

LOUGHRAN WINS WHEN REFEREE'S RULE SET ASIDE

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—With the aid of one of the most surprising actions ever taken in a New York ring, Tommy Loughran, the veteran boxer from Philadelphia, has demonstrated that the young giant, Ray Impellittere, isn't ready to become a heavyweight title contender yet.

The big moment of the battle, which otherwise was mostly a demonstration of Loughran's well-known boxing skill, came in the sixth round. A right uppercut caught his mouth and cut it badly. Referee Pete Hartley wasted no time about halting the proceedings. After one look at the stream of blood pouring down Loughran's chest, he raised Impellittere's hand in token of victory.

At this point, General John J. Phelan, chairman of the New York state athletic commission, took a hand. Fighting his way through the howling crowd of 6,000 to the ring-side, he ordered the fight continued. No one at the ringside could recall a similar situation in which a commissioner had overruled a referee. Tommy was patched up between rounds and promptly lit into his oversize opponent and never stopped punching until the fight ended.

The "imp" however, showed surprisingly sound boxing form. He jabbed his long left at Tommy's face, used his right uppercut well at times and made the Philadelphia open up with every bit of his best boxing to get anywhere.

Loughran weighed 185½ pounds, Impellittere 255½.

PINS CANTONWINE WITH BODY SLAMS

PORTLAND, Nov. 23.—(AP)—After losing the first fall, Jack Forgren, 230, of Vancouver, B. C., came back to take the next two and win the main event on last night's wrestling program here from Howard Cantonwine, 230, of Portland.

The Portland grappler won the first fall with a double reverse wristlock in 20 minutes. Forgren took the next with a body slam in 10 minutes, and used the same hold to win the deciding tangle in four minutes.

Bob Myers, 162, Tillamook, defeated Sallor Franz, 166, taking one fall, in the semi-windup.

Jack Kogut, 205, Des Moines, Ia., and Bob Kruse, 210, Portland, wrestled three rounds to draw.

Frank McDaniel, 150, Marysville, Cal., won the preliminary from Jack Stewart, 147, Seattle, with one fall.

BABE RUTH MAY MANAGE MINORS

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 23.—(AP)—The News says today Babe Ruth has been offered the job of managing the Newark Bears of the International league and that there is a "fifty-fifty chance he will accept."

The news said it had received this information from a source "very close to the internal affairs of the American league."

The paper added that back of the move to have the great slugger of the New York Yankees take the post made vacant by the release of Al Mamaux "is a desire in the Yankee organization to have Ruth as manager of the New York American league club, after he has demonstrated his managerial ability elsewhere."

The Newark team is the No. 1 farm of the Yankee system.

ARMY-NAVY TILT STIRS INTEREST

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—While there may be bigger crowds at other games Saturday, there's no lack of enthusiasm in either camp as preparations for the Army-Navy football battle at Philadelphia Saturday go on.

At practice sessions every cadet or midshipman who wasn't busy on the field has been present to cheer the players on. West Point broke out yesterday with an array of banners, painted sheets and so forth exhorting the Cadets to "Beat Navy."

Today Army was scheduled for a light drill before leaving for the Pine Valley Golf club, near Philadelphia, where the team will remain until Saturday.

PORTLAND BUCKAROOS TAKE HOCKEY OPENER

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Portland Buckaroos loomed today as a team to be reckoned with in the Northwest Hockey league race by reason of their 5 to 2 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos in their game here last night.

The contest, played before a crowd of 3000, opened the season here and was the first professional hockey Portland has seen for three years.

Rheanne, Portland goalie, who formerly was with Les Canadiens, was the outstanding star of last night's encounter.

PUGILISTS OUT, SAYS DEMPSEY'S EX-WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Pugilists, including the handsome, curly-haired Max Baer, are "out" so far as Estelle Taylor, the former Mrs. Jack Dempsey, is concerned.

The actress, appearing in a stage production here, declared so emphatically today after reports she and Baer, who aspires to the heavyweight title once held by Dempsey, had been seen together were called to her attention.

PORTLAND, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Red Tingley, 190-pound boxer of Bellingham, suffered a complete fracture of his collar bone yesterday when hit in that spot by young Firpo during a sparring exhibition. Tingley was to have boxed with Harry Thomas on the Firpo-Ketchell card next Tuesday, but will be unable to fulfill his engagement.

MIKE MIKULAK'S TABLE PROWESS ASTOUNDS COACH

By ALAN GOULD

"Take 'em or leave 'em, here are some of the early All-America returns: "Joe Skladany (Pittsburg end), who received considerable acclaim for his fine all-around work last year, especially on defense, is every bit as good if not better this year."

"Charles 'Buz' Harvey (Holy Cross tackle) has been outstanding in every game. Stopped Harvard's goal line charge single-handed and place-kicked the goal that beat the Crimson. Was line star on the day that Detroit walloped Holy Cross."

"Francis 'Pug' Lund (Minnesota fullback) seems destined to be unanimous choice for all Big Ten backfield and a probable All-American."

"Undoubtedly the greatest back in the Big Ten this year is Duane Purvia of Purdue. He is not only an elusive, hard-running back, but he can punt a mile and pass 60 yards."

"Chuck Bernard of Michigan is unquestionably the outstanding center in the country. He weighs 216 pounds and is the backbone of the Michigan defense."

For the past two seasons, "Iron Mike" Mikulak, 200-pound fullback of the University of Oregon, has been about as well regarded as any back in the Pacific coast conference. Chiefly noted for his defensive ability heretofore, Mikulak has been bucking the lines this year with all the earnestness and drive of a locomotive plowing through a snowdrift.

Mike's appetite seems to be justly famous. The story is told of one of Oregon's trips, when Pat Spens was the head coach and when the boys were told to eat all they wanted on the way back from an especially hard game. Everybody was having a fine time until the team manager spotted Mikulak's check:

"What's this? Eight dollars!" he exclaimed. "Aren't you about through?"

"Just about," Mike replied, "but I haven't had my dessert yet."

GRID DEFENSE HAS EDGE UNDER RULES IS OPINION

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—An opinion today reveals that 37 players out of a total of 65 think the defense has a more or less decided "edge" of the others, if believe the game is now evenly divided as to opportunities for both sides while the remaining 10 consider the advantage rests with the offense.

The majority opinion is somewhat striking inasmuch as the only important change in the rules for 1933, designed to eliminate the out-of-bounds play along the sidelines, favors the offense. However, it apparently reflects the general reaction to this year's unusually low scoring among major teams as well as a conviction among the players that the offense is severely handicapped by the rule which automatically stops the ball carrier if any part of his body except his hands or feet touches the ground.
