of a woman's embrace... man dares all!"

"For the thrill of man's great courage woman's gives all!"

