

LIONS CLUB PLANS PARK AND PICNIC LOT FOR JUBILEE

Monday was jubilee program day for the Lions club, when members met at the Hotel Holland for luncheon. Events centered around the activities to be carried on by the club for Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration next summer.

The Lions some time ago were instrumental in developing the American Legion playgrounds on Bear Creek and feel that this project may grow into an equally worthy civic improvement.

The civic relations work of the chamber of commerce was described at Monday's luncheon by A. H. Banwell, manager of the chamber.

Plans for the firemen's ball, scheduled for Thanksgiving night, were also announced, and the cooperation of all Lions urged as funds realized from the dance will make possible the rejuvenation of the park to be distributed by the Lions to needy children at Christmas.

H. W. Conger, president, presided today and Judge W. R. Coleman and C. L. Hopkins composed the committee with Lion Shangle directing entertainment. Guests were Bob Keeney, and L. R. Terkelsen, assistant manager of Montgomery Ward Co. here.

METEOR SIGHTED NEAR ROXY ANN

Further report of a large meteor seen apparently headed for earth in the vicinity of Roxy Ann Friday evening, was given today by Fred A. Smith. With a state surveying party Mr. Smith was headed north on the Pacific highway near Nell creek about 5 o'clock Friday evening when the brilliant visitor was seen for several minutes, finally disappearing behind Grizzly peak.

The meteor was travelling north and west, at about a 45-degree angle, according to Mr. Smith and judging from the report carried in The Mail Tribune Sunday, as given by X. Wildmer of Butte Falls, would undoubtedly have struck earth somewhere in the Roxy Ann area.

Following by Mr. Smith, the meteor was followed by a long trail of brilliant light from the under side of which dripped sparks as from a roman candle.

No report of seeing or hearing a meteor strike had been received from the immediate vicinity of Roxy Ann.

FIRST OF PLAYS AT HIGH SCHOOL SLATED DEC. 8TH

Tryouts for the first of a series of Associated Student Body plays were held at Medford high school Friday. The plays are for the purpose of raising money for the student body by pay assemblies. There are to be several of these during the year, under direction of Ralph Bailey. Date for the first play is set for December 8.

Work is now being started on "The Wessel," by George M. Roberts, the first one of the series. There are six leads—two feminine and four masculine. There were many students trying out, thus giving Mr. Bailey some excellent material from which to pick his cast.

Mr. Bailey expressed his appreciation of the help and cooperation the students had given and hoped for an even better turnout next time.

The cast has been selected as follows: Aunt Mary Cooper—Patricia Young Betty—Alene Ray Perkins (Bob Saylor)—Bob Gail Officer and Wessel—Lucien Smith Platinclotus Man—Ted Lindley Messenger—Bob Murphy

The story chosen is a clever, fast-moving comedy crook drama. The scene takes place in the drawing-room of Mrs. Mary Cooper. The story opens with arrival of Mrs. Cooper's niece, Betty, for a visit. Betty discovers that her fiancé has disguised as the new butler in order to be near her. A famous jewelry crook called the "Wessel" complicates matters by choosing Mrs. Cooper as a victim of his plans. The story is full of action and never loses its momentum from the start until the end.

Fourteen girls and 10 boys tried out. Several belong to the Dramatic club, but the percentage is small. A complete list is as follows: Patricia Young, Alene Ray, Patsy Smith, Barbara Holt, LaMurie Beik, Susette Stennett, Marguerite Boyle, Esther Alexander, Pauline Champlin, Margaret Ward, Frances Porter, Helen Crane, Patricia Carlton and Mary Ken. Ted Lindley, Lucien Smith, Bob Gail, Boyd Prince, Bob Murphy, Bob Gray, Krause, Eugene Shade, George Watson, Bob Young and Dan Grey.
