At Studio Today

"Hell Below," one of the outstanding photoplays of the year, opens today at the Studio theatre. This much discussed submarine drama, filmed with the cooperation of the United States Navy, and based on the story, "Fighona" by Commander Edward Ellsberg. Robert Montgomery heads the cast of the production and featured roles are played by Walter Huston, Madge Evans, Jimmy Durante, Eugene Pallette and Robert Young. New York critics concede "Hell Below" to be the most thrilling marine drama yet to reach the screen, striking effects having been achieved for the first time by the use of new developments in undersea photography.

Double Bill On Rialto Program

One of the most satisfying attractions of recent weeks is offered at the Rialto theatre today with Paul Bunyon and his Lumberjacks appearing in person on all shows on the stage and Victor Jory and Loretta Young featured in "The Devil in Love," on the screen. "The Devil in Love" has Jory in his first romantic role, cast as a member of the Foreign Legion whom circumstances sends through an entire gamut of honor and dishonor. Paul Bunyon and his Lumberjacks offer songs and music.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

By Mrs. Goodwin Humphrey
The Auxiliary has been striving for a membership goal—"Over the top on Armistice day." This year that goal was reached and the president, Mrs. Walter Olmstead, wishes to thank all those who helped make this possible. Mrs. E. J. Leach and Mrs. O. L. Overmyer are chairmen of the membership committee. All those interested in music have a special privilege in having Mrs. Elsie Carlson Strang as their director. The next meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Warren Butler. The last meeting of the Auxiliary was "social night." There was a large attendance and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Mrs. Geo. Coddling, unit activities chairman, was in charge. Mrs. Overmyer and Mrs. Coddling presented a pantomime and Mrs. C. O. Larson accompanied them. The male quartet of the high school, accompanied by Mrs. Baldwin, gave several numbers which were greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Roland Smith and Mrs. Olmstead as chairmen. Personalities Mrs. J. W. Jacobs is enjoying a pleasant stay in California. A tiny new member was added to the Auxiliary list last week, a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Humphries. Miss Margaret Kerr won the membership prize at the Armistice luncheon. Little Roger Butler and little Joe Flegel led the sons and daughters of Legionnaires in the parade Armistice day. The Auxiliary regrets the loss of two members by transfer, Mrs. H. R. Pace and Mrs. H. R. Edwards. Guild Party Well Attended Wednesday Among pleasant events of the past week was the party, sponsored Wednesday evening at St. Mark's Guild hall by members of the Guild. There were 11 tables of cards in play and prizes awarded Mrs. Morrison at contract, Miss C. M. McDougall at progressive bridge and J. A. McDougall at pivot. Presbyterian Women Name Bazaar Committee At a recent meeting of the Women's association of the Presbyterian church, plans were made for a bazaar to be held Thursday, December 5. Mrs. Hamilton Patton was appointed general chairman with the following committee: Mrs. Ralph Ewens, Mrs. Volney Dixon, Mrs. Jennie Merritt, Mrs. Harry Prentice, Mrs. H. M. Weisbar and Miss Helen Wilson.

Fine Cast In Craterian Drama

With one of the greatest casts ever assembled for any film, "Night Flight" opens a three day engagement at the Craterian Theatre tonight in South America. It has been described as the only real, truly accurate, authentic and human airplane story so far written.

"Kennel Murder Case" at Holly

Who killed Archer Coe? That is the most baffling question that Philo Vance, the famous and debonaire detective character created by S. S. Van Dine, and impersonated by William Powell in "The Kennel Murder Case," now playing at the Holly theatre, ever has been called upon to answer.

Stewart-Warner Radios Now At Don's Radio Ser.

Don Carter announces that the new Stewart-Warner radio, "With all that is newest and finest," are now on display at Don's Radio Service, located at 423 East Main. Mr. Carter says, "This year Stewart-Warner has another achievement to its credit, known as "Dual Harmony," which is something new in radio. It means that these modern radios have the harmony of a handsome piece of furniture to match the decorative scheme of a room, plus the harmony of a fine musical instrument. These sets come in exact reproductions of choice period furniture in all the dignity and beauty of the original pieces and with speech, sound and music that reach the ear with a fidelity, smoothness and clarity of tone that is amazing even in this day of modern wonders. It is truly a double value." Don's Radio Shop will continue to handle Crosley radios. They carry a complete stock of National Union tubes which are guaranteed for six months and give the utmost service, according to Mr. Carter. Don's have just installed a new tube checker which will give the condition of any tube, from the oldest to the newest. The Catholic Ladies are serving a Thanksgiving dinner at Parish hall, November 22. Turkey, cranberry sauce and everything delicious that goes to make a Thanksgiving dinner. Price 25c for children and 50c for adults. Serving 6:30 to 7:30. Those planning to attend the concert on the 15th are reminded that associate membership tickets will admit three people to both concerts and are advised to obtain their tickets immediately as the charge at the door will be more. The price of an associate membership ticket is $2.00 permitting three persons to attend two concerts or six persons to attend one concert, and are available at the chamber of commerce. With only a month to go before the first concert is scheduled it is imperative that associate membership tickets be obtained immediately as the sale of same, will, in all probability, be withdrawn at the time of the first concert on December 15th. FOUR SQUARE CHURCH FORMING ORCHESTRA The Four Square Church is organizing an orchestra and a hearty welcome awaits anyone who wishes to play string or wind instruments. Mr. Allen from southern California is here to direct the orchestra. While in California he directed a 35-piece orchestra and is well able to handle the job, church leaders say. He correctly coseted in an Artist Model by Ethelwyn B. Hoffman. Those planning to attend the concert on the 15th are reminded that associate membership tickets will admit three people to both concerts and are advised to obtain their tickets immediately as the charge at the door will be more. GLEEMEN CONCERT SCHEDULED DEC. 15

Announcement was made yesterday by R. W. Frame, president, that the first concert of the Medford Gleemen for this season will be held at the high school auditorium on Friday, December 15th. It is the plan of the Gleemen to present two concerts this season and music lovers of southern Oregon will no doubt be glad that a decision has been made on the first appearance. The Gleemen have done a tremendous amount of good work in fostering good will between the city of Medford and the rural districts by visiting the various granges and this work will be kept up throughout the winter, according to Mr. Frame. It is in order to finance the music and other incidental expenses that the Gleemen plan their two big appearances in Medford this season and the singing aggregation should be given the fullest cooperation and support. Mr. Carter says, "This year Stewart-Warner has another achievement to its credit, known as "Dual Harmony," which is something new in radio. It means that these modern radios have the harmony of a handsome piece of furniture to match the decorative scheme of a room, plus the harmony of a fine musical instrument.
